YOUTH CONVENTION COMING UP

The campus will be crowded July 20-23 with the young people who will attend the 12th Annual Youth Convention of the Christian Church. It is estimated that about 1,000 of these youngsters will be here.

SOME DORMITORY FURNITURE FOR SALE

There are a number of pieces of furniture from the dormitories which the administration plans to sell and they would like to give the faculty and staff first chance at it.

There are some oak and metal single beds and some double-deck metal beds and mattresses, as well as some chests of drawers and dressers.

If you are interested, call Mr. Louis Ramsey at Extension 366 at any time between 8:30 a. m. and 4:30 p. m., with the exception of 12:00 to 1:30.

HORNED FROG-COMMUNITY SUMMER THEATER

"Sabrina Fair," the first production of the Horned Frog-Community Summer Theater program, will complete its final week in the Little Theater Thursday, Friday, and Saturday nights at 8 o'clock. Those who saw it last week report that it is excellent entertainment and Dr. Costy has done a grand job of directing.

It would be a good way to stay cool all evening, as well as be well entertained.

And don't forget that these plays will go on all through the summer -- each Thursday, Friday, and Saturday evening. The next play will be "Night Must Fall" on July 14-16 and 21-23. In August, "Picnic" and "Blithe Sprit" and "My Three Angels" will be staged.

B. W. HUTTON is submitting to Bethany Press the manuscript for a text book for use in teaching Christian worship in college and university classes. Congratulations to our ever-busy Mr. Hutton.

A letter from Dr. NOEL KEITH informs us that he has caught his limit of trout each day and that "it snowed on us yesterday." That is his way of telling us that the Keith family is sleeping under blankets at that nice summer home of theirs in the Rockies.
