CITIZENSHIP & CAREER CONFERENCE

Friday is the BIG day for the 1300 or so high school seniors on our campus. They'll meet in Ed Landreth Auditorium to hear John Ben Shepperd, the attorney general, and other top speakers, in the morning.

In the afternoon, they will break up into 34 "career conferences" in Fine Arts, Religion Center and Science Buildings. Many members of our faculty are taking leading roles in the occasion. Members of Student Congress and both ROTC units will act as guides and hosts.

This is a very important occasion for all of us. We hope that everyone on the campus will do their very best to make the young visitors feel at home. It is suggested that all departments in the three buildings mentioned be sure that the doors to labs, classrooms, Robert Carr Chapel and other places are OPEN, especially from about 11:30 to 1 p. m. Be ready to answer questions. Thanks to all.

PURELY PERSONAL

In far off England, Lorraine Sherley has done a review of Katherine Mansfield's new biography by Anthony Alpers. It appeared in the Dallas News, Dec. 27. Jacket of the book quotes TCU's Dr. Paul Dinkins who is also studying in England.

Hartwell Ramsey, ex-student director, attended a three-day confab of the American Alumni Council at Fayetteville, Ark., recently. Came back with a bulging brief case and head full of ideas.

Dr. Herbert Mundhenke of economics attended a conference in Atlanta, Ga., recently on "Highways in Southern Economic Development." Folks from all over the South attended.

"Advance orders" have been received by Lt. Col. Bill Murray, ROTC, for future assignment. Will probably be going next Summer sometime. Doesn't seem possible Bill's been with us three years. And it's sure gonna be tough to lose him. Few folks have ever become "real TCUers" in such a short time.

Carl Knox who has been assisting in phys ed and football coaching, leaves Feb. 1 to go into the insurance business in Arlington, his hometown. Good luck, Carl!

Dean Ellis Sowell of Business also leaves this week. Sure hard to see him go and again everybody wishes him nothing but the best!
