FALL BOARD MEETING FRIDAY

The regular semi-annual meeting of our Board of Trustees will be held Friday morning in Sadler Hall. Chairman Lorin Boswell will call the session to order at 10 a.m. Most of the present 38 regular members and others from the Advisory and Honorary Boards are expected to attend. A highlight will be the report of L. C. White, V-C for Fiscal Affairs, on the state of the University's finances including the audit for 1964-65 ('Twill show, we hear, we narrowly held to our tight operating budget for the year).

Chancellor James M. Moudy will make his first report to a regular Board meeting--that one back in late Summer was a called session. He plans to discuss many aspects of our work including revision of Centennial Goals, the new statement of philosophy and objectives, upgrading of faculty salaries--a matter with which he is greatly concerned.

Incidentally, the Board is made up of outstanding men who give unstintingly of their time and devotion. They take avid interest in all phases of our program, have provided top leadership and mature decisions in many a tough spot. They're a grand group.

SADLER DINNER FRIDAY NIGHT

It now seems that more than 500 friends and admirers of Dr. M. E. Sadler will gather in the Hotel Texas Ballroom Friday night to honor and say "thank you" to the man who led TCU so effectively for 24 years. Despite some conflicts (such as the big Assembly Ball) reservations have poured in and a large crowd has been assured.

Remember, dress is "informal" for all but those at the head table. The event begins promptly at 7 p.m. Sitting with Dr. Sadler will be his daughter Ann Elizabeth and her husband, Willard Swaney, of Dallas. But in one sense, just about everybody in the hall will be his "family" for the evening for few men are more respected and loved. Should be a really wonderful occasion.

COOPERATIVE DEGREE IN PHYSICS

Under a new plan worked out by Chairman Joseph Morgan of Physics, students can now work toward a B.S. in the field while taking time out (for a semester) to work in industry. Such students can be enrolled for a semester or Summer session, use the next Semester or Summer for regular jobs. The program stretches over six years. A total of 132 S.H. is needed with 15-21 hours as electives. The folks at Ling-Temco-Vaught were especially interested in starting such a plan, Dr. Joseph reports.

QUARTET ON S.S. TUESDAY NIGHT

The famed Loewenguth Quartet (master instrumentalists) appears on the second Select Series program next Tuesday night, Nov. 9, in Ed Landreth. Founded in 1929, it is one of the best-known musical groups in the country. It is made up of first and second violins, viola and cello. They have just returned to the U.S. after a two-year tour abroad. Their appearance will be one of the musical highlights of the campus year so hope you can make it.

GET RESERVATIONS FOR "FANTASTICKS"

The second production of the Little Theatre, "The Fantisticks", takes the boards Nov. 11 for a three-night run. 'Tis a comedy about young love (some may remember). Again full-time Day School faculty members, with wives or husbands and youngsters, get free tickets but as many learned during the "Rape of the Belt" run, seats may be scarce some nights. So everyone is advised to make reservations thru inter-office mail right away. The box office opens Nov. 9 at 1 p.m. and you can call in your requests. But DO make some plans in advance.

NEEDED: INFO ON NEW FACULTY BOOKS

The Publishers Weekly is still asking that we supply them the names of all books (adult or juvenile, technical, elementary, high school or college texts, paperbacks or imports) to be published by our people between Jan. 1 and May 31, 1966. Deadline for getting in the dope is Nov. 20 so if you have a book coming or know of one, please send the info to Betty Knox in News Bureau. Thanks.

SYMPOSIUM ON ETHICS NEXT WEEK

With GD/FW, which will be represented by top officials including Pres. Frank W. Davis, we'll sponsor that big Symposium on "Professional and Business Ethics?" next week Nov. 12. The inclusion of the question mark in the title is the clew to the matter. Do we, or can we, have ethics in our work-a-day jobs and what are the guidelines? 'Tis a subject that should be of special interest to all of us here on campus.

A first session will be held in Rogers Hall, 2-4:30 p.m. with Dr. Paul T. Heyne of Valparaiso U. as the speaker. After a dinner in the Coliseum at 6, Chancellor James Moudy will give the keynote address and Dr. Heyne speaks again at 7:30. A panel discussion, with Dr. Moudy, Pres. Davis, Rev. R. W. Jablonowski, Jr. and William B. Heroy of Geotechnical Corp., Dallas, will wind up the program starting at 8 o'clock. Should be a lively discussion.

Our students will be admitted free to the program while tickets to others are $1. The complete program, including dinner, is $3.50. Tickets may be obtained at the Evening College Office in Sadler Hall. All faculty folks are especially invited to attend and to urge their students to take part. 'Tis a subject of much interest right now.

