O.D. said the milk would be resting for a few days so we would be off for a while. Of course we we know the reason and he knows we know. Time passes very slowly for us. I spent the day reading, writing, washing clothes, wandering around, talking about when we're leaving etc etc. Everyone knows its all over but the excitement is yet to come, I believe. We are still in the same place with same guards, same food and still confined as yet. Every one asks the others their opinions as to this or that. Some are making plans, re making plans, changing plans all the time.
