

CAREER CONFERENCE FRIDAY

The campus will swarm this Friday with some 1500 high school seniors from 43 schools of this area for our second annual Citizenship and Career Conference. It's a wonderful opportunity to interest many of the youngsters in TCU and every one should do what they can to make the visitors feel at home.

Right here and now we give a hearty "thanks" to the following folks who are serving as chairmen of various conferences: Neil Alexander, Bertram Trillich, Carleton Calkin, Abe Martin, Troy Stimson, David Preston, Henry Key, Henry Hardt, Newton Gaines, Walther Volbach, Margaret Rouse, Joseph Morgan, Martine Emert, Comer Clay, Leo Hendricks, B. A. Crouch, Bonne Enlow, Warren Agee, A. O. Spain, Glenn Sparks, Willis Hewatt, T. Smith McCorkle, Lucy Harris, James Costy, Roy Snodgrass, Marjorie Keaton, Robert Talbert, E. L. Pross, Cols. Jim Cross and G. R. Davis.

A flock of others are also helping out including Emmet Smith, Leonard Logan, McKie Trotter, Estus Polk, Robert Robertson, Jim Sterritt, Dutch Meyer, Elmer Brown, Allie White, Walter Roach, Leland McCloud, S. Walker James, Eva Wall Singleton, Clifford Black, Louise Cowan, E. E. Dale, Aileen Harder, Phoebe Maynard, Sue Adler, Katharine Bratton, Ruth Eloise Sperry, Jack Suggs, Dorothy Bell, Art Wenger, and others. Their help is greatly appreciated.

REMEMBER, MANY OF THE VISITORS WILL BE TOURING THE CAMPUS FROM NOON UNTIL 3:30. IT'S IMPORTANT THAT ALL AREAS OF FINE ARTS, STUDENT CENTER, RELIGION CENTER, LIBRARY AND SCIENCE BUILDING BE OPEN FOR THEM.

FACULTY LUNCHEON TO RESUME FEB. 9

The Wednesday noon luncheons of the faculty group will be resumed in Weatherly Hall Feb. 9. The series will continue through May 18, making 15 luncheons. Mrs. George Fowler is again in charge.

Those who wish may make season reservations. They may pay for the entire series in advance or weekly as they attend. The price is 85¢ a meal. Those who make reservations and cannot attend must cancel by calling Noel Keith's office (330) by Monday afternoon of the week of the luncheon.

Those who do NOT make reservations can still attend any luncheon by making reservation for that week by Monday afternoon. There's a lot of good fellowship at these events. Why don't YOU plan to attend during Spring semester? You gotta eat somewhere, you know.

The attention of all is called to the Fine Arts Ballet to be given in Ed Landreth Auditorium Thursday and Friday nights, Feb. 3-4, and Saturday morning Feb. 5.
David Preston's group will offer "The Labyrinth," "Jeux D'Enfants," and "Ballet for Band." the University is grateful to Henry Key who has done such a good job acting in as acting dean.

The University Symphony Orchestra under Ralph Guenther and the University Symphonic Band under Lew Gillis will take part. All seats will be reserved for the evening performances with tickets at $1.00 and 60 cents.

OTHER COMPOSITIONS PUBLISHED

It promises to be an outstanding event and all faculty members are urged to see a performance. Compositions by Dr. Ralph Guenther, our favorite orchestra leader, have just come off the press. They are published by Belwin, Inc. of New York.

NNNN NNNN

Titles: "Unto Thee O Lord" an anthem for mixed voices; and "Dreamin' Town," VOLBACH SCORES women's chorus, a setting of the poem by Paul Lawrence Dunbar.

Noel Keith reports that the TCU Press has received a request from UNESCO Library in Paris (France, that is) for a copy of Walther R. Volbach's "Problems of Opera Production." ESSENCES.

An International Reference Library of work of interest to music educators all over the world is being established and it is quite an honor that Walther's book should be one of those requested for world-wide dissemination. Does the University honor.
Congrats, Dr. Volbach.

NOTES OF FOLKS OF NOTE

DR. SADLER will preside at the marriage of his daughter Ann Elizabeth this Friday morning. It will be a quiet wedding. Daughter Frances visited the President and Mrs. Sadler at Christmas time.

The following students toured the Fort Worth National Bank from 8 a.m. until LEONARD LOGAN's three-way art easel, on display at the Faculty Art Show, has attracted much interest. Several schools have ordered them for their art departments.

BOB DAVIS (Lt. Col. Green R., that is) has a new job. He's secretary-treasurer of the committee of Troop 41, Boy Scouts of America. That a promotion, Bob?
Young David Davis and Randy Hall, son of Capt. Randolph, are members of the troop.

E. L. PROSS of Speech has another good article in "The Forensic," (publication of Pi Kappa Delta) for January. E. L. is still interested in the present state of intercollegiate oratory. A good article.

NEW DEAN DUE IN JUNE

Col. Ike Harrison of San Marcos, new dean of School of Business, plans to report for duty about June 1. Personable and experienced (he taught at Yale and was dean of Business at the University of Houston), Col. Ike is expected to get things humming over on East Campus. Incidentally, he expresses himself fluently in French and Spanish as well as English.

Incidentally, the University is grateful to Henry Key who has done such a good job filling in as acting dean.

GUENTHER COMPOSITIONS PUBLISHED

Two compositions by Dr. Ralph Guenther, our favorite orchestra leader, have just come off the press. They are published by Belwin, Inc., of New York.

The titles: "Unto Thee O Lord" an anthem for mixed voices; and "Dreamin' Town," a secular song for women's chorus, a setting of the poem by Paul Lawrence Dunbar.
