

TEXAS CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY
FORT WORTH, TEXAS

OFFICE OF ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT

May 7, 1953

TO ALL MEMBERS OF THE TCU TEACHING STAFF:

All University classes are to be dismissed for the Creative Writing Assembly at 11:00 A.M., Friday, May 15, in the Ed Landreth Auditorium. We trust that you will make every effort to see that your students attend this all-school assembly. The speaker this year should be of interest to all students. He is Mr. George Williams of the English Department of the Rice Institute, the author of textbooks on writing, and of the prize-winning novel, The Blind Bull. He has the reputation of being an excellent speaker. The awards in the Creative Writing Contests will be presented, and the Creative Writing Publication distributed.

We also hope that you will be able to attend the other Creative Writing events and will encourage your students to do so. You will find an enclosed program of the complete Creative Writing Meet. We would appreciate your posting it on your office bulletin board.

We will be grateful for your cooperation in this project. Since it is the last of our general convocations for this year and since this is one of our means of developing "school spirit" we desire a large attendance. President Sadler has recommended full participation on the part of all. This Convocation should prove to be one of the most inspirational and creative of all held during the year.

Cordially yours,
Noel L. Keith
Noel Keith
Assistant to the President