CARDIOVASCULAR NURSING WORKSHOP

Many of our people are bee-busy this week in the seven-day Cardiovascular Nursing Workshop being sponsored in cooperation with the Texas Heart Assn. Some outstanding authorities in the field from over the country are taking part with most of the session on campus or at Harris Hospital.

Miss Jimmie K. Bratton of Harris College is co-ordinator of the Workshop and Ruth Elōise Sperry co-chairman of the planning committee. Dr. Moudy welcomed the group at Monday's opening session. Others taking part in the program were Lucile Houston, Mildred Hogstel, Miss Sperry, June Greenwell, Ann Lane.

HUMANITIES MEETING NOV. 17

The Humanities Division will hold its Fall meeting on Wednesday, Nov. 17, at 3:30 p.m. in Faculty Center, Secretary Bita May Hall announces. Dr. James Newcomer, V-C Academic Affairs, will be the speaker. Departments involved include English, Foreign Languages, Philosophy, Religion, Fine Arts. Hope everyone will make plans to attend.

STRONG VOICE FROM DISTANT PAST

In February 1903, Chairman T. E. Shirley^v of the TCU Trustees made a speech. The occasion was the completion of a new "Girls Home" and "Townsend Hall" on the campus at Waco--providing "boarding facilities for our large and growing school and ample accomodations for our popular departments of Music and Oratory". Last week, a copy of the address was added to our historical papers by Pauline Shirley Haile of San Mateo, Calif., daughter of Mr. Shirley who sent it to Dr. Sadler.

Full of pride, hope and dedication to "Religious Higher Education", 'tis a moving statement pointing out that in addition to the fine, new three-story buildings, it was proposed to finish the fourth floor of Main Building, with heating plant with "tubular boilers and all necessary radiators and connections". Also, the structures were to be wired for electricity and bathrooms, with closets, to be installed as soon as there were proper sewer connections.

We wish there was space here to carry the entire statement but these sentences will give you the flavor: "No religious people has ever succeeded in large measure who have not made Christian Education the fundamental question...We ought to have at least 100 young men in our Bible College. We not only need ministers badly but educated men and women in the professions and all walks of life...To build up TCU is a missionary work, and the first step in carrying out the Great Commission of our Lord. No sacrifice ought to be counted too dear in this great cause...We need an endowment of not less than $1 million in the next 10 to 15 years...Great improvement is not accidental, but the result of positive faith, earnest resolve and patient toil...With profound gratitude to the Giver of all good, for His past mercy and blessings, let us face the future with hopefulness and courage".

That year, TCU enrolled 302 students, gave 3 degrees, had as new president E. V. Zollars who quit in 1906 when the Board suggested that he prepare and use a budget! The great voices still speak to us strongly from the past.

NEW SHELTER TEAMS NAMED

Dean Howard Wible has named teams to have charge of the three new shelter areas on Worth Hills. They are: Frances Sadler Hall--Mrs. Adah Bridwell, Leasher R. Becker; Cafeteria--Mrs. Zula Mae Bowers, James E. Smith; Boy's Dorm D--Mrs. Nellie Stayton, Milford Tysseland, Roger Bailey. The new shelter areas will be stocked with survival equipment by Civil Defense in the near future.

S.S. ARRANGEMENT WITH CIVIC MUSIC

Under a recent agreement, holders of season tickets to our Select Series can purchase individual tickets to Civic Music Assn. concerts for $2. Just show your S.S. ticket at the box office, Chairman George Reeves advises. The Music events are held in Will Rogers Auditorium on these dates: Nov. 16, Jose Molina Bailes Espanoles; Feb. 20, Regine Crespin; March 13, Gina Bachauer; March 31, Gold and Fizardale; April 19, Pittsburgh Symphony. Sounds like a real good deal.

NOTES ON RIGHT NOTABLE FOLKS

PAUL WASSENICH of Honors Program gave the fourth of a series of dedicatory sermons in the new sanctuary at Midway Hills Christian Church in Dallas recently. (Brite Grad Ray Bristol is minister). He also spoke to the CWF of South Hills Christian, made six addresses at First Christian in Kingsville (where Pres. Jernigan and other faculty members of Texas A&I are members), discussed "Lord of the Flies" with Alpha Kappa Delta members this week. Busy man.

We were sorry to learn of the death of AMBROSE EDENS' mother in Corsicana early last week.

NOTES ON RIGHT NOTABLE FOLKS

CHANCELLOR MOUDY gratefully accepted a check for $5,000 from the American Oil Foundation in brief ceremonies in his office. An unrestricted gift. He also sent "congrats" to Sandi Major, Skiff ed, on winning another All-American Honor Rating.

