CAREER CONFERENCE ON JAN. 29

With West Texas and Fort Worth Chambers of Commerce, we are sponsoring a Citizenship and Career Conference for high school seniors on the campus Jan. 29. As of this time, it looks like some 1300 high schoolers from 32 schools will be our guests.

They will all meet together in Ed Landreth during the morning to hear speakers including John Ben Shepperd, attorney general of Texas. After lunch in our cafeteria, they'll break up into 32 or so conferences on careers in various areas. A score of our people will lead in these conferences along with prominent folks from downtown.

It's to be a big and important day on the campus. We hope everyone will join in to make it a big success. Dr. Leslie Evans of Education has already done a great job visiting schools and acting as co-ordinator.

WITHHOLDING STATEMENTS

Withholding statements (W-2's) are now available in the Business Office. If you do not pick up your statement it will be enclosed in your Jan. 31 pay envelope.

Signed - Cecil White, Asst. Bus. Mgr.

LITERARY PILGRIMAGE

As the conductor of TCU's Literary Pilgrimage to Europe in 1954, I wish to enlist your aid in securing a suitable number of prospective "Pilgrims." The tour leaves New York on June 28 and returns to that city on Sept. 3. The countries visited are Holland, Germany, France, Switzerland, Italy, England, and Scotland. In connection with the Pilgrimage we offer six hours of advanced English credit -- English 349, the English Romantic Poets, and English 347, the Victorian Poets. The price of the tour is $1145, which includes the $78 tuition fee. Shortly you will receive a brochure including an itinerary of the Pilgrimage. Send us prospects!

DR. DeGROOT APPOINTED

Dr. A. T. DeGroot, dean of the Graduate School, has been named head of the department of church history in Brite College of the Bible. He will continue also as dean.

The post has been open since Dr. Noel Keith was named chairman of the department of religion in the AddRan College. The dean has been a member of the faculty since 1949 and is an authority on church history. He is the author or co-author of nine books and numerous articles for magazines and journals. He was organizer and director of the European study tour program sponsored by TCU each year since 1951.

PURELY PERSONAL:

Word from Lorraine Sherley, in far-off England, is that some friends sent her some tamales, chili, etc. for a Mexican spread and that she served up for some British friends. 'Tis said they found things warm.

Dean Colby D. Hall's new book, "Texas Disciples," is a honey. Just about everything on the subject is discussed.

The sympathy of all goes to Mabel Major and Amos Melton on recent family deaths. And of course everyone lost a real friend when Prof. F. E. Billington passed on. He was most inspiring.

Troy Crenshaw was a recent visitor. Concludes his stint at North Texas State this month and returns to head English on Feb. 1.

Dr. Corrie Allen did noble work in getting out the first catalogue of the School of Education. Now in page proof and should be off the presses in near future. Jerome Moore has also done a top job on AddRan catalogue which is ready for the printer. Hope you've received the new little general bulletin. It's a fine promotion piece, so if you have any young friends looking for a university home, might send it along.

Warren Agee was in Austin this week for a Texas Press Association panel. He's still tingling over the Ernie Pyle award from the Scripps-Howard papers which gives journalism $4,000 for a new library.

The temporary museum of Palestinian antiquities, set up by Dr. and Mrs. Bill Reed on the second floor of Brite, is attracting wide attention. Contains some teeth (human) several thousand years old. Anybody we know?

Noel Keith, Roy Snodgrass, Ray Lindley and all the others did a fine job on Ministers Week. A real success with lots of Brite exes on the campus. The lectures were super indeed.
