Mr. Amon G. Carter,
Fort Worth, Texas.

Dear Carter:

I have a grievance against the promoters of the dinner given to you last night, because I was not invited to be one of the hosts. I don't know whether they skipped me because they thought I was not enough of a prom cit, or because they thought I was not enough friend of yours. I hope you agree with me that there is no basis for the latter conclusion.

Your friend,

Robert Harrison
