

EXES FUND DRIVE

Hartwell Ramsey, director of Ex-Students activities, is right up to here (chin line) in the group's first fund campaign. With Davey O'Brien as the chairman, the "alumni" got the drive rolling last weekend with a goal of $25,000 for the first effort.

Under the constitution and by-laws of the Ex-Students Association, all members of the faculty are automatically honorary members (unless they are regular grads, of course.) So it is most likely that all of us will be solicited during the campaign. It is hoped that everybody can give SOMETHING. Doesn't need to be a wad (who has that kind of dough?) but just something to get all our names on the rolls. Amounts will not be published, just names. It's most important that as many names as possible appear on the honor roll.

LEWIS LIBRARY DEDICATION May 27.

All faculty members are cordially invited to the formal installation ceremony in Brite of the famous Lewis Collection on Friday afternoon, May 27. The opening of this great library is really a mile stone in the university's history.

To house the 1,500 first editions, manuscripts and other items, room 212 of Brite has been done over and fully equipped. There scholars from all over the world can examine some of the rarest books in existence. One, a 1619 Pavier Shakespeare, was valued at $200,000 in 1927. The collection is really something.

William A. Jackson, director of the precious book library at Harvard, will be the main speaker. So mark it on your calendar right now. Starting time will be 3 p. m.

FINE ARTS SHOW MONDAY AND TUESDAY

"Hit The Deck," the show Fine Arts has on the road in West Texas this week, will be given in Ed Landreth Auditorium next Monday and Tuesday nights. It will be worth seeing and it is hoped that all faculty folks will come and bring their friends.

Proceeds from the Fort Worth performances will go to the scholarship fund of the Fine Arts Foundation. Many of our people had a hand in the show. W. C. Nunn of history rewrote the script; Lewis Gillis composed original music for two ballet numbers and most of our Fine Arts faculty helped with the production. So don't forget the Monday and Tuesday night performances.

DEAN MOORE ELECTED NOTE

Jerome Moore really brought high honor to the University last weekend when he was elected president of the Texas Association of Colleges at the annual meeting in Austin. ✓

The Association was formed in 1912 and TCU was a charter member. Now some 89 schools belong, including two in Mexico. Only the most dedicated and deserving educators can aspire to the presidency. Congrats, Dean Moore!

SORORITIES INSTALLED ✓

Dr. Ray Lindley and Dean T. F. Richardson did an outstanding job of conducting the convocation formally installing the eight sororities on campus Sunday afternoon in Ed Landreth. Both hit exactly the right note, pointing out that it was a historic event and challenging the groups to make their presence constructive and worthwhile.

A tea in Student Center climaxed the very busy week of parties, dinners, etc. National officers from all over the country were here for the event and all had high praise for the University, campus and general spirit of TCU. The Bulletin's award for merit goes this week to all those who had a part in the impressive ceremonies.

SCIENCE OPEN HOUSE APRIL 29.

Our Science departments will hold their annual open house on the evening of April 29 at 7:30 p. m. Physics, chemistry, geology, biology will all have fine exhibits.

The show has been getting better and better each year and we know everyone will want to pass the word along.

NOTES ON FOLKS OF NOTE

LIBRARY, AD BUILDING CAMPAIGN PLANNED

Hospital report: LOGAN WARE, director of Student Center, was taken to the hospital last week and put in traction for a slipped disk. May have to have an operation unless things improve. BITA MAY HALL was also abed last weekend suffering from a lung congestion. Here's hoping that both will be up and about soon.

Sadler spoke to the Convention on "Christian Education."

We hear that HENRY KEY and MARGUERITE POTTER have also been awarded Southern Association Fellowships for study next school year. A similar award to CLIFF MURPHY was announced previously. Congratulations to all.

If successful, work on the buildings will start as soon as possible.

TROY STIMSON is really in a dither these days as time for the big National Air Meet approaches (early in May). Looks like most of the top schools in the country will be represented in the big affair and the campus will be running over with visitors.

RALPH GUENTHER of Fine Arts is to be signally honored by his alma mater, Central College of Fayette, Mo., on May 5. In a tenth annual ceremony, he will be named one of six "outstanding alumni" of the school. Couldn't happen to a more deserving guy, we say.

Sponsoring a square dance in the ballroom of Student Center

H. R. MUNDHENKE will address the Naval and Marine Reserve groups at the Marine Training Center in Dallas on April 24. His subject: "American Democracy."

Socially invited. There will be no charge.

BOB DAVIS, Air Force ROTC, conferred Tuesday with Gen. George C. Kinney and John Alison here. Gen. Kenney, now retired, was MacArthur's Pacific Air Commander and Alison is vice-president of the Northrup Aircraft Corporation and president of the Air Force Association.

SANDERS T. LYLES is presenting a series of lectures to the Fort Worth German Shepherd Dog Club.

Dr. JOHN W. FORSYTH was elected president of the Texas Herpetological Society at its annual meeting last weekend in Anahuac.

LIBRARY, AD BUILDING CAMPAIGN PLANNED

In case you missed it, the State Convention of Christian Churches meeting in Galveston this week endorsed a campaign for $1, 500, 000 to triple the size of our library and completely renovate the ad building. The action came after Dr. Sadler spoke to the Convention on "Christian Education."

The campaign will be conducted among the churches and Christian friends of Texas, Louisiana and New Mexico and will be the first such drive in more than 25 years. If successful, work on the buildings will start as soon as possible. The library is the first item, as many very fine programs are being held up pending adequate facilities in that department. Details of the campaign are being worked out and will be announced later.

HAVE FUN AT THE SQUARE DANCE

The Hoedown Club is sponsoring a square dance in the ballroom of Student Center on Thursday evening of this week, from 8 o'clock to about 10:45.

There will be a fiddle band and a guest caller. All faculty and staff are cordially invited. There will be no charge.

Kitty Wingo suggests that you wear your most comfortable shoes so you can join in the dancing.

BEDE TO SPEAK HERE APRIL 28.

Jean-Albert Bede of Columbia will speak at a convocation here Thursday, April 28, at 9:30 a. m. At the present time, the place is the Little Theater but the meeting may have to be moved to Ed Landreth if enough interest is shown.

Bitu May Hall reports that Bede is a native of France and one of the most respected professors of philosophy at Columbia. His special field is 19th century French literature. He returns to France each year and is highly qualified to speak on his subject: "The Current Political Situation in France." The Language, English, History and Government departments are sponsoring his appearance on campus.
