No. 34-35

THIS WEEK'S SPOTLIGHT PERSONALITY:

Samuel Ward Hutton, registrar and professor of Worship Ministries whose retirement in September has just been announced. The genial and efficient S. W. (affectionately known as "Side Winder" and "Side Window") has long been a campus favorite. He has left his friendly mark on hundreds of graduates.

Born in Crawfordsville, Ind., in 1886, S. W. graduated from Grand Junction, Colo., high and studied at Colorado Agricultural College and Oklahoma Christian U. (now Phillips) 1904-1909. He took his B. A. from TCU in 1911, studied at Chicago and Boston Universities in the 1920's and took a B. D. from TCU in 1931.

Starting as assistant pastor at Fort Worth's First Christian Church in 1909, he was pastor at Riverside Christian, director of Religious Education at Magnolia Avenue Christian, Southwest Superintendent of Religious Education (1913-1924), associate secretary of the United Christian Missionary Society, supply teacher at Phillips U. and recently minister of the churches at Whitesboro and Palo Pinto.

He came to TCU in September, 1929, as assistant professor of religion. He was named registrar in 1932 and professor of Worship Ministries in 1936. He is a member of the American Association of College Registrars, was president of the Texas Association and the Southern Association of registrars and is secretary-treasurer of the Fort Worth Torch Club.

He married Dixie Williams and they have two daughters, Mary Frances Raugh and Anne Hightower. He makes his home at 2560 Greene. An expert in religious music, he published "Worship & Hymns" in 1930 and "Worship Highways" in 1943 with Dr. Noel Keith. He's a top hand at leading sing-songs and knows the history and author of all the well-loved hymns.

For his long years of faithful service, for his great influence for good, for his fine co-operation, the Bulletin is delighted to salute Samuel Ward Hutton this week!

CLASSES DISMISSED FOR SATURDAY

Don't forget that there will be no classes Saturday so everyone can take part in Ranch Week. The students have cordially invited the faculty to have a part in all events (except steer riding) and it would be fine if many accepted.

BOARD MEETING SUCCESSFUL

The trustees' meeting last weekend was very harmonious and fruitful. Dr. Sadler outlined a fine 10-year program calling for $5,800,000 in new buildings and remodeling of five old ones. First on the list will be the library.

Some $20,000,000 in additional endowment or its equivalent will be sought.

NEW HOSPITAL INSURANCE IN EFFECT!

As of 10:30 a. m., Monday, March 15, the new faculty hospitalization insurance plan went into effect, Assistant Business Manager White reports. So everybody is now set to get sick or have a car wreck! (We're kiddin', of course.)

All but a very few who held the old policies signed up for the new. There are now 161 in on the plan and the total may hit 180, White reported.

There was one rather happy note. One of the workers on the campus who was not in the old plan came in on the new. At 2:30 p. m. Monday, he was rushed to the hospital for an emergency appendix removal. A checkup revealed that he was fully covered under the new policy and will draw full benefits! Talk about service.

DEDICATION OF RELIGION CENTER

The new Religion Center will be dedicated on Sunday, May 9. There will be delegates present representing many educational and religious institutions and organizations. A number of honorary degrees will be conferred, and all Faculty are requested to wear academic regalia for the academic procession.

On Monday evening, May 10, there will be the special TCU session of the Texas State Convention of Disciples of Christ meeting in Ed Landreth Auditorium. Since we will have the academic regalia for the dedication services on the previous day, we plan to retain it and to have an academic processional at the evening session, which is planned with Dr. Harlie L. Smith Sr., President of the Board of Higher Education of Disciples of Christ, as the speaker. It is desirable that our entire faculty participate and wear their academic regalia on both these occasions. If you do not have your own regalia, you should immediately authorize Miss McDonald at the Business Office to rent one for you.

PURELY PERSONAL

Captain Randolph L. Hall spoke at the Westcliff Elementary School Parent-Teacher Association meeting on Thursday afternoon, March 11. His subject was "These Four Things."

The TCU Women Exes have collected approximately half of the amount of their goal in the Gayle and Mary Beth Scott Scholarship Fund. A $5,000 figure was reached after the proceeds of the game party last week were added. Forty Fort Worth merchants awarded prizes of electrical appliances, dinner tickets, flowers, bakery products and jewelry at the party.

Miss Frances Mayhew will speak on James Joyce at a meeting of Sigma Tau Delta March 27 at the home of Dr. Louise Cowan.

Dr. Willis Hewatt came up with a bright idea recently. He ordered a good supply of lobsters and oysters, called in his class studying such things for a session of dissection -- then ended up by cooking the specimens and having a big feed. That's eating your lobsters and having them too, eh?

Dr. Newton Gaines will speak to a meeting of the Fort Worth Section of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers in Science the night of March 22. He'll illustrate his talk with a number of old and interesting pieces of electrical equipment he has collected through the years. His first degree, a B.S., was in electrical engineering in 1911.

Tom Prouse has been in Canada due to the death of his father. Condolences from the entire staff, Tom.

Dr. E. L. Pross of Speech spoke before the Fort Worth Executive Secretaries group at Western Hills March 9, on "Oral Communication in Business." He will speak to the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs on March 31 on "Public Speaking for Club Women."
