

FACULTY BULLETIN

Vol. XXX November 5, 1953 No. 19

CONVOCATION MONDAY

Dr. E. Stanley Jones, author and traveler, will speak to a campus-wide convocation Monday at 11 a. m. in Ed Landreth Auditorium. It is hoped that every faculty member will attend and will urge members of all their classes to attend.

"We had a great turnout for our Fall Convocation, thanks in large part to the faculty," said Dr. Ray Lindley. "We just hope we can keep up the good work in that direction."

Don't forget. Next Monday, 11 a. m., Ed Landreth.

DR. SADLER IMPROVES

President Sadler was coming along nicely this week. He spoke by 'phone to his office and conferred with Dr. Lindley on this week's board meeting. Here's hoping he'll be up and around soon.

DEDICATION OF RELIGION CENTER

The board of trustees meets tomorrow morning. One subject to be discussed is the time and program for the dedication of the Religion Center. A date during the State Convention of the Disciples of Christ here is being considered -- probably Sunday, May 9, 1954. More later when things are definite.

MINISTERIAL STUDENTS

Dr. E. Stanley Jones, speaker for Monday's convocation, will also speak at a breakfast for Ministerial students Nov. 11 at University Christian Church.

FOREIGN STUDY AND RESEARCH FELLOWSHIPS

An announcement has been placed on Dean Jerome Moore's bulletin board which may be of interest to persons who have not passed their 36th birthday and who are interested in a grant from the Ford Foundation Board of Overseas Training and Research, (575 Madison Ave., New York 22, N. Y.). Other offices may have received the announcement also, in which case he hopes they will post it.
