Dear Sir:

May I ask once more, with feeling, whether you will lend me the Cranfills Gap stone to put on exhibit at Texas Christian University.

I wrote you last September 21, but told you I would be gone for a few weeks at that time and I am hoping you just procrastinated answering. I think the object would be seen and appreciated by students out there, and I believe it would be safe. I am risking a bunch of my meteorites in the exhibit.

Yours sincerely,

Oscar E. Monnig
