

GREETINGS OF THE SEASON

Old Father Time and his cycle are about to click off another mile stone on our journey. Business, like our personal lives, is subject to disappointments and happiness and if at the end of the year, we can sum up our efforts on the right side of the ledger, which means happiness, contentment and a friendly feeling for our fellow-workers, we have accomplished a worth-while effort.

Our ambition and desire is to publish a newspaper, or newspapers, worthy of our combined efforts. This can only be accomplished by the loyal enthusiastic support and co-operation of our entire newspapers family, which we have always had, and if we have been successful, the credit goes to you where it properly belongs and we take this occasion to express to you our genuine appreciation and thanks.

May we, at this time, in a modest way in keeping with the Christmas Spirit as a token of our appreciation ask you to accept this little remembrance—not for its real value, but for the sentiment that goes with it, and with the hope that 1926 will bring all of us happiness and a wholesome prosperity.

Sincerely,
AMON G. CARTER. Publisher.
