S.R.O. DUE FOR SCHLESINGER

A wall-bulging crowd is expected in Ed Landreth Auditorium Monday night (Feb. 21) when Arthur Schlesinger Jr. speaks on the fifth Select Series event. He is, of course, the historian who won a Pulitzer Prize at the age of 28 (for "The Age of Jackson") and author of the best-selling new book on Pres. John F. Kennedy whom he served as a special assistant.

Starting at 8 o'clock, he's due to speak on "The World We Want and How to Get it". Most of us are not quite sure what kinda world we'd like so 'twill be interesting to hear Schlesinger's thoughts on same. As might be expected, there's much interest in the event and some instructors plan to have their classes attend. More than a week ago, Libby Proffer of S.S. Committee warned that tickets were getting scarce.

HOPE FOR "RELIGION" IN R.E. WEEK

In announcing plans for annual Religious Emphasis Week at faculty meeting, University Chaplain Jim Farrar pointed out that it doesn't last a week--and that he hopes everyone understands that we emphasize the matter more than a few days each year. "That leaves only 'Religion' in the original title," he grinned, "and we hope to keep it there!"

This year's event is set for Feb. 27-March 2 (that's Sunday thru Wednesday). We'll have an outstanding speaker in Dr. Roger L. Shinn of Union Theological Seminary in N.Y. Convocations are set for Landreth Auditorium at 11 a.m. on Monday and Tuesday (with classes dismissed for that hour on Monday, Feb. 28). An afternoon and evening session for faculty folks with Dr. Shinn is planned for Camp Carter (YMCA). More details a bit later.

GRANT TO HARRIS COLLEGE RESEARCHER

Roslyn Elms, assistant prof in Harris College since 1964, has received a grant of $10,853 from U. S. Public Health Service for a study to begin next September. It will be called "Prediction of Post-Surgical Nursing Needs" and a pilot study is now in preparation. Mrs. Elms, who holds B.S. from Columbia Teachers College and M.S.N. from Yale School of Nursing, has an article in the Winter issue of Nursing Research. Called "Effects of Nursing Approaches During Admission", it has just been reprinted and is an interesting discussion of patient attitudes as influenced by the nurses during admission to hospitals. She found some very interesting facts indeed.

THE GREATEST SHORTAGE: PRESIDENTS

At least 20 U.S. colleges and universities started the 1965-1966 school year without permanent presidents and another 250 will be seeking chief executives before next Fall. So reported an article in a national publication last week which went on to surmise that of all the shortages in the land, that of college-university presidents is the most acute. And there are very good reasons.

Ideally, "Prexy" must be as versatile as De Vinci, have the financial acumen of Bernard Baruch and the scholarship of Erasmus. He must have the "innocence of a lamb, wisdom of an owl, complacency of a camel, adaptability of a chameleon, diligence of a beaver, vision of an eagle, strength of a lion, stomach of a boa constrictor, skin of a rhinoceros, brass of a monkey and charm of a deer". And all for a salary of $17,330 per year (median in 1963-1964, an increase of 53% over 1955-56). Considering all the headaches, heartaches, endless work hours and responsibilities, relatively few school men are moved to go into administration--and especially the presidency. Some Foundations are working on programs to lure deans, vice-presidents and others into loftier posts but the going is slow.

PH. D. CANDIDATE COMPLETES WORK

Of the 165 students who completed degree work at the close of Fall semester, one was a candidate for the Ph. D. in Psychology. He is Joseph Anthony Sgro, formerly of Fort Worth and now a faculty member at Old Dominion College, Norfolk, Va. Also completed were the requirements for one B.D. in Brite and eight M.A.'s. The 165 figure was 31 over the same period last year and all degrees will be conferred at Spring Commencement on June 1.

CHANCELLOR SPEAKS ON MANY POINTS

That was certainly a wide-ranging faculty meeting last Thursday afternoon. Chancellor James Moudy was the main speaker and in about 30 minutes he touched on more than a dozen matters of great interest to us all. He pointed out that the Spring meeting of the Trustees is set for March 9 and outlined some of the areas with which our governing group will be concerned.

Among these, of course, will be such things as faculty promotions, tenure and retirement. The lists will be unusually long this year with about a score of names on the promotion list, some 26 up for tenure and about 6 for retirement. "If the lists seem longer than usual," Dr. Moudy said, "we must remember that we're getting to have a rather large faculty."

Also to be passed, of course, is the budget for 1966-67. We've set a new record in this figure annually for some years now with the current $9,287,000 as the all-time high. If the Board approves, almost every worker on campus will receive a salary increase. A similar round of raises is planned for next year--if we can find the funds, Dr. Moudy said. He pointed out that we are refining and intensifying our efforts in the development area in an effort to assure more support for our program.

