

FACULTY BULLETIN

VOL. XXXI Sept. 22, 1954 No. 2

FACULTY LUNCHEONS TO START WEDNESDAY

The weekly informal luncheons of the faculty, which proved so popular last year, will be resumed next Wednesday, Sept. 29, in Weatherly Hall of the Religion Center. Time will be 12:00.

Price for the first event will be 85 cents and ALL THOSE PLANNING TO ATTEND MUST notify the Office of Information Services (Ext. 341) by 4 p.m. MONDAY. That is the only way those in charge can know how many to prepare for. Last year, around 100 attended the luncheons regularly.

Since Mrs. Juanita Owens moved from Weatherly to supervise the big cafeteria, it is likely that Mrs. George Fowler will help out in Weatherly on a parttime basis. As yet, all details for the entire series of luncheons have not been worked out. Tentative plans call for a permanent reservation for those who wish them with payment to be made at 85 cents each week. Those who do not wish permanent reservations will also be welcomed at any luncheon PROVIDED they notify Mrs. Fowler on MONDAY. Guests will be under the same plan. More later on this.

PLAN NOW TO ATTEND NEXT WEDNESDAY. But make your reservation by Monday afternoon. Do it right now! We'll be seeing you.

FLASH! FLASH! FLASH!

The motion pictures of the TCU-Oklahoma football game will be shown at the Faculty luncheon next Wednesday!

Athletic Director L. R. (Dutch) Meyer has announced that he'll attend the event with film and projector and that all faculty folks who wish may stay and see the picture right after the meal. Don't miss this. A similar plan may be followed on the big games during the season.

OooooOooooO

FACULTY PARTICIPATION APPRECIATED

Some student leaders have expressed appreciation for the fact that many faculty and administration members helped with and/or attended events of Howdy Week.

This is a fine thing for campus morale and all those who can are urged to attend pep rallies, meetings, other student events from time to time. You'll be welcome-- and appreciated.

HOW ABOUT A VISIT TO CARR CHAPEL?

A volunteer service is being offered by Prof. S. W. Hutton to acquaint TCU friends, both on and off the campus, with the beauty of Robert Carr Chapel and graduate and undergraduate units of the Religion Center.

By calling either the Brite College office (Ext. 352) or Undergrad office (330), arrangements for conducted tours can be made. The schedule for appointments is: Monday through Friday, between 10 and 11 a. m. and between 2 and 4 p. m.; on Saturday, between 10 and 11 a. m. No schedules can be offered Saturday afternoon or Sunday except by special appointment.

This invitation is extended by both Drs. Roy C. Snodgrass and Noel Keith. All of us might pass the word along to friends who would like to see the Center.

OoooOoooO

PURELY PERSONAL

Dr. Glenn C. Routt will give a series of three lectures at the Kentucky State Christian Men's Fellowship Retreat in Cumberland State Park Sept. 24-26.

Coach Abe Martin had the answer up in Kansas last week when the officials were undecided over whether to penalize Kansas for delay of the game when they didn't come out at the half until the Frogs had been on the field over 5 minutes. Quizzed by the referee on what to do, Abe logically replied: "You're the officials--not me. I've got enough troubles." P.S. -- We got the penalty.

Amos Melton, Info Director, had a "ball" during his week in Kansas prior to the Frog game. Confabbed with such as Alf Landon (who sent his best to Dr. Sadler) and dinner with Arthur Eisenhower, brother of the president. Melton didn't spill anything in the excitement.

The whole campus is concerned over the fact that Elizabeth Shelburne and Mary Beth Scott have been hospitalized for rests. Absence of these two grand persons is deeply felt and we hope that by the time this is printed, both will be back on the job. Get well, gals!
