FACE-LIFTING FOR BRITE HALL

'Tis hoped everyone saw the announcement in Sunday's papers that we're about to start a major overhaul on old Brite Hall. Plans call for a raised red roof, air-conditioning, new entrances, new plumbing and electrical equipment, other features. The building will be renamed and will house the School of Education which will have temporary quarters While the work is in progress.

To cost between $150,000 and $175,000, the face-lifting is due to start soon and may be ready by next summer. The project is being made possible through the generosity of Nome West Texas friends, Pres. Sadler said. When completed, Otto Nielsen et al will have a wonderful plant in which to work. It is a happy development indeed.

The announcement points up once more that our growth in physical plant has been downright explosive since 1941. In some 17 years, we have built or acquired 16 new buildings, rebuilt two (Jarvis and Brite), greatly enlarged two (library and stadium). Total cost has been over $20,000,000. Two buildings have been removed: Goode Hall almost down) and the old wooden fieldhouse which burned (few mourners).

Just by way of review, take a look at the goings-on (or goings-up) during the period:

1942--Foster Hall.

1947 -- Tom Brown Hall, Waits Hall.

1949 -- School of Fine Arts and Ed Landreth Auditorium. 1951 -- Addition to Amon Carter Stadium.

1952--Science Building.

1954 -- Religion Center (Brite, Carr Chapel, Undergrad Religion).

1955 - Student Center, Pete Wright Hall, remodeling of Jarvis Hall, practice basketball gym.

1956 -$1,300,000 upper deck and press box, Amon Carter Stadium. 1957-Dan Rogers Hall, Milton Daniel Dormitory, Colby D. Hall Dormitory, Green House (Development Division).

1958-New Library, new girls' dorm (still unnamed), new boys' dorm (for old Goode), remodel Brite Hall.

It's a most impressive record and there's more to come. There are still some urgent needs. And of course, we must always heeds on campus and plans are already underway. And, of course, we must always remember that a university is more than buildings and grounds. Faculty, curriculum, standards of work and many other aspects have been improving steadily. And certainly there's more to come in those areas.

FOUR FIRMS TO INTERVIEW STUDENTS

Placement Bureau reports the following schedule of campus interviews for the week of Feb. 17:

Feb. 17--Pan-American Petroleum Co., geology, physics and math majors.

Feb. 18--Arthur Anderson & Co., accounting majors.

Feb. 20--Philco Corp., all majors.

Feb. 20 -- Bauer & Black, School of Business and Liberal Arts majors.

If you know of any of our young people who might be interested in these firms, have them contact Mr. Raymond (Bear) Wolf.

FROG CLUB HITS 1,000 MEMBERS

Rudy Copeland, Jr., who was made an honorary ex-student last Homecoming, reports that for the first time in history the Frog Club has more than 1,000 members. The exact figure is 1,012. The Club, you know, is made up of downtown men interested in our athletic program--whether they ever attended TCU or not. Rudy is president this year.

This fine group, always constructive and operated on a high plane, has received $13,291 in contributions this year. It's a new record but comparatively small when other such clubs are considered. The active interest of these men is healthy and beneficial. Paul Ridings, former head of our journalism dept., is secretary and does a fine job.

PRESIDENT TO HAVE PART IN BIG AWARDS PROGRAM

On Feb. 22, Washington's Birthday, the annual awards by the Freedom Foundation will be announced from Valley Forge, Pa. Our own Pres. Sadler, as chairman of one of the Juries making the selections this year, will be prominent in the festivities. The event will be carried on national TV and radio networks. We hear it will be a very fine event indeed.

Incidentally, Dr. Sadler and O. James Sowell of Development were in Cleveland last weekend for an important meeting in the area of promotion and development.

CORRECTIONS FOR CATALOG WANTED

Work of revising the small "General Information Catalog" is now underway. Suggestions that corrections will be welcome. Especially would we like to have changes in faculty may have occurred since last printing. The new publication should be as up-to-date possible. Thanks.

SCHOLARSHIPS COSTING COLLEGES?

