

FACULTY BULLETIN

Vol. XXX August 27, 1953 No. 10

A Big "Thank You!"

We are grateful for the prompt response from the faculty on sending in the final grades on students scheduled to graduate August 30. Thursday, 9 a. m., August 27, is the deadline for these.

Another big "thank you" is offered in advance to teachers who meet the requested schedule calling for grades on all Summer Students to reach the Deans not later than 11 a. m., Saturday, August 29. The Deans will send over one copy to the IBM Office not later than noon on that same date.

You will help the Registrar's Office greatly by announcing in your classes that students desiring transcripts sent out shortly after August 30 should request this service immediately to avoid delay.

S. W. Hutton, Registrar

TALL TALES FROM ALASKA

Dean T. F. Richardson is back from that 10,000-mile automobile trip to Alaska. His best yarn is about the time he burned out a bearing in the wilds, hitch-hiked 189 miles, got the car fixed and rolling again--all within 30 hours. The mechanic who did the work thought Dean was a minister--until he started describing the rock that had bounced up, broken off the valve on the oil pan. No minister would talk like that, said the man.

TWO NEW FACES

Two new faces will be seen around the campus this fall. They are Harlie Lawrence Smith, Jr., new assistant professor of French, and Arthur L. Cheney, instructor in trumpet and French horn. Both of these folks will be around after Sept. 1, so drop by and let them know we're glad to have 'em.

Lorraine Sherley On Leave

Miss Lorraine Sherley of the English Department has been given leave of absence for the 1953-54 school year to continue special research at the University of Birmingham in England. Her address: Fold Hotel, Payton St., Stratford-on-Avon, at the last report. That's real Shakespeare country.

CRUSADERS IN CONSERVATION

We think the work planned for this coming year by Dr. Martine Emert, associate professor of geography, deserves a round of applause. Dr. Emert is developing a course in conservation of natural resources to be offered in the Evening College. In connection with that course, she is helping with a course in "Practical Grassland Management" which will be taught by Arthur H. Courtade. Keep up the good work, folks!

Report From Europe

Dr. Troy Crenshaw reports by postcard from Paris, dated Aug. 7. Despite strikes and trouble, he fully expects his group to be back in Texas at the scheduled time. (Nope, the Paris postcard would be of no interest to Dr. Kinsey.)

PURELY PERSONAL

The sympathy of all goes to Miss Eula Lee Carter over the death of her mother. Dr. Ray Lindley, new vice-president, is in the Old South this week for the wedding of his son, Gene. Anyone had word from Paul Dinkins in far-off England? E. T. Cornelius has done a top job filling a pulpit in Dallas all summer.

Two members of the athletic department, Mack Clark and Bruce Craig, are to get their Master's this Sunday. Congrats, men. George P. Fowler is due back soon from that cool vacation in Colorado mountains.

David Preston, ballet master, has been in New York studying latest methods. If you haven't seen the new booklet he has out, make a note to get a copy. Only 60¢.

Dr. Leslie Evans has finally confessed the reason we haven't seen him around lately. No TV, no Marilyn Monroe, just the mumps. Glad to know you're better, Les. Dr. Martine Emert has been vacationing in Oklahoma.

Marybeth Scott has sold her home and now has a neat apartment just east of "splinter village." Kitty Wingo has had a busy summer, working in the IBM and Noel Keith's offices. She's now on a short vacation.

Congrats, to Dr. William Reed who has been named distinguished Professor of Old Testament at Brite. Good luck, to Dr. Stanley Clifton who is going to University of Oklahoma as director of the school of social work.
