SOME THOUGHTS FOR A NEW SESSION

"The Student....who is he?"

He comes with a being filled with fear, insecurity, doubt and ignorance.

He comes with cock-sure self-confidence, unswerving conviction, omniscience.

He comes, yearning, curious...a David ready to do battle with the Goliath of the world's mysteries.

He comes dulled and indifferent, already bored by the enormity of atomic chaos, racial violence, and the institutionalized church.

He comes with dreams and day-dreams.

He wants to learn how to heal the sick--for $50,000 a year; she wants to mold young minds--but prefers to get married.

He wants to be a missionary in strife-torn Nyassaland--but might settle for an executive post in New York.

But he comes..she comes..half boy, half man..half girl and half woman.

A conformist wanting the freedom of a bird; a rebel, in terror of having his catchwords challenged;

A dreamer who will be bruised by reality; a realist who will be borne up by dreams.

He comes...she comes...well.

And the fearful thing is that they come to us."

--Henry Kemp-Blair (Chapman College)

WEEKLY LUNCHEONS TO START SEPT. 23

ANNUAL MEETINGS THIS WEEK

Everyone is urged to keep in mind the Fall semester series of Information, inspiration (and free coffee) will flow freely on Thursday, Friday and Saturday mornings as the traditional "orientation sessions" open our 92nd year. EVERYONE is expected for at least one of the shindigs. If your divisional head hasn't passed the word--just remind him you're due.

(PLEASE TURN)

FACULTY BULLETIN/2

NINE NEW DORMITORY HOSTESSES

Jo Ann James, Dean of Women, reports that nine new hostesses will be serving in the dorms this Fall. Recently they had a fine orientation session of their own. The list: Beatrice Bray (Jarvis), Hazel Carter (two fraternities on Worth Hills), Louise Cooper (two sororities), Wilda Davis (two sororities), Helen Deegan (Sherley), Chloe Malone (two frats), Mildred Plant (Sherley), Vera Proctor (two sororities), Nelle Stayton (two frats). 'Tis wonderful to have these fine ladies join our Campus Family.

DON'T FORGET: PARKING PERMITS

All hands are reminded to get their campus parking permits as soon as possible. Just drop by the Business Office, remit the $6 and take the receipt to Security Office in the basement of Sadler Hall. Hope you're good at pasting on decals.

Incidentally, the same general parking plan will be in effect again this year. The program worked out by the special committee in 1963 seemed to work very well. Know everyone will be careful to observe ALL the regulations.

WEEKLY LUNCHEONS TO START SEPT. 23

Everyone is urged to keep in mind the Fall semester series of Faculty luncheons on Wednesdays in SC Ballroom. Starting Sept. 23, there will be 16 luncheons and once more the hard-bitten men who control the purse strings have been most liberal. Season tickets will be only $12.32--or 77¢ a meal. Individual tickets will be $1.02 with no reservations needed and guests always welcome. These Wednesday get-togethers are lots of fun so 'tis hoped everyone who possibly can will make plans to participate.

FACULTY BULLETIN/3

37 NEW FULLTIME FACULTY FOLKS

By the latest count, we have 37 new members joining the fulltime faculty this Fall. Two or three others may be added ere classes start. A complete listing (along with changes of assignment and title plus parttime assignments in Day Schools) will be handed out at Saturday's general faculty session.

Taking the figures compiled last week for a questionnaire (with all Deans submitting their own count), it seems our faculty for Fall semester will total 497. This includes fulltime and parttime but no Grad students. They hold 162 Ph. D. degrees (other Doctorates not asked for in the questionnaire). Here's the tabulation:

Rank	Lib. Arts Only		Whole Institution
	Fulltime	Parttime	Fulltime	Parttime
Professors	55	*24	94	26
Assoc. Profs	45	0	73	1
Asst. Profs	41	0	77	3
Instructors	21	*59	44	177
Others	1	0	2	0
Totals	163	*83	290	207
Ph. D. Degrees	101	5	139	23

*Includes Evening College Faculty

CIVIL DEFENSE MEETINGS SET

The leaders of our Civil Defense "Shelter Areas" will attend a three-afternoon program Sept. 21-22-23 in Room 210 of Student Center. In one-hour sessions, 4-5 p.m., they will be instructed in how to use the materials with which the shelters are stocked, how to "organize" their shelters, the main facts of fallout and related matters. Ben Myers, formerly with our ROTC and Business Office, who is now Shelter Coordinator for the area's Civil Defense organization, will be one of the speakers.

