OL. XXXIV

April 9, 1958

No. 30

IVING MEMORIAL SERVICE ON MAY 25

our of the greatest faculty members in the University's long and eventful history will be attingly honored on campus the afternoon of Sunday, May 25, at a "Living Memorial Pervice." Their well-remembered names and faces, cast on bronzeplaques, will be un-likely and eventually placed in appropriate buildings as lasting memorials.

be honored: Dr. John W. Lord, once dean of Graduate School and chairman of Government; J. Willard Ridings, creator of Journalism Dept. and first public relations han; Dr. Gayle Scott, chairman of biology-geology and president of the Southwest Athletic Conference; and Prof. E. Weir McDiarmid, chairman of Philosophy.

Planned by the Trustee Committee on Faculty Recognition (Chairman Clyde Tomlinson, Granville Walker and Jerome Moore) the occasion will be one of the year's highlights. The plaques, designed and cast under the direction of Leonard Logan of Art, will be similar to those which hang in the cloisters of Religion Center honoring Clinton Lockhart, C. Morro and Cecil Cheverton.

betails of the May program, at which Pres. Sadler will speak, are now being worked out the committee. These plans, along with full reports on the wonderful men to be longed, will be given later. Right now, just be sure and put a big red circle around the 3 p.m., Sunday, May 25. We know that every member of faculty and staff as well members of the Board of Trustees, will want to attend this great service.

0000000000000

MANIST JOHANNESEN HERE THURSDAY

he next-to-last event on the "Select Series" will be held Thursday night when Grant oblannesen, famed pianist, appears in Ed Landreth Auditorium. Season tickets are good, course. Incidentally, tickets of any and all sorts were very scarce to the last event-Greco's Spanish dancers. In fact, there were reports that some folks downtown called and offered as much as $30 for a pair!

TEAHOUSE" TO OPEN NEXT WEEK

production of our Little Theatre season, John Patrick's popular "Teahouse of the lowest Moon," opens for a seven-performance run the night of April 18. Walther lower reports the show will be one you won't want to miss. So make those plans right

CLASSES INVITED TO "ATOMS" EXHIBIT

The "Atoms for Peace" exhibit being held in the Will Rogers Exhibit Building on Crestline Road until April 13 is attracting goodly crowds. Those in charge have issued a special invitation to TCU faculty members and their classes to see it. Regular hours are 6 to 10 p.m. through Friday and 2 to 10 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday.

Special hours for school groups are 10 a.m. to noon and 1 to 3 p.m. Arrangements can be made for classes or clubs. Main part of the exhibit is 80 panel displays, several of which are animated.

और 1 और 1 और 1 और 1 और

AN INVITE TO "NATIONAL RESOURCES CONFERENCE"

Sponsored by the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce, a "National Resources Conference" will be held April 14-25 at Will Rogers Auditorium. C. J. Watson of the C. of C. has invited all TCU staff members and student groups to attend any of the sessions without charge. Regular registration fee: $12.50.

Lectures will be held from 10 a.m. until noon and from 1 to 3 p.m. each day, Monday through Friday, for the two weeks. Conducted by the Industrial College of the Armed Forces, the Conference will hear nationally known experts discuss such things as:

Soviet Communism, Public Opinion, Emergency Management, Organization for National Security, War Finance, Distribution Logistics, Strategic and Critical Materials, Fuel and Power, Human Resources, Geopolitics, Geo-Economics, the USSR, etc. Some of the lectures may fit into classwork now in progress. Any of our groups will be welcome to any of the discussions, Watson said. Info Services has a copy of the schedule if anyone is interested.

//////

DR. CRENSHAW TO SPEAK TO FWC

Proy Crenshaw, chairman of English will speak on "One Language for One World" at the annual business meeting of the Faculty Woman's Club in Weatherly Hall at 3 p.m., Tuesday, April 15. New officers are to be elected. Mrs. John Wortham is chairman of the meeting and Mrs. Jack Suggs is co-chairman. Mrs. Herbert Mundhenke will be in the Charge of refreshments and Mrs. Ralph Garrett of decorations.

0000000000

NY TIMES TAKES NOTE

Announcing in the March 28 issue that H. C. Branner's "The Judge" is to open in the Theatre Marquee in May, the drama section of the august NY Times gave TCU some credit. After discussing the five-character import from Denmark, the cautious Times said: "According to Texas Christian University, the play had its U. S. premiere there in December, 1956." That's right, we say it again. Walther Volbach brought the play back from a trip to Europe, if we remember correctly.

