THE RALPH GUENTHERS SCORE

FOLLOW-UP ON CAREER CONFERENCE

The campus was proud Sunday of the picture and story on the Ralph Guenther family

Our second annual Citizenship and Career Conference last Friday went very well indeed. Seniors from 43 high schools attended, although two "expected" groups failed to arrive. One delegation was stymied when its bus broke down on the road.

All TCU folks who took part did noble work and are hereby awarded the "distinguished service" citation.

Now we should all be alert to follow-up in the matter of student recruitment. Information Services will tabulate the names and addresses according to interests and send them to the deans and department heads involved. A PERSONAL LETTER to each of the youngsters who displayed special interest, along with a Bulletin of the School or College, may help bring these folks our way.

Center Tuesday, March 8, at 7:30. Admission will be $1 per person and proceeds

LET'S FOLLOW THROUGH ON THIS AS SOON AS POSSIBLE.

Parties will stay in their own groups. Refreshments and prizes. Keep this date in mind. It's a real fine cause.

TOP MOVIES IN STUDENT CENTER

Beginning this week, a series of outstanding movies of recent years will be shown in Student Center ballroom. Students, staff members and their guests are invited and the price is only 10 cents a person, Elizabeth Youngblood announces. The shows will start at 7:30 p. m. Take a look at this schedule:

- Feb. 1 -- "Laura" (already shown, of course).
- Feb. 9 -- "Mr. Belvedere Goes to College."
- Feb. 15 -- "Letter to Three Wives."
- Feb. 23 -- "How Green Was My Valley."
- Mar. 1 -- "A Streetcar Named Desire."
- Mar. 9 -- "Room For One More."
- Mar. 15 -- "The Foxes of Harrow."
- Mar. 23 -- "The Razor's Edge."
- Mar. 29 -- "Gentlemen's Agreement."

THE RALPH GUENTHERS SCORE

The campus was proud Sunday of the picture and story on the Ralph Guenther family in "Parade," the national Sunday magazine. In case you missed it, the piece detailed how much fun music can be for a family -- and they couldn't have picked a better family for an illustration. Mrs. Guenther was the author.

The report that D. Ray Lindley, after reading the story, is planning to take up the harpsichord, is not confirmed at press time.

GAMES PARTY FOR SCHOLARSHIP FUND

The Fort Worth Women Exes will sponsor their annual games party in Student Center Tuesday, March 8, at 7:30. Admission will be $1 per person and proceeds will go to the Exes' "Gayle and Mary Beth Scott Scholarship Fund."

Parties will stay in their own group; there will be refreshments and prizes. Keep this date in mind. It's a real fine cause.

INTERESTED IN WORKING IN SOME INDUSTRY THIS SUMMER?

Dean Jerome Moore has word that the Southwestern Council on Education for Business Responsibility will hold its annual meeting in Dallas, April 15-16. The Council is interested in having college people find summer work in business and industry and plans will be worked out at the April meeting.

All faculty members in AddRan who are interested should inform Dean Moore as soon as possible. Sounds like a swell idea if you are not otherwise filled up for summer.

ROTC ASSEMBLY ON FEB. 10

Gaston Foote, pastor of First Methodist Church, will speak on the "Christian Soldier" at an ROTC Assembly in Ed Landreth Auditorium Feb. 10 at 9:30 a. m. The event will be the first Assembly at the new time.

Lt. Col. Jim Cross has lined up a really fine program to be highlighted by the awarding of commissions to three Army ROTC graduates. A special section will be reserved for faculty and staff. It is sincerely hoped that as many as possible will attend.

SURVIVORS OF SORORITY RUSH CITED

NOTES OF FOLKS OF NOTE

DUTCH MEYER, getting ready to take part in the Career Conference on "Athletic Coach," was asked what he planned to tell the youngsters about going in for careers in coaching. He needed one word: "Don't."

ART WENGER is still a bit shaky over that accident in Louisiana when his car struck a Negro child riding a bicycle at night. Fortunately, last word is that the youngster will recover.

MARY BETH SCOTT reports the new Faculty Center (old student lounge on second floor of Ad) is doing a brisk business in coffee these mornings. Why not drop in?

ARTHUR HUNT, bossman of Printing and Mailing Room last semester, will be leaving soon. Plans to take a church. There will be a third little Hunt before too long, you know. Congrats.

Students have an interesting way of designating our two faculty Sherers. Dr. CHARLES is "Professor Sherer He" and MIRTH is "Professor Sherer She." Both are popular.

HARTWELL RAMSEY of Ex-Students is now in his new office in Student Center. With field glasses, he can watch the grid team in spring training. So far, he hasn't given ABE MARTIN any new plays but it won't be long now.

That man tearing his hair is JOHN PRINE, security officer. He's figured out that the new parking arrangement in front of Student Center has added only ONE parking spot for cars on campus.

Three of our Army ROTC grads will be formally commissioned and all told, it will be a most impressive meeting. Our Army and Air Force people are especially anxious to have the faculty attend. Tie a rope around your finger and dismiss class is plenty of time to get there. You'll be glad you did.

TROTTER EXHIBITION

McKie Trotter of Art is holding a one-man exhibition at the Riddlers Country Club during February. And speaking of our painters, Leonard Logan, Jim Sterritt and McKie are represented in the State Fair Exhibition now being shown in the new Fort Worth Art Center. Nice work, men.