Leaders of our present 11 shelter area teams should make sure they can attend or that their team will be represented. For they will be asked to call later meetings of their own teams to go over the entire shelter plan. It is most important that we know WHAT TO DO if the time ever comes. A. Melton chairs the campus C.D. committee.

JIM FABER has moved into an office in Development Area (3rd floor Sadler). He'll have a half-time secretary and Mr. E. C. WHITE generously offered to furnish him with a half-typewriter. Send reasonable...

FACULTY BULLETIN/4

PLEASE CHECK FACULTY HANDBOOK

The 1964-1965 edition of our Faculty Handbook is now printed and ready. It will be mailed to all members of the Faculty (including Evening College) during the week of September 13. Once more everyone is urged to read through the booklet for the latest changes in procedures, etc.

Of special importance this time is the fact that the membership of all General University Committees is listed in the Handbook instead of General Info Catalog. So be sure and check for committee assignments. A number of changes have been made. Incidentally, the change of Dr. Moudy's title from "Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs" to "Executive Vice-Chancellor" slipped by a time or two. Just ignore same.

FEETBALL AND S.S. TICKETS

Forget not that everyone should pick up their tickets to the six home football games as soon as possible. As you'll recall, the Athletic Committee of the Board voted last Spring to make a charge of $6 for each coupon booklet (good for all athletic events during the year). They may be picked up at the Business Office, then taken to the Coliseum to exchange for the actual game tickets.

Remember too that season tickets to the fine eight-event Select Series this year are only $5--a saving of some eight smakers over single admission prices. They'll be on sale at the Faculty Meeting Saturday morning.

NOTES ON NOTABLE FOLKS

NEVIN NEAL, prexy of the Tarrant County Historical Society, speaks to a session of the Daughters of the War of 1812 at Shady Oaks Country Club Friday.

W.O. MILLIGAN, president of Research Foundation and Vice-Chancellor for Research, addressed a meeting of the Council of Scientific Societies of Fort Worth-Dallas at Western Hills Inn today (Wednesday). He discussed "Research and Education". WILLIS HEWATT is a director of the Council.

JIM FARRAR has moved into an office in Development area (3rd floor Sadler). He'll have a half-time secretary and Mr. L. C. WHITE generously offered to furnish him with a half-typewriter. Seems reasonable.

MORE NOTES ON NOTABLE FOLKS

BEN GOLDBECK of math took part in a workshop for Bowie-Cass County teachers in Texarkana in late August.

EDNA BRANDAU, top lady of Home Economics, speaks to a leading "Fashion Group" at Neiman-Marcus in Houston early in October.

E. J. FIRKINS feels he's been "promoted". At a student meeting recently the young folks gave him Dr. Sadler's name tag (even pinned it on). Then last payday, those handing out the envelopes gave him that of Ye Ole Ed. After one look at same, he demanded a swap for his own--pointing out he couldn't live on what some folks make. And who can?

Hope you saw that MARTINE EMERT will be Acting Chairman for Geography this Fall. A grand gal.

BITA MAY HALL reports a grand time on that tour to France during the Summer. Our people got a warm welcome at the UofNantes.

Two new members of our Faculty Family, CHARLES L. BROOME in Business and R. CRAIG PIERSON in English completed their Ph. D. work during the Summer. Congrats to them.

LEW FAY, the "old pro" in Journalism, had a lead article in the Journalism Educator during the Summer. Title: "The Role of the Veteran Practitioner Turned Educator". Lew and wife Betty made a flying trip to the Southwest and California gathering facts and photos for trade magazines and some Sunday travel page features for American Airlines. He's practicing his preaching.

DENNIS SCHICK, '62 grad, has returned with a Master's from Illinois. He'll fill in for BOB CARRELL who's on leave (also at Illinois). Dennis will relieve DOROTHY SHULER as Horned Frog adviser. The Schicks, incidentally, brought home a ten-month-old daughter.

MRS. ARCHIE MOORE (formerly Kathy Morris who worked in Admissions) is the new secretary for Journalism and Student Publications.

MALCOLM McLEAN has gone to work in his new office in Reed Hall as Associate Dean of Addran. Incidentally, he's looking for a half-time secretary and if you know of anyone that might be interested, have them call Ext. 216 or drop by Malcolm's office.

Due to the serious illness of her mother-in-law, JUANITA OWENS has been going night and day recently.
