

COMANCHE, TEXAS, NO.2.

Found by Mr. jim Powers about 1956. This is a typical old stony meteorite. Two surfaces look like breaks formed during descent. Other meteorites from the fall are probably in the vicinity.