A RIGHT BUSY WEEK COMING UP

The campus will be jumping with important goings-on next week. On Thursday, March 5, the Spring meeting of the Trustees is set for 10 a. m. to be followed at noon by the dedication luncheon and ceremonies for our four new buildings.

The Board, with Chairman Lorin Boswell presiding, will hear Pres. Sadler's semi-annual report which will touch on many items including recommendations for promotions in rank and for permanent tenure. The 1959-1960 budget (as prepared over several weeks by Mr. L. C. White and the Administrative Committee) will be up for approval. A report on the proposed revision of the University charter and by-laws will be made by the committee headed by Amos Melton. Other items are on the agenda.

Then at noon, the Board will join with faculty and invited guests to dedicate officially Sherley and Clark Halls, the Library and the Bailey Building. The Ballroom of the Student Center will be the place. All members of the faculty are invited to attend as guests of the University. (See below) However, it is once more pointed out that all those planning to take part should arrange to stay throughout the program. A great deal of coming-and going would be disturbing.

Dr. Harvie Branscomb, chancellor of Vanderbilt University, is to be the speaker. Others on the program are Jim Moudy, Emmet Smith, Noel Keith, Ernest Lawrence, Jim Farrar, Dr. Lindley and Dr. Newton Robison of the Amarillo Christian Church. Dr. Sadler will preside over all. 'Tis indeed a busy week coming up.

WE WIN CASH, MEDAL FROM FREEDOMS FOUNDATION

Everyone's right proud over the announcement early this week that TCU had been awarded $100 and the George Washington Honor Medal by the Freedoms Foundation of Valley Forge. Specifically, the awards came for our annual Citizenship and Career Conference for high school seniors of this area and for the annual "Sadler Freedom Lecture" given each Spring. This series, of course, was established by the B'nai B'rith of Fort Worth in honor of our president.

The Foundation awards, as you may know, are given "for outstanding achievement in helping to bring about a better understanding of the American Way of Life." As you may recall, Pres. Sadler served as chairman of the Awards Juries last year.

ATTENTION ALL! ACTUNG! LOOKIE!

CALL IF YOU CAN'T ATTEND DEDICATION

Since Ballroom facilities are limited for the big Dedication Ceremony next week (see above), all faculty folks who CANNOT attend are asked to call Miss McDonald (Ext. 214) or drop by and let her know. Chairman Jim Farrar points out it is highly important that we have some exact count of the number who WILL attend. So all those who DO NOT call you'll be expected. Remember, the faculty will be guests.

SOS SOS! PLEASE TAKE A HARD LOOK AT THAT PROPOSED PRINTING JOB. IS IT NECESSARY?

Apparently, the fame of Jim Lehman's skill in preparing programs, brochures, etc, and etc. has spread far. During the past few weeks, it seems that almost every division on campus has come up with a project they want him to handle. He's mighty happy to help where he can, of course, but the flood has reached a new peak. With the new catalog series now going through his office, Jim estimates he's only five or six weeks behind.

So everybody planning a printing job in the next few months are asked to take a hard look to see if it's absolutely necessary. If it is, then all divisions and individuals are most urgently requested to bring the project in at least ONE MONTH in advance. Otherwise it's simply gonna be impossible to get it out. Hope everyone will help on this.

FACULTY PHOTO EXHIBIT TO OPEN APRIL 8

The attention of all is called to the announcement of the Faculty Photography Exhibit which is attached to this issue of Ye Bulletin. The showing will be held in Faculty Center the last three weeks of April and EVERYBODY is cordially invited to enter. There'll be no judging, prizes or ribbons--just a lot of fun. If YOU have a favorite snapshot or any picture that's interesting, why no enter?

NEW CAMPUS MAPS AVAILABLE

New and up-to-date maps of the campus, with special messages and info about the University for visitors, are now ready for all divisions and offices. They may be obtained from the Printing & Mailing Room in the basement of the Ad Bldg. (near the post office).

The new maps show all new buildings and other features. Each office should have some available for visitors. They're not available in huge quantities but there are enough to go around for usual use. 'Tis a good idea to pick some of them up soon.