JIM DYAL had a most interesting article, "Images In the Lonely Crowd", in the Sept. 15 issue of Vital Speeches. It was given at our Human Relations Seminar last April 3. Jim and MALCOLM ARNOULT recently attended the meeting of the Psychonomic Society in Chicago, giving papers done with the aid of Grad Assts. Joe Sgro, Ernest Anastascio and Larry Claton.

C. J. FIRKINS of Guidance and Testing Center speaks frequently on "Vocational Guidance" and usually outlines some of our procedures in that area on campus. Most recent talks were to the Civitan Club and Ridglea Presbyterian Church Men's Club.

BARBARA WORCESTER gave an "Evening at the Ames Observatory" on the 1965 Prof Series Tuesday. Sounded mighty interesting and we wish we coulda heard it.

The S. W. HUTTONS (he's Registrar Emeritus) report a wonderful vacation trip to Mexico by plane recently. They visited all the favorite places (except bullring), saw old friends like the J. D. Montgomerys, Dr. Bill Marshall, Harold Davis, Dr. and Mrs. D. Ray Lindley, others. They agreed with the slogan "Mexico has everything".

While we'll probably lose our key to his private washroom (if he had one) we can't help repeating this story by Mr. L. C. (Loose Cash) WHITE, V-C, Fiscal Affairs. He took son Stevie on the trip to Clemson and they called mommy after arrival. Said Steve: "We just had dinner with our team--and now we're going OUT ON THE TOWN! He's nine.

JOE HODGKINS has been awarded a $5,640 grant from the Brown-Hazen Fund of Research Corp. for a study of the possibility of alkaloids, medicinals and drugs in the small-plant kingdom. He'll work with John Massingill, doctoral candidate in chemistry.

Efficiency Dept: When JACK COGDILL took a bus load of students and staff to the Southwest Theatre Conference in Midland recently, HENRY HAMMACK fetched along scripts and called rehearsals of the cast for "The Corn Is Green", the December Little Theatre production, between sessions.

CHARLES KEMP of Brite spoke on "The Local Church Serving the Mentally Retarded and Their Families" at a colloquium at McCormick Theological Seminary in Chicago last week. A keynote speaker was Dr. Paul Pruyser of Menninger Clinic.

MORE NOTES ON FOLKS OF NOTE

ANNETTE MEYERS PLANICK of E.C. has been elected to the Board of the Forst Worth Civic Music Assn.

JOHN CARROLL will be honored guest at a testimonial ~~at a testimonial~~ dinner in Tucson, Ariz. today (Wednesday). The co-author of the 1958 Pulitzer Prize winning "George Washington" is guest of the Arizona Westerners and of UofArizona History Dept. at the affair. Main speaker has as his subject: "Carroll As a Catalyst". Quite an honor, we'd say.

It's a BOY for the JIM DYALS. Born last Thursday night, the new arrival has been named Mark.

LARRY SMITH, now Dean of William Woods College, wrote to DENNIS SCHICK last week in high praise of the "Horned Frog" which he had just received. Said they had a fine time going over the yearbook with former students Chris West and wife who were visiting in their home. Later, Larry called to report W.W. would send a representative to Dr. Moudy's inauguration Nov. 19. Said things were going fine for the Smith family in Missouri.

JOHN EVERETT spoke on "American Policy in Vietnam and Its Critics" to a meeting of the SMU United Campus Christian Fellowship last week. He also attended the regional meeting of the American Assn. for Asian Studies at UofColorado in Boulder o'er the weekend.

BOBBYE BARRATT former head of news bureau and editor of "This Is TCU", is returning to campus on a part-time basis as Publications Assistant to Dr. E. LEIGH SECREST of the Research Foundation. With her training and background, she'll be a large help in the heavy detail work under way.

LOGAN WARE was in N.Y. last week for a meeting of the College Board and saw WIN MANNING who sent his regards to all.

TCU, represented by TOM PALMER, was co-host with SMU and Baylor at the annual convention of the Assn. of University Evening Colleges in Dallas last week (Oct. 24-28).

DENNIS SCHICK has had a note from CAROL JANE LAWRENCE in Boston, Mass. Reports their address there at 518 Park Dr., Boston, Mass. 02215.

BUS TRIP TO AUSTIN: A bus trip to the Frog-Longhorn game in Austin is being planned by a group in Business Office. TCU folks can ride for $8.25 the round trip and that includes lunch, ticket with faculty booklet. If interested call Janie Brimmer at Ext. 221 by Friday, Nov. 5.
