

A LAST MINUTE REMINDER

All teachers will doubtless receive their Final Class Rolls about the time this Faculty Bulletin reaches the offices. We will depend on your cooperation in following through according to guiding directions. Any deviation slows down the procedure and makes it doubly difficult to serve our patrons with consistency. We seek to work together.

If you have lost your copy of the Final Examination Schedule we can supply you with a copy upon request.

The marshals have sent a letter to each student listed among the candidates for graduation May 31st. This letter outlines detailed instructions regarding all essential items.

Faculty members will receive similar notice if this has not already been received. You doubtless have this word and have indicated your attendance plans to the marshals.

S. W. Hutton,
Registrar

REMINDER

The Commencement marshals, Dr. Estus C. Polk and Dr. Robert Talbert, have requested a reply to their call for information about those who will be present for the academic processions during Commencement and Baccalaureate services, May 31. Please report to them whether you can be present. We desire to have a large representative group of all the faculty whether you can attend in academic attire or not. The 9:30 A.M. service will be in the Ed Landreth Auditorium; the 8:00 P.M. service will be held in the Amon Carter Stadium (except in case of rain, under which condition it will be in the Ed Landreth Auditorium).