Speaking of the possible effect of the new County Junior College on TCU, the Chancellor saw no cause for alarm. He said we have "lived with such a tax-supported school for many decades" (Arlington State before it became a four-year institution). He expressed the belief that those who want to attend TCU will continue to do so. Nor does he see any great up-surge of transfers from the Junior College for junior-senior years here. Again, he thinks those who want to attend TCU will start here.

The visit of the Phi Beta Kappa team (on Monday-Tuesday), just where we are on the new Science Building and expansion of Student Center, several other items were discussed. Point: The S.C. expansion came about when financial support became available--not because it was moved up in the priority list. Yes, the session was most informative and Dr. Moudy really did a top job.

LAST PERFORMANCES OF "MEDEA"

Be reminded that Theatre Arts will present performances of "Medea" in Little Theatre each evening for the rest of this week. Reports are that our people do a fine job with Euripides' famous tragedy so you wont want to miss it. Remember, call Exts. 243 or 245 for reservations and information.

MANPOWER EXPERT TO VISIT

Sam A. Morgenstein, Special Asst. for Program Planning and Development of the U.S. Employment Service, will visit on campus Feb. 21-22. He'll address a meeting sponsored by Forums Committee at 3 p.m. Monday and Omicron Delta Epsilon, the honor society in Economics, at 6:30 p.m. On Tuesday he's to speak to the Ft. Worth Economics Club.

REMINDER TO ALL ON MEDICARE

The American Assn. of University Professors, TIAA, several other agencies have been quite active recently to alert all those who might be concerned about "Medicare" which goes into effect July 1, 1966. We too would urge all of our people 65 years of age and over to check carefully on this matter.

While there isn't space to go into detail here, we will repeat these points: Medicare is available to virtually all individuals age 65 or over (they do NOT have to be either retired or covered by Social Security). Enrollment deadline is March 31. As you'll recall, the new Federal program consists of two parts: 1) Basic Hospital Insurance for which no payment is made; 2) Supplementary Insurance (to help pay doctor bills and certain other expenses) for which a charge of $3 per month per person is made. You must sign up for this second part before March 31 deadline or you'll have to wait until Oct. 1, 1967 for another chance to enroll. About the best thing to do is to visit the Social Security Office downtown.

ADVERTISING CARD EXHIBIT

If you get the chance, drop by and see the display of Advertising Trade Cards in the foyer of Reed Hall. They date from 1880 to 1900 and are from the collection of Dennis Schick. February is "Advertising Recognition Month" and two other displays are featured in Rogers Hall by Alpha Delta Sigma, National Advertising Fraternity. Incidentally, Dennis and Jim Lehman report a very fine Advertising Field Day on campus a week ago with 190 high school and college students and teachers taking part. The event was sponsored by our Journalism-Advertising Dept. and the Advertising Club of Fort Worth.

"The size of our campus and the pace of our operations are such that we are sometimes working at cross-purposes in scheduling various events," Dr. Moudy's letter points out. "This Committee should develop and apply policies and procedures for calendaring campus events other than those of an academic or intercollegiate athletic nature". While no official policy has yet been announced, it is very likely that approval of this new committee will be necessary before most campus events go on the calendar.

RECORD 6,672 REGISTER FOR SPRING

We have enrolled 6,672 students for Spring semester--an all-time high and a gain of 337 or 5.3% over last year, according to Calvin Cumbie's final figgers. The old record for Spring was 6,442 set in 1964. With Fall semester's record of 7,232, we're sure to break all registration marks for the school year.

This Spring, two of our general categories (Day School and College Undergrads and Grad School) had increases while the other two (Brite and Evening College) were down. By far the most important figger is that for Day School Undergrads where 4,276 gives us a whopping increase of 503 or 13.3% for the year. At 829, Grad School is up 30 or 3.7%. Brite, with 130 students, is off 7.1% and E.C. with 1,437 is down 11.4%. Calvin promises complete details not only for Spring but the full school year within a few days.

CALENDAR COORDINATING COMMITTEE NAMED

In answer to an ever-growing need, Chancellor Moudy has appointed a new Calendar Coordinating Committee effective at once. It should NOT be confused with the Calendar Committee of University Council which is charged with planning starting and closing dates, vacation periods and other matters on the official calendar five years in advance.

