
BRIGHT NEW YEAR

Welcome back to the campus and here's hoping one and all had a right merry Christmas. The new year has already started and it looks like another good one for TCU:

Dr. L. C. Wright is busy on the budget; Dr. Sadler plans to start coming to his office for an hour or so a day (let's hope he'll take it easy); the blasting for the Student Center is nearly over (loose teeth have been picked up); there's a rumor that Noel Keith will teach a memory course (joke); Buster Brannon may win a game (no joke); things are looking up in general.

L. W. Ramsey, Director
Buildings and Grounds

So here's to 1954. Let's drive hard.

LOSS OF DEAN SOWELL

The news of Ellis Sowell's resignation came too late to make the last pre-holiday Bulletin. It was a sad development but everyone wishes Ellis and Irma well in their new venture in New York City.

Consideration of a replacement is already under way. The task will get very careful consideration as Business is one of our fastest growing schools. Dean's resignation is effective Feb. 1.

NEW CATALOGUE OFF PRESSES

The new style little general catalogue has come from the printers. It's a nifty job with 32 pictures and maps of all activities. It covers only general information about TCU, student life, credits, enrollment, etc. and will be used mostly for student recruitment.

Later this year each School and College will follow with its own bulletin or catalogue (one each month). When all are done, they will be bound with the smaller general catalogue to make up the University's official catalogue.

FACULTY BULLETIN COPY

Copy for the Faculty Bulletin should be sent to the Office of Information Services. Deadline for the copy is 10 a. m. Wednesday mornings.

BURNED PLANS MUST BE REPLACED

Before our fieldhouse burned, several faculty members had submitted requests for cabinets or other items to be made in our shop and drawings were sent with the requests. These were in the shop at the time of the fire and were lost.

In order to have these items completed, it will be necessary for all to re-submit the requests and drawings through the usual channels and then wait until our shop is back in operation -- sometime in January. Will all concerned check on this at once?

Buildings and Grounds.

MINISTERS WEEK

All faculty members and students are reminded of Ministers Week Jan. 11-14. Three outstanding speakers will deliver the McFadin, Scott and Wells Lectures and every session will be worthwhile.

Remember, the meeting of 11 a. m., Wednesday, Jan. 13, is a campus-wide convocation in Ed Landreth. Classes will be dismissed and every student and teacher urged to attend.

VISITOR ON THE CAMPUS

E. W. Franklin, director of public instruction of the Central and Berar Provinces of India, was a guest on the campus Jan. 2-6. He is spending this academic year in the U. S. to study American educational methods. He has spent some time at the Universities of Wisconsin, Kansas, Minnesota, Notre Dame, Michigan and Haskell Institute and will visit at Columbia and Harvard before returning to India. His visit was made in co-operation with the U. S. State Department.

FIRE! FIRE?

The School of Business had to call out the Fire Department Monday around noon. It seems that some mops caught fire. No damage done, though.

ALPHA CHI SYMPOSIUM

The TCU chapter of Alpha Chi will sponsor a symposium on "The Function of the University in the Atomic Era" in Weatherly Hall (Religion Center) at 7:30 P.m. Wednesday, Jan. 13.

Drs. Robert E. Robertson, Willis G. Hewatt, and William J. Hammond will be on the panel and Dr. Merrill Rippy will serve as moderator.

Faculty and students are invited. Coffee will be served after the discussion.

PERSONAL

Mr. S. W. Hutton received a Christmas card from Chaplain Frank Scofield. The Chaplain sent his regards to President Sadler, Dr. Keith and his other "old friends." He said he is glad TCU is doing so well and wishes he could be back here.

Prof. E. T. Cornelius will speak at Highland Heights Christian Church in Wichita Falls on Jan. 17. His subject is "Mexico." The speech is a part of the church's School of Missions program.

Dean Jerome Moore spent most of his Christmas holidays driving hard on the first AddRan College catalogue. He's also doing the Summer School Bulletin. Burned a lot of midnight oil in the effort.

Ambrose Edens, Thurman Morgan, Hartwell Ramsey and Art Wenger will supply the pulpit of Central Christian Church in Texarkana in January. Wenger, Ramsey, Morgan, Deans A. T. DeGroot and Roy C. Snodgrass will do the same for Kings Highway Church in Shreveport during the month.

Coach Abe Martin, Dr. Henry Hardt and Dutch Meyer are in Cincinnati for the annual meeting of NCAA. Abe and Dutch are greeting old friends and seeking future football games, while Dr. Hardt went to work -- and cast TCU's vote in NCAA councils. Amos Melton started for Cincinnati but was called off the train at Denison due to the death of his father-in-law.

EXCUSED ABSENCES

The following students were absent from the campus from 8 a. m. until 3 p. m. on Dec. 16 in order to participate in the Geography Field Trip. It will be appreciated if they may be permitted to make up the work missed.

LITERARY PILGRIMAGE

As the conductor of TCU's Literary Pilgrimage to Europe in 1954, I wish to solicit your aid in securing a suitable number of prospective "Pilgrims." The tour leaves New York on June 28 and returns to Port City on Sept. 1. The countries visited are Holland, Germany, France, Switzerland, Italy, England, and Scotland. In connection with the Pilgrimage we offer six hours of advanced English credit -- English 349, the English Romantic Poets, and English 347, the Victorian Poets. The price of the tour is $145, which includes the $78 tuition fee. Shortly you will receive a brochure including an Itinerary of the Pilgrimage. Send us prospectus!

GUNTHER'S WORKS PUBLISHED

Advance copies of two compositions by Dr. Ralph E. Gunther of the Fine Arts Dept. have just come from the presses. They are choral works of a sacred nature to be used by choirs. The titles are "I Look to Thee" and "Psalm 139." They are published by Balwin, Inc., Rockville Centre, L. I., New York. Five other works of his have been accepted by the same publisher and will be released soon.