OUR CAREER CONFERENCE NETS STUDENTS

The Citizenship and Career Conference for high school seniors (see above), which we stage at midterm each year, brings a goodly number of students to campus the next fall, recent studies indicate. On the figures alone (and they're not 100% accurate) we've been getting about 4% of ALL seniors who take part. And, when you consider that some of the largest Conferences each year are in areas which do not require college training, the percentage is even higher. The boys and girls who go to the sessions on "Beauty Culture," "Auto Mechanic and Machinist" and many is "Secretarial Science," do not try for college degrees. Eliminating these rather large groups, the figures indicate we get about 8-10% of the young people who attend the one-day event. Not bad.

At Texas Western in El Paso, where a similar event is held, they estimate they get about 30% of the seniors who attend. Not too surprising in light of the fact that there isn't another college within several hundred miles. Our situation is a shade different in that respect.

RELIGIOUS EMPHASIS WEEK MARCH 8-11

With a theme of "The Inevitable Counter--Sovereign, Self and Society," annual R. E. Week on campus has been set for March 8-11. Dr. Gustave A. Ferre, dean of Cotner College, Lincoln, Neb., will speak at three Convocations in Ed Landreth. They come at 9 a. m. on March 9, 11 a. m. on March 10 and 10 a. m. on March 11.

Rev. J. W. Matthews of the Christian Faith and Life Community at the U. of T., will speak at vesper services on March 9-10 at 6:15 p. m. in Robert Carr Chapel. Other speakers representing various denominational groups will lead discussions and speak to student organizations.

Rev. James Farrar, director of religious activities on campus, invites all faculty members to observe R. E. Week in classes by either speaking on some phase of the general theme or some aspect of religion and their particular academic field. Give it some thought.

NEWCOMERS MEETING SET FOR MARCH 3

The Newcomers Group of the Faculty Women's Club will meet Tuesday, March 3, at the home of Mrs. Ernest Barratt, 3641 Norfolk Rd., from 3 to 5 p. m. The program will include a lecture, with slides, on the Fort Worth Children's Museum by Mrs. Richard L. Griffin. Hostesses for the meeting will be Mmes. Saul Sells, chairman; James Moudy, Paul G. Wassenich, Leland Pratt, George D. Crow, James Wozniak and A. J. Ehlmann. 'Tis hoped that all members of the Newcomers Group will plan to attend.

TWO FAMED MOVIES SCHEDULED ON CAMPUS

A pair of well-known films are set for showing on "Flick Nite" in Student Center ballroom early in March. They are "The King and I" on March 5 and "Giant" on March 10. Both will start at 6:45 p.m. and admission is only 20¢. Sounds like a good deal.

NOTES ON FOLKS OF NOTE

PAUL HASTINGS of Business will speak over WBAP-TV Saturday, March 7, 12:30 to 12:45 p.m. His topic: "Making Your Money Count" and will provide some background info for the average person in planning his investments. (How's about some pointers on getting something to invest, Paul?)

LUCY MAE JENNINGS was in Austin last weekend for a meeting of the Commission to study Business Education in Texas. She's a member. Recently she was a group leader for the Business Education section of the Texas Association of Supervision and Curriculum Development which met in Fort Worth.

ED CANNAN of History has been granted a leave of absence for the 1959-1960 school year to complete work on his Ph. D. Ed has received a grant from the Danforth Foundation for the work. Congrats! ✓

OTTO NIELSEN represented DR. SADLER at the inaugural ceremonies of Ralph Wright Steen as the third president of Stephen F. Austin State College earlier this month. Otto then made a swing through the Rio Grande Valley where he interviewed many high school students interested in TCU. He was also the main speaker at several "Career Days" for Valley high schools. Good work.

NOTES ON FOLKS OF NOTE

LES EVANS, director of our Teacher Placement Bureau, reports that Alexander Koerth of Port Arthur will be on campus Thursday, Feb. 26, to interview teachers for the school system there. If you know of anyone that might be interested, pass the word.

A. T. DeGROOT has a short article, "The Trail of the Faith & Order Documents," in the January, 1959 issue of The Ecumenical Review, a quarterly issued from Geneva, Switzerland. Grants from the TCU Faculty Research Fund enabled him to do the work the article reports.
