

NOTES ON FOLKS OF NOTE

The sympathy of all goes to Maj. M. C. HOLLINGSWORTH of the Air Force ROTC on the recent death of his father in San Antonio.

Mr. BEAR WOLF represented the University at the annual meeting of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce in Lubbock on March 28.

McKIE TROTTER took top prize in the Art Show here last week and JIM STERRITT was also in the money. Robert Sunkel, a student from Longview, won second prize and Jack Boynton, an ex, won $35. The work of three faculty members and six students was admitted this year.

EXCUSED ABSENCES

MABEL MAJOR reminds all TCU exes that time is short to get their entries in for the Boswell Prize contest that is part of Creative Writing Day. Why not try that last ole beatup poem? Might win first prize you know -- and you can't hardly get them no more.

ART WENGER is about recovered from a recent home accident that gave him painful burns on several fingers. (There had ought to be a crack here about playing with fire but it doesn't seem to fit Art.)

Members of the biology staff, ED DALE, JOHN FORSYTH, WILLIS AND ELIZABETH HEWATT, CLIFFORD MURPHY attended the annual meeting of the North Texas Biological Society at Baylor last weekend. Graduate Student Kenneth Peterson got a monetary prize for presenting one of the best research reports at the gathering. He reported on "A Study of the Distribution of Soil Insects in the Katy Lake Area." Incidentally, the Hewatts are off to Rockport and Mustang Island over the Easter Holidays for the 16th annual marine biology field trip. Sixteen advanced students were to go along.

MURPHY WINS FELLOWSHIP

Congrats are in order for Clifford Murphy. He has been awarded a fellowship by the Southern Fellowships Fund of the Council of Southern Universities. It's worth $2,800 plus other considerations and he plans to return to Oklahoma University to continue his doctoral studies in 1955-1956.

Nize work, Clif. Couldn't have happened to a more deserving guy.

GRIDIRON STARS

- continued

Through impersonation, some of our folks had a big part in the Gridiron show staged by the Sigma Delta Chi at Ridglea Country Club last week. A quartet of Dr. M. E. Sadler, Dutch Meyer, Buster Brannon and Abe Martin sang a sad ditty about what might have been.

In discussing the last year, the "Roastmaster" commented that "Bear Wolf returned to TCU and the Frogs had a bad year."