PRAISE FOR RENAISSANCE CONFERENCE

From campuses all over the area are coming words of praise for the recent South-Central Renaissance Conference held here. Lorraine Sherley, Karl Snyder and their co-workers are getting all sorts of "back-pats" by mail. And well deserved too. Such words as "by far one of the finest that I have ever attended" and "impressed by the time and loving care that had been lavished on details both great and small" were well earned.

XXXXXXXXX

SORORITY GRADES FOR THE FALL

The fraternities, which did fairly well in the battle-of-the-books last semester, have to take a back seat to the sororities. Two of the gals' groups had averages of 2.0 or better and the lowest group over all was 1.64. The complete recent report:

Sorority	Pledges	Actives	Overall
Kappa Kappa Gamma	1.9591	2.1418	2.0667
Kappa Alpha Theta	2.0873	2.0357	2.0624
Delta Delta Delta	1.0930	1.9377	1.9219
Zeta Tau Alpha	1.8668	1.9769	1.9065
Pi Beta Phi	1.8884	1.9026	1.8952
Alpha Delta Pi	1.8121	2.0060	1.8818
Chi Omega	1.8400	1.8563	1.8474
Delta Gamma	1.5111	1.8933	1.6909
Kappa Delta	1.5970	1.7164	1.6537
Alpha Gamma Delta	1.5071	1.7990	1.6425

Considering that 1.0 is "C" or medium work, these marks by the gal Greeks seem very good indeed. And those 2.0's for any group are really tops.

111111*111111

B-E WEEK EVENT SLATED FOR APRIL 23

As a part of Business-Education Week, some 175 teachers from city and near by grade and high schools will attend our weekly faculty luncheon in the Ballroom at noon April 23. They will be guests of the Petroleum Industry and TCU for the day. It will be an important event for us and it is hoped that as many of our people as possible will take part.

Working with the Chamber of Commerce and others, business and industry will be out to explain and demonstrate their most important place in the American scheme of things during the "Week." The Petroleum group will bring out their group of teacher-guests to campus for a morning program, then attend our regular luncheon, and during the after-noon are planning a big exhibit of their wheeled machinery and equipment down on the Stadium parking lots. From what we can hear, this exhibit will be worth the price of admission (if there was one). All interested TCU folks have been cordially invited to take as much part in the entire day as they can. Chances are that many will find both the morning program and the afternoon demonstrations very interesting indeed. Certainly we all need to know all we can about one of our basic industries.

SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA CONCERT ON SUNDAY

An All-American program, including the first performance of a composition by our own Ralph Guenther, will be played Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in Ed Landreth Auditorium by the TCU Symphony. There is no admission charge and everyone is cordially invited to attend and bring their friends and neighbors.

Ralph's composition to be used is "Three Songs for Soprano and Orchestra." Mary Lou Palmros will be the soloist. Several other works will be played in Fort Worth for the first time. They include Charles Griffes' "Pleasure Dome of Kublai Khan," Frederick Converse's "The Mystic Trumpeter." There will be other works by Samuel Barber and George Chadwick. Sounds like a very fine event and 'tis hoped most of the "family" can attend.

RT talked on "Had ()()()()()()

I'S A BOY FOR THE JIM FARRARS

In the opinion of Jim Farrar, director of Religious Activities, "the world situation took a decided turn for the better last week. People can take new hope. The stronger and sounder elements of society are reproducing themselves!"

Such was a Jim's way of announcing the arrival of a new son (the third). Name: Anson Ellsworth Farrar. Oh yes, Jim appends a last line: "Mrs. Farrar was there all the time!!"

* 11 11 11 11 11 11 11 *

FINE ARTS FESTIVAL

Starting with Sunday's Symphony concert, the School of Fine Arts will present a "Festival of American Arts" for the rest of this semester. It will be the 17th annual "Festival" of irtistic events, now a tradition on campus.

Events will include Little Theatre's "Teahouse" presentation April 18-19, April 22-26; in art exhibit in our Gallery of four Florida contemporary artists; a two-piano concert april 15 at 4 p. m.; chamber music by the faculty String Quartet and Woodwind Quintet on April 20 at 3 p. m.; a piano recital by Joe Bratcher on April 21 at 8:15; a Phi Mu-Mu Phi Program on April 24 at 4 p. m. and a big finale, Bloch's Sacred Service by the Festival Chorus and orchestra on May 19 at 8:15 p. m. Dean Hull will conduct this final event with Mack Harrell the featured baritone.

000000000000000

OTES ON FOLKS OF NOTE

NOFL KEITH preached the Easter Morning service of the Fort Worth Ministers' Association at Broadway Baptist Church.

