ERROR RE EASTER HOLIDAY START

FACULTY CENTER NOW READY FOR USE

Mary Beth Scott, our faculty social director, reports that the new "Faculty Center" on the second floor of the Ad Building is now ready for use. There's still a bit of painting, cleaning, etc. going on but the very attractive area can now be enjoyed for lounging, entertaining campus visitors and good conversation. The dates are correct but the day of the week in error. Might keep this in mind when making Formerly the "Student Study Lounge," the new Center is now for exclusive use by the faculty. The furniture has been tastefully re-arranged, some equipment and furnishings added until it is a very restful and inviting place.

Mrs. Scott has her office in the old Student Congress office and private committee meetings can be held there. On the other side of the entrance is a comfortable ladies' lounge with furniture from Jarvis Hall.

Starting next Monday, Jan. 24, coffee will be available in the Center from 8 a. m. to 12 noon. Faculty and staff members are invited to take their "breaks" there. Generally speaking, hours are from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m. but arrangements can be made for use at other times, Mary Beth said.

The Faculty Center is for YOUR use. Why not drop by and take a look at what's been done to turn it into a real faculty meeting place? It's swellagant!

Remember, too, that those of you who paid for "season" tickets in the fall will have a credit of one luncheon in  week's Memorial Dinner on Wednesday.

CREDIT WHERE DUE

During the recent Open House in the Student Center, many folks asked about the beautiful furnishings. This is to report that a committee, headed by Jerome Moore with Logan Ware, Elizabeth Youngblood, Mrs. Cortell Holsapple, Mrs. Jerome Moore and L. W. Ramsey, should receive full credit.

The group was named by Dr. Sadler and spent several months in planning and selecting. At the present, they are working on furniture for the Trustees dining room, curtains for the huge West windows in the lobby and the ballroom, men's lounge and other items to complete the work.

Mary Beth Scott assisted in selecting furniture for the lounge on the first floor. The Student Center Board made recommendations on equipment for the recreational room which were adopted.

Congrats to the whole group. They did a fine job of selecting the furnishings which all visitors so far are agreed are absolutely outstanding. A tough job well done.

ERROR RE EASTER HOLIDAY START

Calvin Cumbie calls attention to an error in General Catalogue concerning the Easter Recess. It now reads: "Easter Recess, 10 p. m. , Wednesday, April 7 to 5 p. m. Monday, April 11. "

It should be "10 p. m. , THURSDAY, April 7 to 5 p. m. April 11. " The dates are correct but the day of the week in error. Might keep this in mind when making plans for that period.

FACULTY LUNCHEON SCHEDULE

Weekly faculty luncheons on Wednesdays will be resumed Feb. 9 and continue through May 18. That will give us some 15 luncheons during the spring semester.

Present plans call for the 85¢ price to continue with those who wish to pay $12. 75 for the entire series. Others may make permanent reservations and pay each week but they must be responsible for cancelling on weeks they cannot attend. Others who do not make reservations of any kind may still attend by notifying Dr. Keith's office by Monday afternoon of the week of the luncheon.

Remember, too, that those of you who paid for "season" tickets in the fall will have a credit of one luncheon in the spring since the series was cut short for this week's Memorial Dinner on Wednesday.

DR. COWAN SCORES AT N. Y. MEETING

One of the highlights of the recent New York meeting of the Modern Language Association was Louise Cowan's talk on "The Fugitive Poets. " The report is that her fine performance drew high praise from distinguished scholars in American literature from all over the country. ✓

Dr. Louise is perhaps the nation's top authority on the "Fugitives" and her New York appearance brought TCU added fame. For which she is herewith awarded the distinguished service citation. Great work.

NOTES ON FOLKS OF NOTE

Librarian GLENN SPARKS represented TCU at a conference of the Disciples of Christ Historical Society in Nashville recently. Plans were made for indexing the "Christian Evangelist."

ALLAN MacLAINE of the English Department was named as chairman of the nominating committee of the National College English Association during the recent New York meeting. Congrats.

Recent speakers at the P-T Association at McLean Junior high: Lt. Co. BOB DAVIS and Dean C. J. FIRKINS. The subject was "Education in National Preparedness."

The whole campus was proud this week as Dean ROY SNODGRASS of Brite gave those fine Wells Lectures during Ministers Week. Ye Bulletin repeats that he's one of the finest preachers in the Christian Brotherhood.

(Which reminds of a recent heard story: A Northern visitor was asked about Texas. "Like it fine," he says, "but can't get used to hearing ranchers called 'cowpokes', oilfield workers called 'roughnecks' and Campbellites called 'christians!'" O well, we thought it was funny.)

There's nothing slow about S. W. HUTTON. Last Sunday at University Christian, one of the presiding elders failed to show up on time. The processional started with only one elder but S. W., contacted in a great hurry, joined in as the choir moved up the center aisle. Didn't miss a step and very few people were aware of the near-crisis.

FACULTY LUNCHEON TO RESUME FEB. 9

The Wednesday noon luncheons of the faculty group will be resumed in Weatherly Hall Feb. 9. The series will continue through May 18, making 15 luncheons. Mrs. George Fowler is again in charge.

Those who wish may make season reservations. They may pay for the entire series in advance or weekly as they attend. The price is 35¢ a meal. Those who make reservations and cannot attend must cancel by calling Noel Keith's office (330) by Monday afternoon of the week of the luncheon.

Those who do NOT make reservations can still attend any luncheon by making reservation for that week by Monday afternoon. There's a lot of good fellowship at these events. Why don't YOU plan to attend during Spring semester? You gotta be somewhere, you know.
