

TEXAS CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY
FORT WORTH, TEXAS

THE LATE RUSH

May 11, 1956

As per always, the calendar for the remainder of the long session is crowded with important events. Here's at least a partial list of the information for all:

May 17-18 -- "Cinderella" by the ballet prep workshop in Ed Landreth Auditorium, 8 p.m. each night.

May 18 -- NCTC Awards Day, 2:30 p.m., drill field.

May 18 -- Home Frogs Banquet, Student Center

Dear Faculty Member:

May 22 -- Final Faculty party, Student Center Ballroom.

Our final university-wide chapel service of the current term will be held Tuesday, May 15 in Robert Carr Chapel. Vice-President D. Ray Lindley will preach the sermon.

June 1 -- Commencement Exercises, 8 p.m. in front of Jarvis Hall.

I wish to express my personal appreciation to all of you who have given this program your helpful support. Also, to those members of our faculty who shared in the services in many ways, a hearty "thank you!"

Won't you plan to make this last service of the year a real climax? Let's have a full house.

Sincerely yours,

Arthur D. Wenger, Director
Religious Activities

P.S. The word has come that the Chapel Choir under the fine leadership of Dr. Shelton has prepared an unusually fine number for the final anthem.

CINDERELLA IN ED LANDRETH THIS WEEK

The Ballet Preparatory Workshop of Fine Arts presents the three-act ballet version of "Cinderella" in Ed Landreth Thursday and Friday nights at 8 o'clock. Tickets are 50 cents.

It's an elaborate production with fun for young and old. David Preston is director and choreographer.
