FOREIGN LANGUAGE GROUP TO ARLINGTON

GOOD NEWS, SOME SAD FROM BOARD MEETING

A lot of good news, such as promotions and things, came out of last week's trustee meeting. But there was a sad note, too, in the announced retirements of Pete Wright and Dr. Winton. While not unexpected, of course, the announcements are always hard to take. Certainly no two men have contributed any more to the university's fine tradition in their long and dedicated years of service.

Mr. Pete, incidentally, had high praise to the board of Leonard Cecil White, who becomes business manager September 1. Those are really big shoes he's gotta fill, but "Footsie" is well nicknamed for the job and has the ability. Everyone wishes him well.

And congratulations on promotions are in order for E. R. Alexander, Jack Hammond, Charles Proctor, Landon Colquitt, Jack Suggs, Carleton Calkin, Leonard Logan, Jim Sterritt, David Preston, Paul Hastings, Leland McCloud and Charles Lehman.

Permanent tenure went to E. C. Polk, Miller Moseley, Noel Keith, Margaret Rouse, Hastings and McCloud. Nize going--all.

CENTER DEDICATION GOES WELL

The banquet and open house marking the dedication of Brown-Lupton Student Center went very well indeed last weekend. The Bulletin's "Distinguished Service Award" for the week goes to all those who had leading roles, notably Elizabeth Youngblood, Logan Ware and the Sherers (both He and She).

"Libby" and Logan did most of the hard work to get things ready and the Sherers greeted more than 1,000 visitors at the open house Sunday afternoon. Lots of others did noble work, too.

As Dr. Sadler pointed out, the only possible regret was the fact that everybody on campus, both faculty and students, couldn't be invited to the banquet. Obviously there just wasn't enough room for that, so only student leaders and faculty folks working closely with the Center student committees could be asked.

Incidentally, there's no doubt but that Dr. Sadler was the richest man at the affair -- from every standpoint. He "confided" to the group that he had a check for $50,000 in his pocket, presented during the program.

FINAL WEEK FOR "AH WILDERNESS"

The Little Theater production of "Ah Wilderness" is in its final week. Nightly performances are due through Saturday. Large crowds have seen the opening shows and all reports are good.

If you're planning to attend, be sure and make arrangements for tickets in advance.

VISIT TO CARSWELL

A group of our deans and officials are still a bit bug-eyed from a fine visit to Carswell Air Force Base on Monday. As guests of Gen. Montgomery, they got a revealing picture of the mission and preparedness of the Strategic Air Command, had lunch and inspected a B-36 bomber.

The party included Dr. Sadler, Deans DeGroot, Richardson, Holsapple, Snodgrass, McCorkle, Moore, Key, Lt. Col. Bob Davis and PFC Amos Melton. They really heard some very interesting things and got around inside the B-36 with slight loss of skin and dignity.

Incidentally, didja know Carswell is named for one of our own boys? Horace Carswell was a member of our football team back in the 1930's and was killed in China bringing his bomber in after sinking a Jap cruiser in the China Sea in the summer of 1945. He was awarded the Congressional Medal.

A "THANK YOU" TO MRS. WOODWARD

That console record player in the Faculty Center was a gift from Hazel Woodward, Mary Beth Scott reports.

And here is a hearty "thank you" from all of us, Hazel. Know everybody will enjoy the instrument for many, many years.

"F" GRADES DUE ON APRIL 2.

Registrar Calvin Cumbie reminds that mid-semester "F" grades are due in his office at 9 a. m. Saturday, April 2. Forms are available in his office for the reports.

WARREN AGEE has a leading role in this week's annual "Gridiron" show of Sigma Delta Chi, the national journalism fraternity. He's also president of the Fort Worth chapter which puts on the annual ruckus. Reports have it that DR. SADLER, DUTCH MEYER, ABE MARTIN and BUSTER BRANNON all get their lumps during the proceedings. Dutch won't get to see the fun in person. He has to be in Austin for a meeting of the Southwest Conference TV committee -- which has a big headache next fall under the new NCAA rules.

DEAN SNODGRASS will speak at First Christian Church in Mexia April 3-8. He will preach each evening.

Librarian GLENN SPARKS is a busy man these days preparing for the formal presentation of the famed Lewis Collection in May. It's a labor of love for anyone who likes books. When opened, the collection will give the university one of the finest libraries of its kind in the world.

JIM CROSS (Lt. Col., that is), was most happy over the visit of Gen. Waters with us last week. The General, and Amon Carter Jr., seemed to enjoy their grub and conversation at the faculty luncheon.

Fine Arts, under Commander T. SMITH McCORKLE, is all adither getting ready for the annual West Texas Spring tour. The group will stage one-night stands in Amarillo, Midland, Abilene, San Angelo and Odessa.

ROTC TO PARADE APRIL 5.

The combined Cadet Corps of the Army and Air Force ROTC will parade at 1 p. m. next Tuesday, April 5, as a part of the annual Federal inspection of the Army ROTC unit.

Col. Cross reminds that all faculty members are cordially invited to watch the parade.

NEW FACILITIES FOR FACULTY CENTER

Workmen have been busy the past few days fixing over the serving area of the new Faculty Center. When completed, it will greatly facilitate handling of food, etc.

The Center is growing in popularity as a general meeting place for faculty and staff.
