

HEADING DOWN THE HOME STRETCH

In horse racing (so Noel Keith says), the final phase of an event is called the "run to the wire." That's where we are now in this session--turning for home at the head of the stretch and going all out in the final furlong. Hope nobody gets cut off (a racing term for being pinched in) and that everybody makes the May 30 finish in good style.

But it will be a very busy stretch indeed. For the info of all, here are some of the dates and events remaining:

- May 7-8--Creative Writing Event, Convocation 11 a. m., Thursday.
- May 7-8--Showing of film "Oedipus Rex," 3 and 8 p. m., Ed Landreth.
- May 9--Student Activities Council Banquet (see below).
- May 13--M. E. Daniel Memorial Service, Carr Chapel, 11 a. m.
- May 13--Band Banquet, SC Ballroom.
- May 15--Horned Frog Banquet, distribution of yearbook.
- May 16--ROTC Awards Day, ceremony on campus; Spring Sports Banquet, Ballroom, 6:30.
- May 18--Dave Brubeck Orchestra, Ed Landreth, 3 p. m. (final Select Series).
- May 19-24--Review Week (dead for social events--to students).
- May 20--Final Faculty Party, Ballroom (honoring retiring members).
- May 21--Final Faculty Luncheon, Ballroom at noon.
- May 23--Living Memorial Service, honoring four former faculty members, SC Ballroom, 3 p. m.
- May 26-30--Final Examinations.
- May 25--Baccalaureate Service, Ed Landreth, 9:30 a. m.
- May 28--Annual Ranch Training Banquet, Ballroom, 6:30 p. m.
- May 30--Senior Tea, Ballroom, 3:30 p. m.; Commencement Exercises, West Campus, 8 p. m.
- June 2--Registration for Summer Term I.

MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR MILTON DANIEL TUESDAY

With Pres. Sadler as the speaker, we will pay a last tribute to Milton Daniel next Tuesday at 11 a. m. A "Memorial Service" will be held in Robert Carr Chapel with Jim Farrar presiding and Dr. Lindley giving the prayer. The Chapel choir will sing.

Specially invited guests will include the trustees, members of our various boards, friends of Breckenridge and Fort Worth relatives. Of course, all members of faculty and staff are invited to take part. The reverent and impressive service will honor the man who played such a large part in the life of TCU for some 50 years.

"OUTSTANDING PROF" TO BE NAMED FRIDAY

A new event by the Activities Council of Student Congress will see the "Outstanding Professor of the Year" named at a banquet Friday night in the SC Ballroom. We hear the young folks went about the business "scientifically," first asking for nominations and then evaluating the votes according to whether the voter made A, B, C, D or F under the prof concerned. (They know for sure the A's would vote with more enthusiasm than the F's.)

There are eight finalists, one of whom will be chosen. Everybody's welcome to attend the dinner and tickets are $2.50 to any who want to take part.

Incidentally, we hear that a surprisingly large number of faculty folks have asked for those "Teacher Evaluation Blanks" the Council wrote about recently. The completed sheets go back to the teacher and are seen by nobody else. Apparently a lot of our people have decided to see just how their students evaluate them. There's absolutely nothing "official" or compulsory about the questionnaire.

HELP WANTED FOR ADDRAN EXES MEETING

The annual meeting of the AddrAn Exes Association, composed of those swell veterans who attended TCU when it was AddrAn, will be held on campus at 10 a.m., May 24. Some help will be needed in serving them and making them feel at home. If anybody can take a hand that morning, please get in touch with Libby Youngblood.

SENIORS' GRADES NEEDED BY MAY 28

Calvin Cumbie calls attention of all to the fact that in order to meet deadlines for Spring Commencement, it will be necessary that all grades for degree candidates be furnished the Registrar not later than 4:30 p.m., Wednesday, May 28. Arrangements should be made by individual instructors for any necessary exams on an individual basis for those students who are graduating and would not normally be scheduled for exams until Thursday or Friday, May 29-30.

Special class rolls including only those students who are degree candidates will be furnished by the Registrar's Office not later than May 15. Please don't forget as this is most important.

EXAM SCHEDULE WITH THIS BULLETIN

Please note (and save) the Spring examination schedule included with this notice. The usual rules on exams will apply so be sure and check should anyone ask for deviations.

CREATIVE WRITING CONVOCATION THURSDAY

'Tis hoped all faculty and staff folks will get this Bulletin in time to be reminded of the annual Creative Writing Convocation in Ed Landreth at 11 a. m., Thursday. Chairman Mabel Major has lined up an outstanding program including the main address by Paul Horgan, the famed New Mexican writer who won the Pulitzer Prize for "Great River" in 1954.

