LET'S WELCOME THEM BACK

Hundreds of exes will roam the campus Friday and Saturday. Let's all do everything in our power to welcome them to Homecoming. All classes have been dismissed for Saturday, not, as Dr. Lindley points out, to permit students to go home and faculty to travel, but to free everyone of them for the business of saying "Welcome back!"

We know all members of the faculty and staff will take as much part in the festivities as possible. We hope you attended the giant rally in Ed Landreth at noon Thursday. Don't forget the big bonfire on the quadrangle Friday night at 9 a.m. See the parade downtown Saturday. Support the Frogs against Rice Saturday afternoon.

Let's all do our part!

THANKSGIVING VACATION

Classes will recess at 10 p.m., Wednesday, Nov. 25, for the Thanksgiving holidays. Classes will be resumed at 8 a.m., Monday, Nov. 30.

HOMECOMING COFFEE

A Homecoming Coffee will be held in old Brite College from 9 to 10 Saturday morning, Nov. 21st for ex-students of Primary and Secondary education, including physical education. Mrs. Eva Wall Singleton is chairman on arrangements. Last week the Bulletin gave the date as Nov. 24. It should have been the 21st.

HOMECOMING LUNCHEON

The Executive Board of the TCU Ex-Students Association extends a cordial invitation to all members of the TCU faculty to attend the Homecoming luncheon meeting on Saturday. Time: 11:15. Place: Fellowship Hall, University Christian Church. Tickets: $1.25.

Signed: Jack Langdon, President, TCU Exes.
Mary Beth Scott, Chrm., Homecoming Luncheon.

THANKS TO ALL

The Solicitation Committee wishes to thank the people of TCU for their contributions to the United Fund campaign. As a group we turned in $2160.

Signed - Estus C. Polk, Chairman.

PURELY PERSONAL

Mr. Oscar Samuel Causey spoke to the faculty of Southwestern Theological Seminary on "Developmental Reading Training for Adults" last Thursday. He also spoke to the North Texas Chapter of American Society of Training Directors in Arlington Tuesday. His topic was "Trends in Developmental Reading Training."

Miss Joan Hewatt, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Willis Hewatt, married Johnny Swaim, B. S. '53, Monday in Washington, D. C.

Dr. Robert E. Robertson reviewed "Faith & Moral Authority" by Ben Kempel and "Philosophy and the Ideological Conflict" by Charles S. Seely in the Southwestern Social Science Quarterly, Vol. 34, No. 2, Sept. 1953.

Frances Mayhew spoke Tuesday afternoon to a meeting of the TCU Faculty Women's Club. She told of her experiences while attending the University of London. Miss Marguerite Potter was chairman of the meeting and Mrs. Curtis Nunn was in charge of refreshments.

Prof. Leonard Logan won a first prize at the Oklahoma Artists' Annual Exhibit in Oklahoma City recently for a piece called "Counterpoise." The work was a contemporary sculpture in cast aluminum. He has just completed a bronze plaque on exhibit at the University of Oklahoma and portrait heads of Dr. Winesanker's children.

Mrs. L. Moffitt Cecil, mother of Dr. L. M. Cecil, died recently at her home in Spartanburg, S. C.

Dr. Cortell K. Holsapple has been selected by the Association of University Evening Colleges to edit the proceedings of the annual meeting held in St. Louis last week.

Dr. Holsapple worked with such people as Robert A. Mumma, Johns Hopkins; Herbert C. Hunsaker, Western Reserve; Dean Long, Evansville College; and Frank R. Neuffer, University of Cincinnati.

Dr. Leland McCloud will present his program on the economic history and future of Fort Worth to the Kiwanis Club of the University Area at noon Thursday.

Dr. Estus C. Polk, associate professor of English, will represent President E. N. Jones and Texas Tech at the inaugural functions for President John Howard Williams of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary on Nov. 25.
