LEWIS DEDICATION FRIDAY AT 3 P. M.

Every member of the staff and faculty is cordially invited -- nay, even urged -- to attend the formal dedication of the famous Lewis Collection in Weatherly Hall on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. For the most part, exams will be over and almost everyone will be free to take part.

"This event has a significance far beyond this particular collection for the university," said Dr. M E. Sadler. "It is imperative that we give a cordial welcome to our many distinguished guests and I sincerely hope that every member of the staff will arrange to be present."

William A. Jackson, librarian of the Houghton Library of Harvard University, will be the speaker. Dr. Sadler will preside. Amon G. Carter is due to make the formal presentation of the Collection and Mr. Lewis' sons, James L. and Thomas W., will be here from New York. A reception and viewing of the fine Collection will follow the formal ceremony. Every faculty member should be familiar with the Collection which gives the university a fine distinction in the field of rare and valuable books and manuscripts.

So be sure and mark down the time and place. We'll be looking for everyone on Friday afternoon.

END OF ANOTHER SESSION

So the 1954-55 long session comes to a close this week -- the 82nd in the university's history. It has been an eventful year indeed and a great deal has been accomplished.

Please don't forget the events of the final weekend:

- Friday--Lewis Dedication, 3 p. m. Weatherly Hall.
- Sunday--Baccalaureate, Ed Landreth, 9:30 a. m. (Faculty to gather in full regalia just north of Jarvis).
- Sunday--Senior Tea, Student Center, 3:30 p. m.
- Sunday--Commencement, 8 p. m., West Quadrangle (also gather at Jarvis).

Yep, it's been a fine session. Looking back, you may recall those tingling games the football team played; the comparatively quiet installation of fraternities and sororities; the opening and dedication of the Brown-Lupton Student Center; the exciting basketball season; the first crack at the five-day week; construction of the new boy's dormitory; planning of the new drive for library and main building reconstruction -- just to name a few highlights.

Now the Summer Session comes on and plans must be made for the next long session. There is every reason to believe that our enrollment, which took such a significant jump this spring, will continue to increase. The future is very bright.

NOTES ON FOLKS OF NOTE

JEROME MOORE, accompanied by Ruby and son Jerry, leaves early next week for Mexico City where the dean will deliver the Commencement address at Mexico City College. They'll be back in time for the start of Summer School, June 6.

DR. SADLER is a busy man the next two weeks. Has commencement talks in East Texas, Louisiana and the University of Kansas, plus the Lewis Dedication and our own baccalaureate and commencement on Sunday.

AUSTIN PORTERFIELD will attend the American Sociology Society convention in Washington, D. C. late in August. He will speak twice.

JACK SUGGS of Brite will receive that Ph. D. from Duke in absentia on June 5. Jack did his dissertation on "The New Testament Text of Eusebius of Caesarea." Congrats.

BILL REED and his party are all poised for that flying trip to Europe and the Bible Lands. Twenty persons will go along -- and about nine million others wish they were. Good luck, William.

COMER CLAY will take part in the annual meeting of the American Political Science Association in Boulder, Colorado, early in September. His section will discuss "Land and Water Problems in the West." Policy issues and organizational problems in the development of water resources will be the major topics. And a growing one in the West, we might add.

DEAN RICHARDSON is proud and happy over the fact that TCUers have now received 4 of the 7 Fullbright Scholarships we applied for. And one other seems certain. A very fine record indeed.

Busiest Man On Campus: C. GLENN SPARKS, the librarian, getting ready for the Lewis dedication. Has really done a top job, too, in every area.

If D. RAY LINDLEY hasn't told you about bowling that 210 recently, just wait. BEAR WOLF swears the pins were set up in the gutters. Could be.