The "flood" of scholarships being set up in colleges and universities over the land are not necessarily helpful. Or so said one authority on college development at the Southwest meeting of the American College Public Relations Assn. in Odessa last weekend.

The point: Most of the "scholarships: are for tuition only--or even less. No consideration is given the fact that all schools, even the tax-supported ones, must kick in a large part of each student's cost even when they pay full tuition. The scholarships may help the student but only increase the burden on the school. The solution: Full scholarships including not only what the student pays but what the school must put up. At TCU, it's estimated the student pays $450 a year in tuition--and the school about $400 if full costs are reckoned.

THE FACULTY AND R.E. WEEK

A very fine program for annual Religious Emphasis Week gets underway on Monday. Of special importance to the faculty will be a meeting Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock in Faculty Center for consideration of the subject: "Religious Values in College Teaching." Every member of the staff is urged to attend. Coffee will be served.

Dean Jerome Moore, chairman of the Faculty Committee for the "Week," reports that the discussion leaders for the meeting will be: Dr. Donald Cowan in the natural sciences; Dr. Comer Clay in the social sciences; Dr. Bita May Hall in the humanities. Dr. Paul Wassenich will serve as chairman of the panel. Dr. George Earl Owen, our visiting speaker for R.E. Week, will make a concluding statement.

And don't forget we'll have three convocations in Ed Landreth. They come at 9 a.m. on Monday, when the subject will be: "Reconciliation in a Revolutionary World"; 11 a.m. on Tuesday when the subject will be: "World Peace for a World Community"; and 10 a.m. on Wednesday when the subject will be: "Brotherhood in a World of Racial Tensions." Classes on Monday and Wednesday will be dismissed. That Tuesday hour comes at regular chapel time. (Note: This corrects the times as listed in Dr. Lindley's letter of Feb. 10 which swapped the Tuesday-Wednesday hours).

SYMPHONY CONCERT SUNDAY AT 3 O'CLOCK

The University Symphony orchestra under the baton of Ralph Guenther will give its second concert of the year Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in Ed Landreth. Everybody is cordially invited and urged to attend.

Featured will be Miss Leta Thomason on the flute and Mrs. Martha Pulliam, contralto. Included will be Dvorak's well-loved "New World Symphony" with its familiar "Going theme in the second movement. Don't forget--Sunday at 3 p.m.

"VENUS AND ADONIS" THIS WEEKEND

What promises to be a fine production of John Blow's "Venus and Adonis" will be presented by our Fine Arts folks Friday and Saturday nights in the Little Theater. The Friday night performance will be for members of the TCU Fine Arts Guild and their friends. That on Saturday night will be open to the public. Curtain time is 8:15 o'clock.

Rudolph Kruger will conduct, Melvin Dacus is stage director with help from Martha Pulliam, Dave Preston is the choreographer, the scenery and costumes are by Henry Hammack and Walther Volbach is the overall producer.

RENAISSANCE CONFERENCE MARCH 13-15

Lorraine Sherley has been bee-busy putting the final touches on the program of the seventh annual meeting of The South-Central Renaissance Conference to be held on campus March 14-16. It promises to be a top event.

Two internationally known speakers are scheduled. They are Dr. Surama Dasgupta of India's Lucknow University and Dr. George Kernodle of the University of Arkansas.

More details a bit later.

FINE RESPONSE ON EQUIPMENT-PROJECTS REQUEST

The response from deans and department heads to a questionnaire last week has been wonderful. The idea is to help Info Services prepare material for Development Division on proposed projects and needed equipment to put before prospective donors. Results were most interesting.

Replies came from the Library, Psychology, Chemistry, Speech-Theater-TV, Home conomics, Ranching Program, Church History, Economics, Band, Journalism. Some the proposals were really a "plan for the future." Good work all. It is hoped other divisions will come through with suggestions. While our "dreams" may not come true, never can tell. And it's a cinch they won't come true unless we start—with a plan.

CLASSES IN STUDENT CENTER

The Student Hospitality Committee calls the attention of all teachers to the fact that meetings may be held in Student Center. Each class may meet once during the semester. These events have been very popular in the past. Reservations should be made by calling blizabeth Youngblood.

