

OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Mr. Carter:

Mr. _____

Department

The turkey was splendid, the flowers very pretty, the enclosure with the Christmas card you gave me nearly put my eyes out---but the note you penned on the back of the card, just naturally cut the string and up went the balloon. I would not trade--no wouldnt even consider trading, what came with the card for the card itself. It will be framed and I just want to try and express to you my deep appreciation of it. It was wonderful, and gives a fellow that courage and pep and desire necessary to be "up and at em". You will never know just how happy you made me when you wrote that message on the card of Christmas 1926.
