JAMES K. THOMPSON, D. D., MINISTER

TAYLOR AT FIFTH
FORT WORTH, TEXAS

December
Thirty-first 1925

Mr. Amon G. Carter,
Fort Worth, Texas.

My dear Mr. Carter:

My Christmas was a most happy one, and made more so by the thoughtfulness that prompted your splendid gift.

I appreciate more than I can tell you your friendship, and your great value to the city of Fort Worth, and our magnificent state, and covet your fine and unrestricted energies for the Church and the forces of His righteous Kingdom.

I most sincerely wish that you were one with us, and hope some day to see the consummation of that desire.

If at any time I can serve you, do me the favor to command me. May this be the best of all the years, this New Year. May you be happy, may your way prosper, and you and yours rejoice in the good gifts of our gracious Heavenly Father.

Most cordially Yours,

James K. Thompson
