FINE ARTS FESTIVAL

Dean T. Smith McCorkle and staff have arranged a top-flight "Festival" this year and all events should have stout support of everybody. The Latin-American flavor has drawn favorable comment from many artistic and political leaders. Remember this schedule:

- Dec. 1-18... Art exhibit, Fine Arts Gallery.
Dec. 3-4, 7-11... "Crown of Shadows" performances, 8 p. m.
Dec. 5... Lectures, music program on contemporary Latin-American Culture, Ed Landreth, 8 p. m.

Remember, all sessions are open to the public without charge except the play performances. Call Ext. 243 for reservations if you don't have season tickets. The play, by Rudolfo Usigli, is one of the best ever given here. You'll like it.

Congrats to Dean Smith, Walther Volbach, Carleton Calkin and all other Fine Arts folks who had a part in the planning.

NEW FACULTY ARRIVALS

The Don Rosses (athletics) and John Worthams (economics) will need additional Christmas presents this month. Both new arrivals are boys: Don Charles Ross on Nov. 18 and James Mason Wortham on Nov. 21.

Both fathers are reported doing well and making with the cigars.

ARMY GALS FOR LUNCHEON GROUP

Wives of the Air Force and Army ROTC units have formed a club which meets monthly at members' homes for covered dish luncheons. It was a move in self-defense. Meetings are held while the men folk are attending regular faculty luncheons at noon Wednesdays.

Air Force members of the new group are: Mmes. Green R. Davis, Merle C. Hollingsworth, Harvey L. Dockery, Randolph L. Hall and Hugh W. Lynch. For the Army: Mmes. James C. Cross, John M. Randles and Harold W. Brunkhorst. Mrs. Hall will host the group in December.

THANKS

SALUTO MRS. GEORGE FOWLER

The Faculty Thanksgiving luncheon was out of this world. Plenty of turkey, pumpkin pie and all the fixin's. Our hearts go out to Mrs. George Fowler, the founder of the feast.

You too can join in the Wednesday luncheon fun in Weatherly Hall. Just call Ext. 330 by Monday afternoon of any week and make your reservation.

NOTES ON FOLKS OF NOTE

JOHN HAMMOND, Spanish department, spoke to the Spanish group of the TSTA at North Himount School last Friday on "Mexican Literature Today."

DEAN OTTO NIELSEN of Education last week had a committee meeting on next Summer's big seminar here on "Religion in the Public Schools." It was a breakfast -- at 6:45 yet -- and those sleepy people representing TCU were CALVIN CUMBIE, OTTO, JEROME MOORE, AMOS MELTON.

PRESIDENT SADLER sat on the sidelines for the SMU game after promising NOT to run on the field to tackle any Mustang players loose for a TD. Kept his word, too, even when that Poney end snagged our pitchout and raced 70-odd yards for a score.

Now that football's over COACH ABE MARTIN plans to pick up his spare tire. Seems he left one to be fixed early in September and forgot all about it until recently. Suddenly discovered he had no spare and thought he was robbed. Only after checking around was he able to locate the missing equipment. Oh for the life of a coach!

HENRY KEY denies that the income tax conference he cooked up the last two weeks was for his own personal benefit. Says he can fill out a return without expert help.

That's sure a big Reading Conference OSCAR CAUSEY has set up for this weekend on campus. Experts from all over the country will take part and many sessions will be of interest to all.

Got a week? If so, get D. RAY LINDLEY to tell you about his deer hunting trip. The facts, sworn to and half believed, are that he bagged TWO fine bucks within the first 30 minutes and was the only guy to see a deer in a party of eight. When do we eat?

FRATERNITY RUSHING NEXT WEEK

The business of getting the fraternities started begins next week under the direction of the Committee in charge. Dr. Karl Snyder has really worked hard on the deal and the co-operation of all will be appreciated during the period.

Most of the events are set for afternoons. Check the schedule and lend a hand where you can. 'Twill be appreciated.

LIONS HONOR FROGS

With a fine assist from Lt. Cols. Jim Cross and Bob Davis, the Lions Club gave the Frogs their annual blowout at noon Tuesday. The event has been held many years and is a grand affair.

Since ROTC drill came on Tuesday, the help of our colonels was essential. They very kindly let the boys off for the one day.

DEAN HALL PREACHES

That grand young man of the campus, Dr. Colby D. Hall, preached twice at University Christian last Sunday for Granville Walker who was a bit under the weather. The message was vigorous.

The Dean, born in 1875, joins the likes of Winston Churchill at the four-score mark next year. All we can say is: Whatta man!

LITTLE GENERAL CATALOGUE COOKING

Work is almost finished on the revised edition of the university's little catalogue "General Information." Will be coming from the presses later this month. Also working is the new edition of the Harris College of Nursing catalogue. Right now, supplies of both old books are exhausted.

Last year, no less than 18,000 copies of the little general information catalogue went to students all over the nation.