SELECT SERIES SHOW ON FEB. 20

Next Thursday night, Feb. 20, the third event of our Select Series will be held in Ed Landreth Auditorium. It features the music of France with Varel and Bailly and "Les Chanteurs de Paris." The group was No. 1 on the Canadian "Hit Parade" in 1956 and is known over the world. If you like great music, don't miss this event.

NOTES ON FOLKS OF NOTE

JACK SUGGS, Brite's fine New Testament scholar, has had two articles recently in important journals. "Eusebius and the Gospel Text" was published in the current Harvard Theological Review. It deals with special aspects of the Greek texts of Matthew and Luke used by Eusebius, bishop of Caesarea, in the early fourth century. Jack's "Use of Patristic Evidence in the Search for a Primitive New Testament" appeared in New Testament Studies, an international, multi-lingual publication of Studiorum Novi Testamenti Societas. Fine work.

JIM JACOBSEN and LAWRENCE HANLEY conducted a workshop for school administrators, music directors and contest judges on campus last Saturday. The objective was to consider means of standardizing and clarifying judging procedures in band and other musical events.

BEAR WOLF and ESTUS POLK (among others) are deeply pained over the new boost in the price of hair cuts. They were already being gypped.

CHARLES FOOTE calls attention to a two-year error in the "Frog Horn," the student handbook. Says the text: "The Accounting Society creates further interest in physic." Now one meaning of "physic" is "a remedy for disease; medicine." How it got mixed up with accounting we don't know. A correction will be suggested to the student eds.

Speaking of busy folks, consider DEAN ROBERT HULL'S recent "co-curricular" doings: Talked with Brite students on "Religion and the Arts"; served as temporary chairman of Tarrant County Ministerial Assn. committee making plans for a conference on "The Arts the Art of Worship"; conducted a choral workshop for the American Guild of Organists; was banquet speaker for the Dallas Composers' Conference. Dean Robert got a kick out of the fact that the Dallas groups (Public Library, Symphony Orchestra and Pederation of Music Clubs) came to Fort Worth for a speaker. We figure they just had been good judgment!

HEAD, the assistant professor of Air Science who has become such a fine member of be Maj. Malcolm A. Phillips Jr., one of our former students. Everybody's gonna be ighty sad to see Jim leave. We continue to be blessed with fine military folks.

RAROLD LUNGER attended the meeting of the Association of Seminary Professors of Social Ethics in Philadelphia last week,

JEROME MOORE will head a visitation committee of the Southern Assn. to Mexico City College late this month. Other members are Rufus C. Harris of Tulane and John McMahon of Our Lady of the Lake, San Antonio.

ESTUS POLK's doctoral dissertation, "Alaric Watts and the Blackwood Group," has been put on microcard by the University of Kentucky libraries and will be abstracted in a forthcoming edition of the South Atlantic Bulletin. Nice work "Curley" (see page 5).

A major paper, "The Authority of Christ," was read by GLENN ROUTT at a St. Louis meeting of the special committee working on a statement of the Christian Churches Disciples) beliefs. The paper is due to appear in an up-coming issue of Encounter.

The deep sympathy of the entire campus goes to INA MAE BRAMBLETT on the double bereavement that struck her family recently. Her mother, Mrs. Maggie Bramblett, died after a long illness at the end of January. Her brother died only two days after the funeral.

TO ALL FACULTY:

Three University wide convocations are scheduled to be held in Ed Landreth Auditorium next week in connection with Religious Emphasis Week.

These convocations are staggered so that no class will be dismissed for more than one time. All classes will be dismissed for the convocations to be held at the following hours:

9:00 A. M. - Monday, February 17. 10:00 A. M. - Tuesday, February 18. 11:00 A. M. - Wednesday, February 19.

Dr. George Earle Owen, Executive Chairman of the Division of General Departments of the United Christian Missionary Society will be the convocation speaker.

The participation of the Faculty in all the Religious Emphasis Week activities will mean a great deal. Especially are all Faculty urged to attend the convocations and to urge their students to do likewise.

Most cordially yours,

D. Ray Undley

Vice President
