FROM: The Director of Religious Activities

TO: All Faculty Members:

Religious Emphasis Week will be observed on our campus, under the leadership of the United Religious Council, April 21-24. The general theme of the program will be "The Role of Religion in an Educated Person's Life." Dr. Myron T. Hopper, of the College of the Bible in Lexington, Kentucky, will be our visiting Speaker and Resource Person. He will speak Tuesday morning at a campus-wide assembly and Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights in Ed Landreth Auditorium.

We solicit the co-operation of every member of the faculty in the observance of the Week. We sincerely hope that you will take some time during the Week to point out to your students some of the religious values in your particular course of study and in higher education in general.

The Administration has given its approval to a specific project as a part of the week's activity which we think will turn out to be a very significant part of the total program. We will undertake to furnish, on Wednesday and Thursday mornings (and possibly at other times if desired), speakers for such classes as are willing to use them, who will attempt to point out the relation of religion to the field of study of that particular class. These speakers will be local ministers, or professors in our own or other schools in Fort Worth, laymen or laywomen who have some particular knowledge of the course to which they are assigned and who are definitely religious people, able to discuss this relationship intelligently.

If this project seems attractive to you and you think it is feasible for any or all of your classes, will you take it up with the members of your classes at once, and determine whether they are willing to hear such a presentation? (We do not want any "captive" audiences, and will send speakers only to classes which invite us to do so.) If a class does vote to extend such an invitation, we would appreciate it if you, as the instructor, would recommend a person whom you would especially like to invite to speak to that class. If you have no preference, we will try to locate the proper person and clear with you before he or she comes.

Please use the enclosed blank to give us the necessary information and return it to my office through Inter-Office Mail at once.

Sincerely,

George P. Fowler

Director of Religious Activities
