

ARMY ROTC BAGS "SUPERIOR" RATING

BIG DOIN'S AT EXES ASSEMBLY THURSDAY

Interesting things, including expert pistol shooting and the awarding of plaques for distinguished service (not necessarily connected), will feature Thursday morning's campus-wide assembly in Ed Landreth Auditorium. Time is 9:30.

The Ex-Students Association, now a real going concern under Hartwell Ramsey, is in charge. The exhibition of shooting, with real guns and ammunition, will be done on stage by I. B. Hale, the 280-pound former All-American tackle who is now president of the Ex-Lettermen's Association and chief of security at Convair. I. B. was 11 years with the FBI and the things he can do with firearms is unbelievable.

Later, if they escape the barrage, Dutch Meyer and Paul Ridings will be awarded the Exes Association plaques for outstanding service last year. Dutch gets his for "most distinguished alumni" and Paul for "greatest contribution" for the year.

Once more, all members of faculty and staff are urged--no, asked--to support the assembly program. Inform your students, and more important, BE THERE YOURSELF!

OooooOooooO

FESTIVAL CONTINUES

The very fine Fine Arts Festival is continuing. Drama department's "The Barber of Seville" runs through Saturday night in Little Theater. Reports on the performance are glowing and Walther Volbach and his people can take a deep bow. Curtain time each night is 8 p. m.

And don't miss the exhibit of portraits by Mr. Ziegler in the art gallery or the concluding musical programs. There's a program of vocal music the evening of March 7, one of chamber music on March 8 and on Sunday afternoon, March 13, the Choral Club and Symphony will present Mozart's famed "Requiem." Ernest Lawrence has done a top job with the choral group.

And incidentally, the Bulletin sends a "distinguished service award" to Ralph Guenther for last Sunday's opening performance of Beethoven and Mozart. It was well done indeed.

BE INVITED TO THE FACULTY CHEERLEADERS

A reminder that all of our folks are cordially invited to take part in the Faculty Cheerleaders at noon Wednesdays in Weatherly Hall. Those who do not have reservations call Dr. Keith's office (330) by Monday afternoon and get on the list. There's a lot of good fellowship going on--you won't want to miss.

ARMY ROTC BAGS "SUPERIOR" RATING

Congrats are in order for the leaders of our Army ROTC program. The unit rated "Superior" after the annual inspection by Fourth Army on Jan. 31. Dozen high schools.

Take a deep bow Jim Cross, John Randles, Harold Brunkhorst and other members of the staff.

INSURANCE REP HERE THIS WEEK

August Spain reminds that Joseph W. Kifner, representing the Teachers Insurance and Annuity Association, will be on campus Friday, Feb. 25, to speak with interested persons.

Starting at 2 p. m. , Mr. Kifner will be in the Faculty Center on the second floor of Ad Building to explain new features of the TIAA pension program. All fulltime faculty and staff members are eligible.

REMEMBER THE EXES PARTY

Looking ahead a bit, remember the games party of the Fort Worth Women Exes to be held in Student Center the night of March 8. There'll be a lot of fun and all proceeds will go to the Gayle and Mary Beth Scott Scholarship Fund. It's really a worthy cause and we hope you'll circle the date right now.

A SCORE FOR ALLAN MacLAINE

An article by Dr. Allan MacLaine of English, "A Source for Burns' 'Death and Dr. Hornbook'", has just been reprinted in the 1955 issue of the "Burns Chronicle." This is an annual volume of selected essays and articles on Robert Burns. Allan's piece appeared originally three years ago in the "Notes and Queries" Magazine.

YOU'RE INVITED TO THE FACULTY LUNCHEONS

Just a reminder that all of our folks are cordially invited to take part in the Faculty Luncheons at noon Wednesdays in Weatherly Hall. Those who do not have reservations can call Dr. Keith's office (330) by Monday afternoon and get on the list. There's a lot of good fellowship going on you won't want to miss.

NOTES ON FOLKS OF NOTE

JEROME MOORE was the Protestant member of the Brotherhood Week team in San Antonio this week. He spoke before the student bodies of a half dozen high schools.

OTTO NIELSEN speaks on "Psychology of Ends" before the Business and Professional Women's Club on March 1. That title may need a bit of explaining, Brother Otto.

AMOS MELTON got himself elected president of District X, American College Public Relations Association, at the meeting in El Paso last week end. Some honor--mostly work.

The fourth graders at South Fort Worth Elementary heard IRENE HUBER speak on Switzerland this week.

W. C. NUNN spoke on "The Life of Abraham Lincoln" before the Men's Brotherhood of St. Johns Evangelical Church recently.

GLENN ROUTT, chairman of the department of Theology and Christian Ethics in Brite, lectured during the annual city-wide Leadership Training School in Wichita Falls this week. He spoke on "The Life and Teachings of Christ," and "Personal Christian Living."

Coaches BUSTER BRANNON and BRUCE CRAIG have really done things with our basketball forces this season. Buster can win his fourth S. W. title in five years and Bruce's freshmen have compiled one of the best records in years. Really fine going, men. Incidentally, WALTER ROACH promises to have a very fine baseball team.

RAY LINDLEY, vice-president, is an avid cage fan. He managed for tickets for the Frog game in Waco this week and as George Gobel says "you can't hardly get them no more." DR. SADLER sat close to the Frog bench in the great game with Rice and pulled harder than many a youngster.

GLENN SPARKS, the librarian, is working hard against the day when the famous Lewis Collection will be housed in the special room in Brite. It won't be long now.

FINE ARTS RADIO SERIES TO START

A series of 13 radio programs called "Fine Arts on Parade" and produced by our own School of Fine Arts opens next Sunday, Feb. 27, over Station KFJZ here. Starting time is 6:30 p. m. and the program will be well worth tuning in.

More on this series later.
