Dear Mr. Monnig,

Please find enclosed my personal check for $295.30, to cover your refund after the purchase of the 85.7 grams and 77.5 gram Murchison meteorites. The postage was $1.50.

I am very sorry about the inconvenience ⁺ caused you. It is naturally my wish to keep every customer satisfied, and I certainly would not want to antagonize or inconvenience someone who places enough trust in me to send a check for a large sum. I would like to prove that trust.

Your specimens were not sent off until Wednesday because we had riots here on campus, and the main buildings, in one of which our post office is located, were closed down Monday and Tuesday. I had meant by my earlier letter that I would send them off Monday the 3rd, not the previous Monday, but apparently I made that unclear.

If you would prefer not to keep the specimen which has a broken end, please feel free to return it for a refund. I hope you find the other specimen satisfactory.

I want to thank you for your order.

Very sincerely,

 Jim Mull
