HEAVY SCHEDULE FOR YEAR'S FINAL PHASE

A "hearty howdy" and "welcome back" to all who enjoyed the Easter Recess. Hope you had fun, relaxed, rested. Now we face a very busy year-end schedule. When you realize that just seven weeks from tonight (Wednesday), Commencement will be held in the Coliseum you wonder if we can get it all in. But we usually do. For the info of all, here's a partial list of dates of interest to the Faculty:

- April 15 -Dallas Symphony with soloists, Ed Landreth

- June 1 -Commencement, Daniel-Meyer Coliseum, 7:30 p.m.

In addition, of course, there will be many year-end banquets, awards ceremonies, other events. We'll try to list them all here for those

DALLAS SYMPHONY HERE FRIDAY NIGHT

A TCU sophomore pianist, Patricia Lynn Aycok, will play with the Dallas Symphony in the performance in Ed Landreth Auditorium Friday night. To start at 8:15, the concert is a part of the 1966 Rockefeller Composers-Performers Symposium Grant to the orchestra. There is no admissions charge and all TCU folks are most cordially invited. Similar concerts will be given at NTSU and SMU this week.

SPRING ISSUE OF "THIS IS TCU"

The Spring issue of the University's official magazine, "This Is TCU", has just come from the presses. 'Tis another handsome professional job by Editor Betty Knox, Art Director Jim Lehman, Photographer Linda Kaye. The most unusual cover has a map of the world with a legend showing where our four official tours will go this Summer.

Leading feature is an eight-page story called: "At TCU--A Search for New Knowledge". It includes the series of articles written for The Fort Worth Press on some of our researchers and their work by John Ohendalski before he joined our P.R. staff. Other stories deal with the Ranch Training Program, our Citizenship and Career Conference, the Summer Tours. A very interesting issue indeed.

THE RESIDENT STUDY TOUR TO FRANCE

Speaking of the tours, Dr. Bitam May Hall has asked that we include with this Bulletin a copy of her folder on the Session in France. Our everyone will read it with interest and help where they can. Our first venture in this area, you'll recall, came in 1964 when Bitam May led a group to UofNantes. Last year, Dr. John Hammond headed a tour to the UofMadrid. This Summer, the group returns to Nantes for five weeks where they will not only attend classes but live in French homes. As outlined in the folder, visits to other countries are also made.

In preparation for the Session, weekly seminars are held on Thursday nights. (They'll be resumed tomorrow night after the Easter break). Any students and/or their parents interested are cordially invited to these discussions of history, fine arts, customs, etc. of the countries to be visited. Incidentally, Bitam May points out that you don't have to be a French major to make the trip. The ONLY requirement (academic) is that they have had one year of College French. Call Bitam May at Ext. 458 for more info.

APPLICATIONS SHOW SMALL INCREASE

In the first of the many checks she makes on the matter, Anna Byrd Wallace reports that as of April 1, applications for next Fall were up 4.1% over the same date 1965. In all, Admissions Office had handled the papers of 2,110 prospective new students (1,799 freshmen, 311 transfers). This compares to 1,724 freshmen and 282 transfers on the same date last year when, as you know, we set an all-time record enrollment for the Fall of 7,232.

Interesting items of the report: Transfer applications are up 10.2% while those from freshmen show a 4.4% climb. Summer School, so far, has a 24.7% decrease. Among the freshmen, applications from men show a 9.6% increase for Fall while those from women are up only .5% at this point. In her summary, Anna Byrd predicts only a token increase over 1965--if any. She's usually very accurate indeed.

COMMITTEE STUDYING "TCU PRESS"

The revised ad hoc committee named recently to take a hard look at the "TCU Press" held a first meeting last week under the chairmanship of Dr. James Newcomer. The upshot was the appointment of a smaller sub-committee to get some facts and make recommendations. Many interesting points were brought up and the consensus seemed to be that we must retain a "Press" in some form.

As revised, the Interim Committee is composed of Dr. Newcomer, John Carroll, Betsy Colquitt, Jim Corder, Noel Keith, Amos Melton, Allen Self, Saul Sells and Bob Talbert.

ACADEMIC PROCESSIONAL FOR "HONORS DAY"

Keith Turkett, chairman of the Sub-Committee for Convocation for Honors Day, reminds everyone that the annual event will be opened by an academic procession the morning of April 21 (that's a week from Thursday). All members of faculty and administration who possibly can are urged to take part in full regalia.

The Convocation will be held in Ed Landreth Auditorium at 11 a.m. We will gather for the procession on the walk in front of Jarvis Hall at 10:50 a.m. Neil Hulings will again serve as chief marshal. In addition to taking part in this important event, all faculty folks are urged to urge their students to attend. Please help on this.

TERM IV OPENS AT CARSWELL

Term IV of the accelerated 8-week program instituted by our E.C. folks this year at Carswell AF Base began April 4 with 106 students enrolled in 10 courses. This brings to 542 the total registration of the airmen during the academic year. The 8-week terms have been very successful as many officers and men must be away on temporary duty because of Viet Nam.

REPEAT ON NEW "ABSENCES" REPORTS

For those who may have missed the first announcement here last week, we are making a change in the method of reporting "Official Absences". Rather than carrying the long lists here each week, an addendum section to the Bulletin will be printed every two or three weeks. These will be stapled separately and can be filed for quick reference.

Too, enough copies will be printed to supply not only regular faculty members (who will receive them automatically) but all of the Graduate Teaching Assistants who may need them. Departmental chairmen are asked to call P. R. office (Ext. 212) and give us an idea of the number of additional lists they will need.

