

FACULTY BULLETIN

Vol. XXX February 25, 1954 No. 32

WEEKLY LUNCHEONS START

The first faculty luncheon in Weatherly Hall Wednesday was a decided success. Some 85 took part and enjoyed the fine meal and good informal fellowship. They will continue each Wednesday for the next 11 weeks, skipping April 14 just before Easter and ending May 20, just before final exams.

Any and all faculty members may still join in. Starting next week, you can get on the "regular" list by paying $9.50 for 11 lunches. Just call Mrs. Owens, new hostess, at 330 and have your name added to the list. It is most important that you notify her in advance as meals will be prepared only for the number on the list.

A word about guests. They will be welcome for $1 each but Mrs. Owens should be notified of their coming by noon TUESDAY if at all possible. But be sure and check with her about guests.

There will be NO SPEECHES or formal program. But there will be time to get acquainted with everybody, to chat about problems and have a good time. Everybody is welcome.

YOU GOTTA EAT SOMEWHERE EACH WEDNESDAY. Why not with the gang?

RELIGIOUS WEEK CONVOCATIONS

Classes will be dismissed for campus-wide convocations for Religious Emphasis Week as follows: 9:00 a.m. on Tuesday and Wednesday, March 2-3; at 10:00 a.m. on Thursday and Friday, March 4-5.

I urge your support of these programs and all other activities of the week. The United Religious Council has developed an excellent program and it deserves the fullest co-operation of the faculty.

Dr. M. E. Sadler, President.

DON'T FORGET THESE:

- March 11--Last day for dropping course with grade of W. (After that, courses dropped will carry grade of WP or WF.)
- March 13--Last day for filing statement of application for diploma.
- March 1-5--Religious Emphasis Week.

THE CAMPUS CHEST

The Campus Chest drive opens March 1. It is one of the finest things our students do. It concentrates all the "giving" drives that confront our folks into one week. The students have developed it on their own and have taken great pride in their work.

They deserve our help in every way. When the time comes for the short talks in classes, or when there are other opportunities to help out, all of us should give wholehearted support. Don't forget!

TOUR TO MEXICO

Four TCU students with Dean and Mrs. Thomas F. Richardson will go to Monterrey, Mexico, March 3-7 as guests of the Monterrey Rotary Club. Making the trip are James C. Armstrong, J. E. McDaniel, Miss Joe Ann Zirwes and Miss Mary Lynn Cox.

The group will stay in the homes of Monterrey Rotary members. Entertainment will include sight-seeing and shopping. The trip is being made in the interest of international good will.

NEW ADDRAN BULLETIN OUT

The new catalogue of AddRan College of Arts and Sciences came off the presses last weekend. With brown colors and cream paper cover, it is a very striking affair.

It runs 96 pages which makes it a shade longer than the general information bulletin and will be the largest of all our schools and colleges. Dean Moore did a top job of putting it together. You can get a copy in the Mailing Room.

FACULTY PARTY

Be sure and skip dessert at home on Thursday evening, March 4. We'll be having a faculty party later and will serve you a dessert course that won't quit. Also a lot of good company. (Both will be superlative!)

Our honor guest that evening will be Dr. Chad Walsh, professor of English at Beloit College and our guest speaker for Religious Emphasis week. Time will be 7:30 to 8:30 p. m. The place is Waits Hall.

You all come!

Mrs. Gayle Scott.

KNOW YOUR UNIVERSITY

Much has been said recently about the importance of all faculty and staff members of an institution being good will ambassadors. It is further pointed out that such folks must be entirely familiar with "the philosophy of education and purposes of their schools."

TCU has some very fine and definite purposes. Do YOU know them? They'll be found on Page 2 of the new little general bulletin and are the results of the thinking of TCU folks from 'way back to 1873. These purposes, together with Dr. Sadler's message on the front cover of the same bulletin, state TCU's philosophy to the fullest. Might be well if we all would read them again--and think them over!

PURELY PERSONAL

Prof. and Mrs. Charles R. Sherer will be in Red Cloud, Neb., Saturday, to help his parents celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary.

Dr. William L. Reed, recovering rapidly from a foot operation, spoke recently at First Christian Church of Odessa fellowship supper. He'll be in Lubbock Feb. 28-March 4 for a Training School and will speak on "The Lands and People of the Bible."

More foot trouble. Dean Jerome A. Moore had to take it easy this week due to a toe bruise that has been very painful. Had to cancel his trip to San Antonio for Brotherhood Week.

Dr. A. T. DeGroot spoke this week to the Sons of the American Revolution on "Europe Today."

Dr. Carleton C. Calkin of Fine Arts was a judge in the recent national high school art contest. There were 2,500 entries in some 35 categories.

Dr. Michael Winesanker will present a paper at a meeting of the Southwestern division of the Music Teachers National Association in San Antonio March 4. His topic: "Musical Entertainments in England During the Latter Part of the Eighteenth Century." ✓
