WELCOME BACK!

It's mighty good to have everybody back on campus again. The summer was mighty warm (even for Texas) and it was good that such lucky folks as the George Fowlers, Ernest Lawrences, Noel Keiths, et al, got in some time in cool Colorado. And the Willis Hewatts really had a fine time up in Virginia--and became grandparents no less. Congrats.

All the stay-at-homes really sweated things out--especially the Student Center where Pete Wright and Cecil White did a daily inspection, mostly getting in the workmen's way. Anyhow, the cafeteria and kitchen were ready. Really a moral victory!

Ahead lies one of the best years in TCU history. With all the new facilities, the five-day week and other things, the ole place is really humming. Again, welcome back!

FACULTY MEETING

A most important general faculty and administration meeting has been called by President Sadler for 4 p.m. Friday, Sept. 17, in the Little Theater. (That's in the Fine Arts Building for you new members.)

Mr. Clyde Tomlinson, chairman of the special committee of the Board that investigated fraternities and sororities, will discuss that matter as will Dr. D. Ray Lindley, who conducted a lengthy survey.

It is hoped that every member of the faculty will make arrangements to attend.

FACULTY LUNCHEONS:

Just as soon as arrangements can be fully worked out, the weekly faculty luncheons which were so successful last year will be started. Right now, things are a bit torn up with the opening of the new Student Center and time and place have yet to be settled.

Right now the thinking is for noon on Wednesdays. Of course, it will be impossible to set a day and hour which will let everyone attend but every effort will be made to accommodate as many faculty folks as possible.

Once again, these meetings will have no formal program. Just a general get-together where everyone can get better acquainted. Watch your Faculty Bulletin for definite announcements but plan now to attend these very fine affairs.

NEWCOMERS:

Everybody especially wants to welcome all the new faculty members to the campus. We will have about a score of new faces and as time permits, the Bulletin will give you a more detailed introduction to them.

In this connection, we'd like to remind all deans to be sure that all faculty cards are brought up to date and new ones made out for our newcomers. But even now, we can say a hearty "howdy" to all those who have joined us this fall.

PURELY PERSONAL

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Curtis, mother of Director of Living Endowments, Roy Curtis, died recently. She was the wife of a pioneer Christian preacher.

The death of Dr. Paul Dinkins this summer has left a deep void on the faculty. Death came suddenly and unexpectedly, apparently from heart trouble, at his home in Mississippi. Fellow members of the English faculty are starting a memorial to Paul. It is most fitting, as his fine influence will long be felt at TCU.

Warren Agee, chairman of the Journalism department, almost completed his Ph. D. dissertation during the summer. After winding up a few odds and ends, Warren will become Dr. Agee probably next Spring.

In the same area, Jack Suggs has completed his doctorate at Duke University and the award will be made next June 6. Nice going.

Byron (Buster) Brannon, the basketball coach, is really sweating out his new practice gym. A recent strike has delayed work and Buster's ulcers get more obstreperous every day.

ITEMS FOR THE BULLETIN

Remember, news and notices will be welcome from everybody in the Bulletin again this year. However, they must be in the office of Information Services (main building) by 10 a. m. on Tuesday of each week.

Present plan is for a Wednesday afternoon distribution this year. Just send items through inter-office mail or bring them by yourself. They'll be welcome.