Miss Mabel will preside and announce the winners in 11 divisions of creative writing by students and exes during the past year. At 12:30 o'clock, the winners and guest speakers will be honored at a luncheon in SC Ballroom. Thursday afternoon at 4:00, Horgan will speak at the final event in the Ballroom on "A Modern Look at Yesterday's Heroes." Camilla Campbell, author of many children's books, is also visiting with us during the event and opened the program Wednesday afternoon. And don't forget to congratulate the student winners this year. Excellence in creative writing is one thing we need.

MAY 16 LAST DAY FOR DROPPING A COURSE

Calvin Cumbie reminds that Friday, May 16, is the last day for dropping a course. Hope there's no confusion in this area.

PHOTOCOPY MACHINE IN LIBRARY

Glenn Sparks reports that the Library now has a photocopy machine which can reproduce pages in books and magazines. One use will be to copy pages in non-circulating materials for library users (for a small fee, yet to be set). Another will be to save wear and tear of magazines when assignments are made for a class to read a specific article. The Library requests that in the future, before such assignments are made, the Loan Librarian be notified far enough in advance that copies of the pages may be made and placed on reserve at the loan desk. Students can then be told that the article is available at the desk rather than in the magazine or volume.

Glenn also reports that if furniture and equipment arrive on schedule, the Library may again be moved around June 2. Reserve lists for summer courses should be sent to the Library as far in advance of the term as possible, beginning now, in order that they may be processed before moving begins. Also, if any books now on reserve are no longer needed for classes, please notify the Library so they can be returned to the stacks.

PUBLICATIONS OF PROCEEDINGS HERE

Two very fine booklets that resulted from meetings here last semester have come to hand. One is "Selected Papers from Arbitration and Industrial Relations Conference, TCU, 1957" from the School of Business. It is No. 3 in a series of Business and Economic Studies put out by the School. The other is "Significant Elements in College and Adult Reading Improvement" which resulted from the National Reading Conference on campus. Again Oscar Causey does a top job of editing.

FINAL FACULTY PARTY ON MAY 20

Don't forget the big, final party for faculty the night of May 20 in SC Ballroom at 6:30. The gals of the Faculty Women's Club have really been working hard (notable Martha Head) to make it a large evening. Reservations are $2 per plate and an effort will be made to contact everybody for reservations. If you AREN'T called, get in touch with Mary Beth Scott at Ext. 229.

We'll be honoring such retiring faculty folks as Newton Gaines, Katherine Bailey, Brooks Morris, T. F. Richardson, Hortense Winton, Hazel Woodward, Arthur Faguy-Cote and Mrs. Bash who is leaving as a dorm hostess. We'll also be saying something of a fond farewell to Jim and Martha Head (they're headed for Japan) and Warren and Etta Agee (headed for the wilds of West Virginia). So don't miss this event.

NOTES ON FOLKS OF NOTE

Word has come that JIM CROSS, former C. O. of the Army ROTC unit, has been assigned as deputy secretary of the General Staff of SHAPE in France. He's due to become secretary as soon as he learns the ropes. It is a big honor for an Army man and friends here are happy.

BITA MAY HALL was in Springfield, O., last week for the national meeting of the Phi Sigma Iota, the honorary Romance Language Society. She is second vice-president. Student Pat Miller went along.

Hope everybody saw the story that JAMES BOYNTON, a 1949 grad in Commercial Art, has a picture on exhibit in the U. S. Pavilion at the World's Fair in Brussels. He's a former student of SAMUEL ZIEGLER, emeritus art professor. Boynton is now 30.

Seen coming out of the Business Office during the heavy rains last week, EULA LEE CARTER confided that she had just been in seeing if she could "enroll in a swimming course." Not a bad idea.

That was a nice story on JAMES WOZNIAK in the Press on Sunday. Things are looking up in the pottery department of Fine Arts.

ALL ORIENTATION PLANNED FOR SEPT. 13

Prof. Sadler and Dr. Lindley announce that the plan for holding a faculty get-together prior to the opening of the Fall semester will be continued with some modifications. They have called next Fall's session for Saturday, Sept. 13, in Dan D. Rogers Hall. Please note the date and place.

NEW members of faculty and staff will be asked to come at 8:30 a. m. for a discussion of basic things. All the OLD members of the "family" will be asked to join the newcomers at 9:30 for a general session. There'll be a coffee break around 10 a. m. to which BOTH groups are invited. Everybody is asked to put a big red circle (monthly at least) around the date and the hour right now. It will be an important occasion as we too the mark for a new session.
