*****
Vol. XXX April 29, 1954 No. ~~40~~ 41
*****

THIS WEEK'S SPOTLIGHT PERSONALITY:

Dr. Robert E. Robertson, assistant professor of philosophy. On the night of May 3, when "TCU Night" is held at LaGrave Field and half the proceeds of the sale of a block of tickets goes to the Campus YMCA, no little of the credit must go to the energetic young man from Wisconsin.

Bob Robertson was born in Milwaukee in 1919. He graduated from the Shorewood high school there and took B. A. (1942) and M. A. (1947) from the U. of Wisconsin. Working at the U. of Texas 49-53, he earned his Ph. D. in philosophy. He had been ticketed for an M. D. in the family tradition but an early course in philosophy changed all that.

In the Army from 1942-1946, he served in Intelligence as an interpreter. His duties carried him to England, France, Belgium, Germany, Panama and Japan. Back home, he married the girl next door, Miss Jane Stover, who had been with the Milwaukee Journal for seven years. They came to Texas and TCU in 1947 and like both very much. The feeling is mutual.

Although he can be profound (he astonished the Kiwanis Club of University Area with his lecture "The Theory of the Good"), Bob likes people and action. On campus, he is sponsor of Student Congress, the Philosophy Club and is faculty advisor to the Y. He's a member of Kiwanis, Torch Club and SW Philosophical Ass'n. He pitches into any job that comes along with a will.

For his leadership, energy, devotion to student efforts and willingness, the Bulletin says: "Saludos Senior Bob."

OPEN HOUSE AT RELIGION CENTER

All buildings of Religion Center will be open to public inspection on the afternoons of Sunday, May 2, and Saturday May 8 from 1-5 p. m. Guides will be available to show folks around.

If you have friends who have wanted to see the beauty of Robert Carr Chapel, be sure and let them know. Too, don't forget the big dedication ceremonies Sunday, May 9, starting at 2:30 p. m. Have your regalia ready for the big processional that will open the program on the Center lawn.

#####

TCU folks will have to be twins or triplets to get to all the things going on this weekend. The lineup:

Friday night: Fort Worth performance of opera, ballet and orchestra in Ed Landreth; Science Division open house, Science Building.

Saturday night: Ft. Worth Theater Festival at night in Ed Landreth.

Sunday: Open House for Religion Center, 1-5 p. m.

Monday: Federal Inspection, Army ROTC, review at 2:30; TCU Night at LaGrave Field.

And coming up: Creative Writing Day, May 7; State Convention Christian Church on campus May 8-12; dedication Religion Center, May 9; ROTC Awards Day, May 14; Commencement May 30.

OoooOoooO

PURELY PERSONAL

Dr. Edward L. Pross was elected lieutenant governor of the province at a tournament of the Pi Kappa Delta debate fraternity. The "province" includes Texas, Arkansas, Louisiana and Oklahoma and his term is for two years.

Dean Jerome A. Moore spoke twice in Breckenridge Sunday. He addressed the First Christian Church in the morning and during the afternoon spoke in Spanish to the Mexican Christian Church. Saturday, Dean Moore will attend an executive committee meeting of the Association of Texas Colleges. He is vice-president of the Association.

Named to the Board of Editors, History Division, of the Southwestern Social Science Quarterly for 1954-1955 was Dr. William C. Nunn.

Vice-president D. Ray Lindley will turn baseball player Monday night when he throws out the first ball for the game between the Fort Worth Cats and the San Antonio Missions. Monday is TCU night at LaGrave Field.

What chairman of what undergraduate department of religion was inadvertently locked in what prayer room of what Religion Center with what secretary of what College of the Bible? See Noel Keith when he returns from the locksmith.

Mary Beth Scott reports that "Mama" Scott, her mother-in-law at Comanche, is resting well after suffering a broken pelvis in a fall recently.

The Fine Arts gang returned from the West Texas tour without major casualty. A stage platform collapsed near the end of one performance but nobody was wounded. Dean T. Smith McCorkle was weary but unbowed after the wild week. Ernest Lawrence's grand tenor drew ovations everywhere, according to reports.

SCIENCE    OPEN    HOUSE

All TCU people are reminded that they will be cordially welcomed at the Open House of the Science Division Friday night. From 7:30 to 9:30 p. m., all departments and exhibits will be open and some really amazing things may be seen. Tell your friends and neighbors. There'll even be refreshments.

FINAL EXAMINATION SCHEDULE - SPRING SEMESTER
May 24-28, 1954.

Instructions:

1. Each examination is scheduled for a period of two hours and should begin and close promptly.
2. Instructors will turn in their grades to their Department Chairmen (in duplicate) within 24 hours after each examination. The Deans are to gather the grades from the departments of their schools each day during examination week, and on the same day turn original copy to the Registrar's Office. The last grades are to reach the Registrar's Office not later than noon Saturday, May 29th.
3. By following the above schedule the IBM Operator can process the grades in time for early mailing to patrons and clear the way for Summer Registration.
4. Teachers are urged to post grades outside their offices as the grades are assigned, in order that their students may have the information promptly.
5. Grades on students graduating May 30 (Sunday) must reach the Registrar not later than Thursday, May 27, at 9:00 A.M., on single copy forms (blue) provided for this purpose. Graduating students may take final examinations at the regularly assigned hours through Wednesday, May 26. For other graduating students whose examinations would come on Thursday or Friday, the time may be scheduled by the teacher at an earlier hour.