FINE ARTS FESTIVAL OPENS SATURDAY

A harpsichord recital, featuring Joseph Payne of Boston U., opens our annual Fine Arts Festival Saturday night (April 16) in Landreth Auditorium at 8:15. There's no charge and everyone will be welcome. The Festival this Spring will include a dozen events--most of which are listed in the schedule at the start of this Bulletin.

And, incidentally, the final Select Series event of the 1965-66 school year will be a part of the Festival. It is set for next Wednesday night (April 20) and will feature Miss Fredell Lack, the American violin prodigy who made her debut at the age of 8. She made her first European tour in 1959. Tickets will be $1.50 and are now on sale in the Student Center. Season tickets are good, of course.

1820 "UNSATISFACTORY" COURSE REPORTS

Associate Registrar Joe Enochs reports that 1303 students drew "unsatisfactory work" reports in 1820 courses at the mid-semester check. The parents of all those under 21 got copies and, 'tis hoped, many of the students will pull up those grades sharply.

CAMPUS INTERVIEWS

R. B. Wolf, Director of Placement Bureau, Room 212 Student Center, announces the following companies will have representatives on campus during the week of April 18 to interview our graduating seniors:

- April 18, 19- U.S. Air Force-All majors
- April 20 - Lybrand, Ross Bros. & Montgomery-Accounting majors
- April 21 - Lincoln Natl. Life Insurance Co.-Business & Liberal Arts
- April 21 - Jewel Tea Co., Inc.-Business & Liberal Arts majors
- April 21 - National Geophysical Co., Inc., Math, Physics & Geology
- April 22 - Bankers Life Co. of Des Moines-Business & Liberal Arts

NEW WORCESTER BOOK PUBLISHED

"Makers of Latin America", the 13th book authored by History Chairman Donald Worcester, has just been published by E. P. Dutton & Co. 'Tis a narrative account of the lives of 20 men and one woman who played leading roles in the history of Mexico, Central and South America. The woman: Evita Peron of Argentina. Congrats to Dr. Don on another fine research-writing job.

NOTES ON FOLKS OF NOTE

Dean JEROME MOORE of Addran will receive a gold key as one of the past presidents of the Assn. of Texas Colleges and Universities as that organization holds its 50th anniversary meeting at the Inn of Six Flags this weekend. All those who have headed the Association will be special guests. Congrats to Jerome who was president 1955-56.

MARJORIE LEWIS and LORRAINE SHERLEY attended the 15th annual South Central Renaissance Conference at LSU in early April. Lorraine, who is on the Executive Council, read a paper, "The Portraits of Queen Elizabeth I". Marjorie was elected vice-president for 1966-67.

New cover for your Bible? S. W. HUTTON, our Registrar Emeritus, is now the local representative for the "Bible Hospital" of Dallas. He can give you good prices for new covers for all types of favorite books. Call him at WA4-7070.

With much regret, the resignation of LYLE KENDALL from English Dept. has been accepted by Dr. Moudy. It is to be effective Aug. 31 and we understand Lyle will take a new post in our community. He's been with us since the Fall of 1958 and made full professor in 1962. He's an authority on the Lewis Collection in the Library.

MORE NOTES ON FOLKS OF NOTE

Woe is JIM FARRAR, University chaplain. He went in to get his $1 car inspection sticker--and came out with a $53 repair bill on his brakes and main cylinder.

Congrats to WILLIAM C. MASSEY, new member of Sociology-Anthropology, on the publication of his "The Castaldi Collection from Central and Southern Baja California". 'Tis a scholarly study of a famed collection of aboriginal artifacts from Lower California and was published by the UofCalifornia (Berkeley) Dept. of Anthropology under a grant from the Wenner-Gren Foundation. Recently, Dr. Massey was elected to membership in the Texas Archaeological Society and will present a paper before the State Convention in Olney April 23.

JACK KUEN, Gainesville senior and president of the TCU Geological Society, will introduce Dr. Daniel J. Milton of California for a talk before the group in Winton-Scott Room 112 Wednesday night (April 20) at 8 p.m. Dr. Milton is from the U.S. Geological Survey's Branch of Astrogeology in Menlo Park. Anyone interested is invited to attend.

It's a BOY for Capt. and Mrs. PETER J. WEBBER (Aerospace Studies). Paul Fraser arrived at Harris Hospital on the evening of Good Friday. Weight: 7 lbs.

TCU people will play a prominent role in the 13th annual meeting of the Southwestern Psychological Assn. at the Inn of the Six Flags April 21-23. MALCOLM ARNOULT is president-elect and will chair or take part in a number of events. Other TCU faculty members or Ph.D. winners on the program include SELBY EVANS, JIM DYAL, MARVIN SCHROTH, GARY HOLMGREN, JAMES DUKE plus a number of graduate students. NEWTON E. ELLIS, TCU grad, is chairman of the local arrangements committee and JACK R. HAYNES heads the placement subcommittee. SAUL SELLS is one of the Association's three Council members.

SANDY WALL, Associate Dean of Grad School, is right proud of a new information brochure on "Graduate Study at TCU". The comprehensive little folder gives quick info on admissions, requirements, financial aid, degrees and majors offered, special data for foreign students. Should anyone get a request for Grad School info, the folder makes a very fine answer.

Dr. JAMES NEWCOMER, V-C Academic Affairs, has purchased a fine old house in the area East of campus and will be "fixing it up" during the next few weeks. The family, which has continued to live in Denton during the home-hunt, will move down during the Summer.
