STUDENT DIRECTORIES

Student directories will go on sale the first of November, according to Dave Allred, chairman of the publication. The books will be sold first at a booth in the Student Lounge and then in the Bookstore. Price will be 50¢ per copy. Publication date has been delayed by one important list and "the fact that almost half the students didn't fill their cards out correctly."

PERSONAL STUFF:

Dr. Martine Emert has been most busy as usual. She spoke at Matthews Memorial Church on Oct. 11, the "93 Club" on Oct. 19, and the Retail Grocers Association on Oct. 20. Geography and Conservation were her themes, and she's tops on both.

Amos Melton, director of Information Services, will speak to the State meeting of College and University Student Deans in Dallas Nov. 4. Deans T. F. Richardson and C.J. Firkins will attend -- not to hear Amos but to discuss problems in the field.

Dr. A. O. Spain will speak in a panel discussion on Nov. 4, at a meeting of the Association for Democratic Action in Dallas. The subject will be "Comparison of Foreign Policy Orientation of United States and Great Britain."

MORE PERSONAL STUFF

Dr. Willis Hewatt represented the Athletic Council on the Frogs' trip to Penn State. His coaching wasn't any better than that of Dr. Hardt at Michigan State. Close but not quite. Dr. L. C. "Pete" Wright picked the Penn State score -- only backwards.
