GET THOSE FOOTBALL TICKETS

A large number of faculty folks, especially in Evening College, have not picked up their football tickets for the season. They're free, you know, and the Athletic Department has been holding them at the stadium now for three weeks.

With the A&M game looming as a solid sellout, it will be necessary for all faculty and staff members who have not picked up these tickets to do so by THIS SATURDAY. So if you want those pasteboards, go by the stadium right away.

LET'S MAKE TCU 100% IN UF DRIVE Austin this week. His topic: "Internal and External Aids in Science Teaching."

Estus Polk, chairman of the faculty Solicitation Committee, reports that pledge cards for the United Fund drive are in the process of being distributed. Fort Worth and our Tarrant County area give TCU terrific support. Certainly we can do no less than to support this, our greatest community effort.

Let's make it 100% this year. Everyone can give SOMETHING and let's make it just as much as possible. Remember, you can pledge now and pay later in the year. Or you can write your check at once. It is very important.

When blanks are signed, just hand them to any member of the Solicitation Committee: Dr. Polk, Ina Mae Bramblett, Comer Clay, B. A. Crouch, Leland McCloud, E. L. Pross, Glenn Routt. Do it today.

ARMY ROTC TO HOST GENERAL

Major General Mark McClure, deputy commander of Fourth Army, will visit on campus Oct. 12. He'll confer with Lt. Col. James Cross and chat with Pres. Sadler.

A West Point graduate, General McClure has had wide experience in the Army and education. He served as PMST at Harvard 1946-1949 and has a lively interest in university work.

DANFORTH GRANTS OPEN

Faculty members who would like to apply for a Danforth Teacher Grant should get in touch with Dean Jerome Moore at once. You must be between 25 and 40 (which takes care of some of us old folks) and have at least three years of teaching and one year of grad study.

NOTES ON FOLKS OF NOTE

WALTER ROACH, the demon football scout, is discounting the reports that he picked up a "give away" on the Arkansas team which tipped the Frogs just when the Porkers were gonna quick-kick last Saturday. But the fact remains that Walt came up with something that greatly helped the team and we still say he's one of the greatest scouts in the land -- you can take "scouts" literally and socially.

CALVIN CUMBIE reports that all divisions of the university are now up in enrollment for the year. Evening College, hard hit by the loss of some Air Force personnel this year, crossed over last year's mark early this week.

WILLIS HEWATT of biology-geology spoke before the Texas Work Conference for the Advancement of Science Teaching in Austin this week. His topic: "Internal and External Aids in Science Teaching."

In New York for the meeting of the National Joint Commission for the Improvement of Care of the Patient (whew, some title), was Dean LUCY HARRIS of Harris College of Nursing. She also planned to visit in Atlanta on the way back.

RALPH GUENTHER is embarrassed. One of his musical compositions has been accepted for publication but it turns out the piece will have a 1956 copyright date and can't be used until Jan. 2. Ralph wanted to use it in a presentation here and finds himself unable to play his own music. O well.

Some of the FINE ARTS folks have heard from EMMET SMITH, enroute to France for a year's study on a Fullbright. Things seem to be going well, 'tis said.

HENRY HARDT accompanied the grid team to Fayetteville and reports that DUTCH MEYER behaved himself. Only thing, The Dutchman got so nervous in the first half that his stomach was upset for two days. "Imagine an old geezer like me getting that excited?" said Meyer. Yeh, we sure can.

ABE MARTIN is standing the pressure of a great football season right well so far. "This pressure's a lot easier than that losing pressure," he observes. And ain't it so?

ESTUS POLK is addressing the Oak Cliff Browning Club in Dallas on the subject: "A Literary Pilgrimage to the Shrine of English Authors."

STUDENT LEADER WORKSHOP

The first workshop for our student leaders and organization sponsors seems to have been a large success. Miss Libby Youngblood can take this week's bow for fine work in this area.

And we hope all those who are sponsors for various campus groups received Bitam May Hall's letter of Monday with a copy of the "Regulations for Student Organizations." If you didn't get a copy just call Bitam May. It is a most important document for those working with student organizations.

HAS EVERYBODY MADE THAT 1% CONTRIBUTION?

TCU is trying hard to hit the 100% mark in giving to the United Fund this year. As our community supports us, we should do all in our power to support our community.

If you haven't filled out your card, won't you do it today? If you didn't get one, just call Estus Polk at Ext. 312 or any other member of our solicitation committee. Most of us can't give real big sums, of course, but ALL of us can give SOMETHING. Won't you help?

ACTIVITIES COUNCIL CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENT

The Student Activities Council extends a most cordial invitation to all members of the faculty to attend a tea Thursday afternoon, Oct. 13, 3 to 4 p.m., in Brown-

Dr. Stitt attended TCU three years, graduating with the A.B. degree from Austin College, Sherman, Texas and the B.D. degree from the seminary he now heads. Austin College and Westminster College, Fulton, Missouri, have conferred honorary doctoral degrees upon him. He has been in his present position since 1945. He returned recently from one year's sabbatical leave spent in Scotland and on the Continent.
