Vol. XXX September 10, 1953 No. 11

IT WON'T BE LONG NOW

Get set for fall registration! Monday is R Day. Prospects are quite favorable. Mr. Cumbie, assistant registrar, has the admissions program well in hand. There were approximately 600 applications from new students entering TCU for the first time on file a week ago.

You have the registration instruction sheet before you. Student records are being prepared in the I. B. M. office. The promptness with which teachers responded with summer grades, through the offices of your deans, was most gratifying. Again we thank you!

Yep, it won't be long now until department heads will need those "Petition Sheets" to guide in registration. Be sure to have them posted ahead of time, ready for your use. Most of the necessary data will be in the office of your dean.

S. W. Hutton, Registrar

Duty Change

With Dr. Noel Keith moving this week into his new office in the Religion Center as head of the undergraduate department of religion, some of his former duties are being shifted around.

Amos Melton, director of Information Services, becomes supervisor of the Printing and Mailing Room. Dr. Keith remains as director of the TCU Press.

Stand by for an announcement in the field of Ex-Student work. It will be a most welcome one.

GET FOOTBALL TICKETS NOW

Bruce Craig, athletic ticket manager, is now issuing season football tickets to faculty members. You must go by the business office first and pick up your athletic books. Then to the stadium where the tickets will be issued in exchange for book coupons. Don't delay on this. The Frogs are looking mighty good so far.

NIELSEN GUEST SPEAKER

Dr. Otto R. Nielsen, dean of the School of Education, was a guest speaker at two sessions of the Faculty Orientation Conference at Prairie View Agricultural and Mechanical College, September 9.

SOMETHING NEW

If you were watching your TV set Sunday afternoon about 5 o'clock, perhaps you saw Dr. Charles F. Lehman, associate professor of music education. Dr. Lehman gave a demonstration of his latest invention, a pen with scientifically placed and designed grooves to fit the natural angle of the writing fingers. Next time you have lots of writing to do, go by and ask Dr. Lehman if you can use one of his new pens. Sure will save your arm and hand.

Evening College Additions

Seven new faculty members have been named in the Evening College. They are: Dr. Tino Ahrens, who will teach nuclear physics; Leonard H. Brantley in accounting; Charles E. Nevitt in management; U. H. Shaw in transportation; W. W. Lott in English; Dr. James W. Osberg in mental hygiene; and Dr. Harold Hipsh in vector analysis. Welcome, folks.

PURELY PERSONAL

That nifty red convertible seen around the campus belongs to Dean Roy Snodgrass--no less! You gotta stay young in spirit. Mrs. Bryson has had word of Paul Dinkins. He's in London, ready to start his year's work. Dan Jenkins, June grad, had luncheon with Lorraine Sherley in Stratford-on-Avon this summer. Small world.

Ernest Lawrence, new professor of voice, will also be choir director at Magnolia Avenue Christian Church. Arthur Cheney, new voice instructor and director of children's choirs at University Christian, joined that church last Sunday.

L. R. (Dutch) Meyer, the athletic director, brought back an amazing collection of shirts from Hawaii. His "Bird of Paradise" number is out of this world. See him for demonstration. David Preston, ballet master, is back from his New York trip. Reports amazement and high interest in Eastern circles over our fine ballet program.

A note from Dr. John H. Hammond tells us that he has enjoyed his summer in Mexico City and that he is now attending the Sixth Congress of the International Institute of Iberoamerican Literature.

Emmet G. Smith, instructor in organ, has returned from a month's study with Dr. Mario Salvador, organist of the New St. Louis Cathedral, St. Louis, Mo. While in St. Louis, he saw the pipe organ for the new Carr Chapel which is in last stages of construction at the Reuter organ factory.

Mrs. Louise C. Hague has been named instructor in secretarial science in the School of Business. We're glad to have her in the family.
