Leslie P. Evans, Chairman
Faculty Program Committee

A MATTER OF GREAT IMPORTANCE TO FACULTY AND ALL ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICES
(A careful reading and prompt action will be appreciated)

1. The Spring registration has come to a close. February 11, as previously announced in the Catalog, the Faculty Bulletin, and on bulletin boards, was the last date for registration or for adding a course. Registration figures will be released in due time from President Sadler's Office.
2. Sincere thanks to the 65 teachers who turned in the special REPORT called for February 3 by Dean Richardson and the academic deans (and placed in the mail boxes for distribution on that same date). Dean Richardson, Chairman of the Registration Committee, urgently requests that all teachers who did not send in this report by February 7, as requested, should turn them in not later than Friday noon, February 13, that the final check may be made. There are 234 teachers.
3. In order to get from the IBM equipment accurate information, it is imperative that everyone on the campus lend cooperative assistance in the registration procedure and follow up, that accurate information is fed to the machines.
4. The Preliminary Class Rolls will be forthcoming as soon as the above requests have been met. They will reflect your cooperation, also the drops, adds and changes. We will issue these rolls with the highest degree of accuracy possible, and will appreciate your following the instructions attached thereto when you receive them early next week.

S. W. Hutton,
Registrar

TO ALL FACULTY

Our annual Religious Emphasis Week observance will be held Tuesday through Friday of next week. You will note that the main programs will be held in Ed Landreth Auditorium at 10:00 A.M. on Thursday and Friday. The Administration has given us permission to hold these four convocations for which all classes will be dismissed because of the difficulty in the past of securing a good attendance in evening meetings.

We feel that we have secured a group of outstanding speakers to present to the faculty and student body on these four days, and we ask for your cooperation in securing a large attendance each morning.

You will observe that no one class will be interrupted more than once in the entire week. Furthermore, these convocations will be the only time the United Religious Council will interfere with the class schedule this spring with the exception of the traditional Easter convocation which will be held at 9:00 A.M., March 27th. Please urge the attendance of your students at all the events of Religious Emphasis Week which they can possibly attend.

Director of Religious Activities

THE MAY 31ST CANDIDATE LIST

Yes, the Registrar's Office is needing the list of students together with their Petition Sheets. This is the usual call and relates to the May list only. This procedure is suggested -

1. Department heads are requested to contact their candidates right away and have each student sign his petition sheet the way he wants his name to appear on his diploma.
2. The Deans are requested to assemble this data from the Department Heads, then submit it to the Registrar by Feb. 20.

Thank you most heartily for your help in this vital matter.

S. W. Hutton,
Registrar