The new Coordinating Committee is to receive and collate requests for event dates during the school year--such as Little Theatre, Select Series, major social affairs, etc. and, where possible, to avoid conflicts. It will have the power to refuse dates and/or suggest changes that would avoid conflict. Dr. James Newcomer, V-C Academic Affairs, has been named chairman with Mrs. Libby Proffer, Student Activities Adviser, as secretary. Two students, the chairmen of the Entertainment Committee and Student Select Series, will be members. The others named are Dr. Howard Wible, Dean of Students, Logan Ware, Dr. George H. Reeves, Dean Frank Hughes, Dr. Frank Reuter and Miss Lorraine Sherley.

"The size of our campus and the pace of our operations are such that we are sometimes working at cross-purposes in scheduling various events," Dr. Moudy's letter points out. "This Committee should develop and apply policies and procedures for calendaring campus events other than those of an academic or intercollegiate athletic nature". While no official policy has yet been announced, it is very likely that approval of this new Committee will be necessary before most campus events go on the calendar.

FULL-TIME STUDENTS UP 15.4%

In one of his first studies of Spring enrollment (see above), Calvin Cumbie reports we have 4,088 registered for 12 or more semester hours. This compares with 3,542 last Spring--a gain of 546 or 15.4%. At the same time, we have only 1,021 "equivalent full-timers" represented by part-time students as compared with 1,111 last year. Southern Association is using a revised formula in connection with part-timers under which the combined loads of all part-time students are divided by 12 to reach the "equivalent" figure. Putting it all together, the study shows we have students enrolled for 73,322 credit hours--against 66,126 last spring. That's an increase of 7,196 hours or 10.8%.

NOTES ON FOLKS OF NOTE

Lt Col. DONALD THOMPSON, PMS, was in San Antonio this week for a two-day conference with 50 other ROTC leaders of the area at Ft.Sam Houston.

STANLEY REIFF, the retired colonel who is doing such a grand job as executive secretary of the Inter-University Council, has requested and been granted an extension of his leave from our faculty. "Your work with the Council is reflecting very favorably on the institution with which you have been associated", Dr. Moudy wrote in extending the leave thru the 1966-67 academic year.

JIM CORDER conducted a workshop in English composition at Nolan high school here recently. Thirty-five teachers from Catholic schools of the area attended.

MIKE WINESANKER, scholarly chairman of Music Dept., just returned from Oklahoma City where he attended the Regional meeting of Music Teachers National Assn. He served as chairman of a panel discussing the teaching of music history at public school, undergraduate and graduate levels.

NOTES ON RIGHT NOTABLE FOLKS

GENTRY SHELTON of Brite is author of one chapter in a new book, "An Introduction to Christian Education", to be published by Abingdon Press in March. Thirty-two top men in the field were asked to contribute and Gentry is one of the two members of the Christian Churches.

Have-a-chuckle: MALCOLM ARNOULT says he's heard of a new Sabbatical leave plan of which he very much approves--you work ONE year, then take SEVEN off!

MAYBELLE TINKLE plans to be at the new "Faculty Activity Room" in Little Gym at 4 p.m. on Wednesday and Friday the next week or so and will be most happy to help any faculty folks (female) who want to start a program of exercises. Anyone interested might contact her for more specific info.

The Faculty Vocal Quartet--KATY DACUS, ARLENE SOLLENBERGER, IRA SCHANTZ and DESIRE LIGETI--was to sing two sets of Brahms' Liebeslied-er Waltzes in Landreth Auditorium this (Wednesday)afternoon at 3:30. Sorry we didn't get the notice in time to give you more notice. CAROLYN RANKIN and JOAN WORKMON were to accompany.

Drs. E. LEIGH SECREST of Research Foundation and O. JAMES SOWELL of Development were in Houston recently where they visited with officials of the Rockwell, Humble, Moody, Houston Endowment and Welch Foundations. They hope they did some good--and so do we all. Dr. Sowell and CLYDE FOLTZ of Alumni Affairs worked extensively in West Texas areas recently.

JACK WALPER has been appointed editor of the Texas Section of the National Assn. of Geology Teachers.

WILLIS HEWATT, JOHN FORSYTH, JOE HODGKINS (our Medical Advisory Committee) were hosts last week to Dr. Keith Osteen and Kenneth Walker of the UofT Medical Branch in Dallas. Walker is assistant director of admissions and Dr. Osteen Assistant Prof of Anatomy. They talked with our pre-med students and others.

JOSEPH MORGAN is spending this week in Washington, D.C. at the National Academy of Sciences. He's a member of a special panel of the Research Council to evaluate applications in the program of Graduate Fellowships of the NSF.

Dr. MARJORIE STANLEY has accepted a continuing appointment in Economics for Spring semester. Added to part-time E.C. staff: MARTIN SIEGMUND in Business Law, FORREST SMITH in Marketing, DON HARWELL and GENE HEAD in Programming, Lt. WILLIAM L. REEMTSMA in Math.
