LOOK AWAY TO HOMECOMING!

Just a week hence, on Oct. 29-30, what promises to be the biggest homecoming in several years will be held. The help of all Schools and departments is again urged. Remember, if your group is planning ANY sort of event, please call Hartwell Ramsey in the Exes office so it can be put on the official program.

While no classes are to be dismissed and no work slighted, it is suggested that everybody be as understanding and sympathetic with students as they work to get ready next week. There's a lot to be done but the enthusiasm is the best ever.

Latest word is that we CAN use Student Center for many of the events. This week the contractors promised to have a floor down for the ballroom and Friday night's big FREE dance. Too, the Snack Bar area will be ready for the Exes luncheon at noon on Saturday. It is hoped that all of you will make plans right now to have a part in these events. Let's make it a real homecoming!

IT'S A BOY FOR THE LES EVANS

Leslie Paul Jr. was born two weeks ago to Dr. and Mrs. L.P. Evans. Reports are that mother and junior are doing well and even Dad seems to have pulled through in good shape. The newcomer will enter the School of Education around 1972. What else?

SIGN UP THOSE DROP CARDS

Registrar Calvin Cumbie reminds that Saturday, Oct. 16, was last day for dropping courses without a grade. Faculty members should be sure, in signing drop cards, to give the student a WP (withdrew passing) or WF (withdrew failing.)

BRASS TO MIAMI

Dr. Sadler, Dr. Lindley, Dean Roy C. Snodgrass, Art Wenger, Dr. Noel Keith and Ernest Lawrence will attend the International Convention of the Disciples of Christ in Miami, Fla., next week.

Several wives will go along to see that everybody behaves.

PURELY PERSONAL

DR. HENRY HARDT, chem head, was in New Orleans this week for the meeting of the executive body on the National Collegiate Athletic Association. Lots of athletic discussion these days.

DEAN and MRS. CORTELL HOLSAPPLE were among those who drove down to College Station for the Aggie game. Really worked hard there in that last quarter.

Everybody was most happy to see SADIE BECKHAM, that grand young lady, at church last Sunday.

And a real Horned Frog salute to DR. BITA MAY HALL who is one of the most faithful members of University Christian choir. Rumors that she sometimes lapses into French during a chorus have not been verified. (Joke, Bitamay.)

DRS. COMER CLAY and AUGUST SPAIN were panel members at the Texas Conference on the United Nations in Dallas this week. General Carlos Romulo, Philippine ambassador to the U. S. was to be the main speaker.

Little known facts about well-known people: RAYMOND (BEAR) WOLF once kicked a 40-yard field goal to beat Arkansas, 10-7. Each year the distance gets longer and soon will match MR. PETE WRIGHT'S 67 yard run of 1909--the last 62 yards of which were out-of-bounds.

DEAN JEROME MOORE has been named to the Texas Fullbright Scholarship Committee. A most deserved honor, we'd say.

DR. ALLAN MacLAINE and JACK WILSON are teaching two courses at Camp Wolters near Mineral Wells.

DR. GEORGE FOWLER and JACK SUGGS are serving as interim pastors at Brownwood and the Morningside church of Fort Worth.

DR. MICHAEL WINESANKER is due to address members of the Music Educators' National Conference on Nov. 1.

EXCUSED ABSENCES

Last Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 12-13, Prexy Jack Graf and Veep Donna Kastle were in Austin with Dean Firkins and Elizabeth Youngblood for a study of sororities-fraternities. Dr. Lindley requests they be given excused absences for those days, as they were on university business.

VOGELER TO SPEAK IN FORT WORTH

Robert Vogeler, the famous American who was a captain behind the iron curtain, will be brought to the city on the night of Nov. 8 by the University Area Kiwanis Club to speak in Will Rogers Auditorium.

They say it's a stirring speech. Tickets are $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for students. The likes of Warren Agee, Bob Robertson and Amos Melton will have tickets if anybody is interested. Some classes might like to hear this talk.

LITTLE THEATER SEASON OPENS

Friday night, the winter season for the TCU Little Theater opens with a presentation of "Ladies in Retirement."

Students of the drama department were supposed to ask every faculty member about interest in buying season tickets. However, anyone who was accidentally overlooked can still order season tickets by calling the Little Theater box office (Ext. 243). You may order season tickets for yourself and members of your family for the reduced amount of $1.50.

Please call the box office manager between 1&4 p. m.