WILLIS HEWATT and LEO HENDRICKS were busy during Easter Holidays showing a prospective prof from Utah over campus.

Certain learned and distinguished members of the School of Business, to quote a nice memo from the School of Business, were busy with important things at the Southwestern Social Science Association meeting in Dallas last weekend. Among them: SAMUEL LEIFESTE, who spoke to a sectional meeting, served as associate editor for Division of B. A. and on the nominating committee; PAUL HASTINGS, who addressed a sectional meeting; MURRAY ROHMAN, who spoke on Labor Law to a sectional meeting of the American Business Law Association; "handsome" IKE HARRISON, who took part in the meeting of the Deans of Schools of Business. We went along until that last adjective.

JIM MOUDY read a paper, "Admission to Candidacy at the Masters' Level" at the recent annual meeting of the Association of Texas Graduate Schools in Dallas. (Was everybody in Dallas?)

MARTINE EMERT talked on "Historic and Geographic Background of the North Africa Conflict" at a meeting of the Texas Council of Geography Teachers at Paschal high recently. (She remained in Fort Worth at least.)

JO ANN JAMES, who becomes assistant dean of women next semester, visited on campus last week. Now at Syracuse U., she is gracious and friendly and will make a fine addition to our staff.

RAY LINDLEY, ELMER HENSON, HAROLD LUNGER will take part in the awarding of honorary D. D. degrees to Chester Crow and Dudley Strain at the State Convention of Christian Churches in Houston Thursday night. Chester, of course, is General Secretary of the Texas Board of Christian Churches and Dudley is pastor of the First Church of Lubbock and president of the 71st annual Convention. Congrats to them both.

JEAN KEMP, wife of Dr. Charles of Brite, is in Harris Hospital (Room 557) after a major operation last Thursday. Hope she's doing well by this time. Incidentally, HENRY HARDT is reported recovering nicely from that second operation some 10 days ago.

The brother of MICHAEL WINESANKER, a medical doctor from up East, was a visitor on campus last week. Seemed to enjoy the fairly good weather. Incidentally, at least one other visitor from Michigan marveled that we had no snow and that Spring had sprung--at least a little. It sure has been a late Spring, especially to the north of us.

RABBIT McDOWELL is having a tough go his first season as coach of the varsity baseball team. After the pros got through taking such stars as Jim Shofner and others, it was a hard job to put a team together.

Hope everyone saw the story of the appointment of DR. GEORGE D. CROW as assistant prof of Spanish. He's well qualified and in recent years has been director of the Bi-Nacional Center in Bogota, Colombia. His appointment here is effective next September. Other faculty appointments are pending.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McDaniel of Commerce, father and mother of Mrs. TROY CRENSHAW, visited over the weekend and had bad luck. Mrs. McDaniel turned her ankle, fell and broke her hip. She's in St. Joseph's.

PRES. SADLER has accepted appointment as a member of the Advisory Committee of Fort Worth for the year-long observance of the 75th Anniversary of the Federal Civil Service. Fred Korth of Continental National Bank is chairman of the local advisory group.

################

OFFICIAL ABSENCES

NOTE: Dean Larry Smith reports that some of the letters certifying OFFICIAL ABSENCES between March 26 and April 2 were lost. If any faculty member needs verification on certain students, call Ext. 231 and leave your name and that of the student with Mrs. Hall.

The following students were absent from classes Friday, March 21, in order to participate Ranch Week activities:

Vanderpool, Kay Haggard, Dick Barry, Ed Potter, Robert

Jorfman, Lewis Hanna, Bob Nelson, O'Neal White, Ray
McGaughey, Phil

Mayer, George Cole, O. D. Roberts, Bill Eury, Roy Mourhart, John Hogg, Wade Johnson, Charley Simpson, Wade

00000000000

April 7, 1958

Dear Colleagues:

This is just a note to remind you that Grant Johanneson, one of the most distinguished of American pianists, will appear on the Select Series Thursday, April 10, at 8 p.m. in Ed Landreth Auditorium.

Since this is difinitely one of the "cultural" numbers, we need your help in encouraging students to attend. Good music should be a part of the background of every well-educated individual, and programs like this should be heard by students from all departments as well as those from the School of Fine Arts.

Thanks for any help you can give.

Cordially,

Deminente Pater

Marguerite Potter Co-Chairman, Select Series

P.S. For people who do not have Select Series tickets, single admissions will be $1.00.

MP/msw

There will be no mail metered in the Printing & Mailing Department Friday afternoon, April 4th. Any Mail that must go out Friday afternoon should be stamped and mailed at the POST OFFICE.