FRESHMAN PROFILES READY

YOU CAN STILL ATTEND FACULTY LUNCHEONS

The faculty luncheons at noon on Wednesdays in Weatherly Hall are still open to all of our people. Those who have made permanent reservations are, of course, expected each week unless they cancel by Monday afternoon.

Those who do not have permanent reservations can go any week they wish just so they call Mrs. George Fowler (or Dr. Noel Keith's office) by Monday afternoon. Let's everybody join in. They're a lot of fun and Dutch Meyer plans to continue showing movies of our out-of-town football games. The film on the Southern California game Wednesday was a honey.

FORT WORTH TEACHERS CREDIT UNION

Our attention has been called to the fact that all TCU teachers on permanent tenure are eligible to belong to and use the Fort Worth Teachers Credit Union.

This is a service organization through which teachers and other school employees may borrow money at a reasonable rate from their own fund and through which they may save money. Details may be obtained at the Union office of the city schools, administration building. Telephone is ED-7735

RECEPTION FOR BRITE FACULTY

The faculty of Brite College of the Bible will hold a reception Thursday afternoon at 4:14 o'clock honoring Principal and Mrs. E. Lyall Williams.

The event will be held in the cloister of the Religion Center and all faculty members are invited.

VIGILANTES TO LOS ANGELES

Three members of the Vigilantes, Bob Randolph, Bill Houston and Dave Allred made the long trip to L.A. last weekend to see TCU play. They may have missed some classes and Dean Moore advises that while it was not an approved student trip, he agreed to let teachers know where these adventuresome young men were. So now you know.

FRESHMAN PROFILES READY

C. J. Firkins, dean of men, announces that profiles of the tests of all entering freshmen are now available in his office. He reports he will be glad to send them to all counselors who request them.

HAVE THAT PICTURE TOOK!

In case you missed it, Jan Park is most anxious for all faculty members to have their picture taken at once. Jan is faculty editor for the Horned Frog and points out that deadline for faculty shots is Nov. 5.

It's all FREE. All you gotta do is go to Orgain's Studio, 705 1/2 Main Street, look real pretty for a second or two, and the crime is done. The Horned Frog is most anxious to get new shots of everybody (so is Information Services) so why not do it now? Won't hurt a bit and you may be surprised at the result.

A WELCOME BACK TO MARY BETH SCOTT

Everyone was delighted this week to hear Mary Beth Scott's cheery voice in the corridors. She's had a siege the last two or three weeks and while a bit shaky as yet, is again on the job. Which is 100% wonderful.

PURELY PERSONAL

DR. WILLIS HEWATT saw that grandson, at long last, in L. A. last week when he flew out with the football team. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Swaim is a lusty, four-month-old redhead (what else?). Willis' yarn that the kid yelled "Where's my grandad?" is not entirely true. What he said was: "Where's grandma?"

MRS. GEORGE (LORENE) FOWLER has been named new hostess of the Religion Center. She's already hard at work handling the faculty luncheons and other things.

PROF. WARREN AGEE of journalism has been a busy man. Attended the Sigma Delta Chi awards dinner in Dallas last week (he's prexy of the Fort Worth chapter) and will attend the Journalism Forum at SMU this week.

L. R. (DUTCH) MEYER, the A. D., was seen out amongst polite society in L. A. during last week's trip. Attended a nite show with Y. Q. McCAMMON, the board member, who also greeted the team after their game with Southern Cal. They took Trainer ELMER BROWN along just in case the going got too rough.

ART WENGER has qualified as the top "introducer" on campus. At a meeting of the Westcliff Dad's Club this week, his intro of AMOS MELTON was much better than the main event. Top members of said Dad's Club: COL. BOB DAVIS, CAPT. RANDOLPH HALL of AF ROTC.

See that picture of E. E. DALE and WILLIS HEWATT on the Society page Sunday? Them boys can really go. Versatile, too.

Word is that BILL MURRAY, former head of the Army ROTC unit here has been promoted to a full "chicken" colonel. He's stationed now in Germany. It couldn't have happened to a nicer guy but just hope he doesn't pull a lot of rank on us privates when he gets back.

DEAN JEROME MQORE represented the university at the inauguration of the new president of Texas Lutheran College in Seguin on Wednesday. New prexy is Edward A. Sagebiel.

CY LaGRONE has been voted the diploma of the American Board of Examiners in Professional Psychology. "This award involves the waiver of all formal examinations in view of the competence demonstrated in the candidate's qualifications as a senior member of the profession," stated the notice. Nize work Cy.
