THE BEST TO YOU AND YOURS

As we come to the end of another productive year, we want to send every member of the TCU family the season's very best and to say "thanks."

Working together, our accomplishments have been notable through the last 12 months. The fine spirit of co-operation in evidence in every school, college and department has been deeply appreciated. It has been in the traditional "TCU spirit."

Let us all look forward to new tasks, new accomplishments, and new satisfactions in work well done.

THE MERRIEST OF CHRISTMASSES!

THE FINEST OF NEW YEARS!

Dr. M. E. Sadler, President.

THE BIG FIRE

On Monday night, dozens of faculty and staff members gathered with every student on the campus to watch the "Old Barn" burn. It was the biggest bon fire on the Hill.

Amos Melton, director of Information Services, denies emphatically that it was a publicity stunt -- although it did make Page One! Coach Buster Brannon has been absolved -- he was in Utah. Dr. Ray Lindley, reported in pajamas under an overcoat, has an alibi. Dr. Pete Wright said he's nursed the building too many years to burn it down now. And so it goes.

Some plans on what might be done are under consideration. More when anything jells.

EX-STUDENT CHIEF BREWING

Hartwell Ramsey, new director of Exes affairs, has been hard at work on plans and specifications. This week he turned in a 20-page outline of proposals to Vice-President Lindley.

From the looks of things, Hartwell will have the program in high gear before too long. It will be a fine thing for the University and fill a need of long standing.

One tentative plan calls for a real, interesting Exes Magazine. It would go to some 18,000 former students. We'll let you know.

PURELY PERSONAL

Dr. Otto Nielsen was in Austin last weekend to attend a meeting of the Board of The Hogg Foundation. He has been a member for 7 years. The purpose of the Foundation is to spend its funds to promote mental health of people of Texas in education, industry, hospitals, churches, home and family life.

Dr. Colby D. Hall represented TCU at a dinner honoring the president of the Disciples of Christ Historical Society in Nashville, Tenn., recently. He reported seeing many former TCU students in Nashville. Among them were Paul Murphy, Bob Boyte and Don Brewer who are attending the Vanderbilt School of Religion. Others were Clinton Henderson and Alex Mooty.

Dr. August O. Spain has been appointed to serve on the National Advisory Council of the American Association for Public Information, Education and Research. The Council reviews the organization's current program and makes recommendations for future services.

Prof. Warren K. Agee has been appointed to serve on the committee on standards of teaching of the Association for Education in Journalism.

S. W. Hutton and Calvin Cumbie attended a three-day meeting of the Texas State Association of Collegiate Registrars last Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Mr. Hutton took part in a panel discussion on the program.

SCHOOL RECEIVES SCULPTURE

Leonard M. Logan has presented his sculpture "Counterpoise" to the University to become a permanent part of the art department's collection. The piece is a cast aluminum creation composed of totally abstract elements.

The work was selected for purchase award in the annual west-of-the-Mississippi show in Denver, 1952. It was shown in the Texas State Fair. In 1953 at the New Orleans annual show, it took honorable mention. Recently it was awarded first prize in the Oklahoma state annual exhibition, and has been invited to be shown in a forthcoming exhibition, "Sculptors of the Region," in San Antonio.

DR. SADLER MAKES STATEMENT ON FIELDHOUSE

As the Bulletin went to press, Dr. M. E. Sadler issued the statement below in regard to the building program and the need for the new fieldhouse:

"During the past 13 years, I have been very greatly interested in the program of Inter-Collegiate Athletics at TCU. I have been anxious for us to help improve any faults which the total program of athletics might have, so that this important phase of our life could move along in increasingly satisfactory fashion. The developments which we have made in recent years in our basketball program have been especially satisfying to me.

The burning of the old fieldhouse was most unfortunate. We desperately need and we shall secure a new and adequate fieldhouse at the earliest possible moment.

However, we should not lose sight of the fact that we are primarily an educational institution. For anyone to suggest that we might sidetrack such items as the library, School of Business buildings or other needed academic facilities in order that we might build a fieldhouse is to misinterpret the major objectives and purposes of our institution.

The next building which we will start in the general building program will be the enlargement of our library. We shall go along with the library work and the School of Business buildings and the arrangements for other academic activities just as we have planned. In the meanwhile, if it is possible for us to secure funds from additional sources with which to erect a fieldhouse, we shall certainly start its construction as early as possible.

If funds are not available from additional sources for the fieldhouse, we shall have to make some other plans for our basketball until these other buildings which are so desperately needed in our academic work are constructed."

Signed - Dr. M. E. Sadler.

OF DEAN SOWELL

News of Ellis Sowell's resignation came too late to make the last pre-holiday bulletin. It was a sad development but everyone wishes Ellis and Irma well in their future in New York City.

Preparation of a replacement is already under way. The task will get very careful attention as Business is one of our fastest growing schools. Dean's resignation effective Feb. 1.

CATALOGUE OFF PRESSES

The style little general catalogue has come from the printers. It's a pretty job with photos and maps of all activities. It covers only general information about TCU, tuition, credits, enrollment, etc. and will be used mostly for student information.

This year each School and College will follow with its own bulletin or catalogue (one month). When all are done, they will be bound with the smaller general bulletin to make up the University's official catalogue.

FOR BULLETIN COPY

Copy for the Faculty Bulletin should be sent to the Office of Information Services. Deadline for the copy is 11 a.m. Wednesday morning.
