

"SAVAGE CLUB"
TELEGRAMS- LONDON.

TELEPHONE- REGENT 3289.
GERRARD 2927.

SAVAGE CLUB,
ADELPHI, W. C. 2.

Jan 10. 29

My dear Mr Wells

I cannot lay hands
on those papers - I told you we were moving.

So I haste to tell you so.

I'll send them on for you to look at.

My regards to Mrs Wells. I pray that our old enemy

The Atlantic will be kind to you both.

Yours sincerely
J. M. Tomlinson

P. S., I've ventured to tell
Mr Frank V. Morley (younger brother of Kit) to call on you.
He will be in New York shortly—he is resident here (Century Co).
One of the best critics & most sagacious minds I know.
You'll like him.

H. M. TOMLINSON, A. L. S., 10 January 1929, to James R. Wells.

[engraved except for date]

"SAVAGE CLUB"

TELEGRAMS—

LONDON.

[ornament]

SAVAGE CLUB,

TELEPHONE—REGENT 3289.

ADELPHI, W.C.2.

GERRARD 2927.

Jan 10. '29

My dear Mr Wells

I cannot lay hands on those papers—I told you we were moving. So I haste to tell you so. I'll send them on for you to look at.

My regards to Mrs Wells. I pray that our old enemy [p. 2] the Atlantic will be kind to you both.

Yours sincerely

H. M. Tomlinson

[flourish]

P.S., I've ventured to tell Mr Frank V. Morley (younger brother of Kit) to call on you. He will be in New York shortly—he is a resident here (Century Co.). One of the best critics & most sagacious minds I know. You'll like him.

ALS, 2 pages. Single sheet (folded once to fit envelope), 17.8 x 11.4 cm.

Wove paper. Watermark: Portion of shield above motto.

Envelope: 9.5 x 12 cm., with cancelled 3-halfpence stamp. Flap:
THE SAVAGE CLUB.

Postmarks: (face) LONDON – W. C. | JAN 11 | 12⁴⁵ AM | 1929. D; (verso) LONDON. W. 1. | JAN 11 | 1¹⁵ PM | 1929
A (bordered BRITISH INDUSTRIES | FAIR. FEB. 18–
MARCH | FOR TRADE BUYERS.

Address: James R. Wells Esq^r | Mayfair Hotel | Berkeley
Square | W. C. (C cancelled in favor of 1)—the last 3 lines cancelled and replaced by Room 305 | 522-5^t. Ave | New York.

Provenance: Unknown. Inserted in The Sea and the Jungle, London, 1912.

Unpublished.

Note: I cannot identify James R. Wells.

From page 141 of Kendall, 1970