WEEKLY LUNCHEON FAVORED

Dr. Sadler's recent suggestion that the faculty might get together for luncheons has been received with enthusiasm. As of recent date, more than 180 replies had been received. The voting seemed heaviest for some plan calling for a once-a-week meeting.

As yet, all the replies have not been tabulated nor any definite plans made. The matter may be discussed at a full faculty meeting in the near future. If YOU haven't sent in your expression on the matter, do so at once.

ALL GRADES POSTED?

There have been some complaints from students this week that their grades for the Fall semester were never posted by faculty members. Some of them were quite concerned.

EDENS EARNS PH.D.

Ambrose Edens, instructor in Religion, recently passed final exams for his Ph.D. at Vanderbilt. Congrats!

The Undergraduate School of Religion now has four doctorates: Chairman Noel Keith, George Fowler (from Yale in June) and Robert Funk (from Vanderbilt in June.) A most learned gang--or should we say group? Fine work, men.

"CUP OF FURY" NEAR

The curtain goes up on "Cup of Fury," an original play by Bill Noble and George Savage, in the Little Theater Feb. 19. Everybody will want to see this sparkling performance from the hands of S. Walker James and Dr. Walther Volbach.

Dates are Feb. 19-20, Feb. 23-27. Make your plans right now. All reports are very good.

OLD FRIENDS REPORT

Registrar S. W. Hutton recently had a letter from William V. Roosa, former instructor in Religion. He's now working for the "American Friends Service Committee" out of Greensboro, N. C. Roosa sent word of former TCU folks: Jim Moudy, now dean at Atlantic Christian; President Travis White of same school; Floyd Leggett now in Norfolk and Clinton Bradshaw now in Kinston, N. C.

PURELY PERSONAL

The sympathy of all goes to Pauline Acklin of the Library on the death of her mother here last Monday.

Dr. Sadler has a new easy chair in his office where he tries to rest each day. Not too easy, with Student Lounge directly overhead.

Busy man: Dean T. Smith McCorkle of Fine Arts. Now working on annual West Texas tour of orchestra-ballet-drama groups, the big summer clinics for high school students, a program of summer theater and a few million other things.

Abe Martin, the grid coach, is having to hold his enthusiasm down during spring training. Says the team is 100% further along on running T formation than at the same time last year.

Dr. Ray Lindley, Jerome Moore and Dr. L.C. (Pete) Wright have really been laboring on the budget. Have been at it for weeks now and are really doing a thorough job.

ADDRAN BULLETIN NEARLY READY

Page proofs for the new AddRan Catalogue were getting a going over this week. Looks like a neat, 96-page affair with opening message by Dean Moore.

It will be the third Bulletin in the new series. Already off the presses are Part I, General Information, and the catalogue of the School of Education. Others scheduled: March, Summer School; April, Fine Arts and Harris College of Nursing; May, Brite College; June, School of Business; July, Graduate School; August, Evening College.

CHAPEL CONSECRATION IMPRESSIVE

A near capacity crowd attended the service of consecration for Robert Carr Chapel last week. Dr. Sadler presided and Elmer Henson of Houston brought the message.

Impressive in every way. If you haven't seen the chapel in its great beauty, give yourself a treat. It's something!

EXPRESSION ON "FAMILY PROTECTION PROGRAM" NEEDED:

Last year, a "Family Protection Program" in conjunction with the Disciples Pension Plan was outlined to the faculty and staff. Cards were sent to those participating in the Pension Plan for a vote and as you recall, two-thirds of a group must vote favorably for the new phase of the program by July 1 if TCU is to participate.

So far, less than half of our people have expressed themselves on this matter by sending in the yellow enrollment cards provided at that time. It may be that many have misplaced the cards and if so, I would be happy to furnish others. Having assumed this chore since the departure of Dean Sowell, I'm most anxious to have your expressions on this matter as soon as possible. Will be glad to discuss the Survivors' Benefits feature of the new plan with any of you.

Signed - August O. Spain
120 Administration Building.

TCU ARTISTS SCORE:

Winning 7 of the 13 cash prizes in the 16th annual Fort Worth Artist Show this week, TCU faculty members, students and exes dominated the field.

James Boynton, an ex, took the $300 first prize in painting; Prof. John Erickson won a $100 third, Prof. Leonard Logan and Senior Gerald Tharp taking $25 fourth prizes.

In sculpture, graduate student Charles Williams won $100 first prize; Prof. James Sterritt the $50 second and Ex Beebee Baker the $35 third prize. Nize going, folks!
